What Do You Do With An Idea:

Social-Emotional Learning Using Makerspaces and Passion Projects Julie Darling, 2022-01-20 Social Emotional Learning Using Makerspaces and Passion Projects is chock full of meaningful projects that educators can use to teach social emotional skills in grades 3-6. The projects show students how to create a digital calming room prototype, an inclusive playground, and make recycled cards with paper circuits to spread kindness. They also teach young makers how to focus on self-regulation and self-care, engage in community outreach by helping struggling families, and tell their own stories using podcasting and green screening. In addition, the book provides teachers with helpful strategies for scaffolding passion projects, funding a makerspace, and tips for building community and celebrating diversity. With the engaging ideas in this book, educators will be able to help their students build direct connections to social awareness, relationship skills, responsible decision-making, self-management, and self-awareness. Then invest in yourself each day with Jeff's promptings and see the difference you can make to your life in just five minutes a day. Are you ready for the challenge?

Ideas That Changed Literacy Practices Dennis Sumara, Donna E. Alvermann, 2021-10-29 A 2022 SPE Outstanding Book Award Winner. How do ideas change practices and people? In Ideas That Changed Literacy Practices, 32 influential scholars in literacy education get personal about how they have worked on ideas and how those ideas have worked on them. Together, the essays offer never-before-revealed personal histories of the authors published writing about ideas that have shaped the field of literacy education. As a collection, the essays highlight some of the major themes that have guided and changed literacy practices over the last few decades. They also offer a rare glimpse into the complex ways histories of research emerge alongside personal and political influences on policy and practice. The volume includes an introductory chapter by Sumara and Alvermann in which they detail the processes they used in creating a context for the significance of this work. They begin with the premise that most literacy scholars rarely, if ever, reveal their personal and intellectual investments in ideas that have animated their research and other scholarly endeavors. That this observation rang true for all of the contributors was evidenced in their responses to the invitation. For example, some replied by saying this was the most exciting project they had engaged in because it required reflection on what motivated them to write the requested 3,500-word essay; others mentioned they were looking forward to reading what their peers would share. Ideas That Changed Literacy Practices is a unique collection of autobiographical essays that situates literacy learning and teaching in a rich context of personal and professional knowledge that highlights and celebrates the vibrant complexities of the field of literacy education It is a unique and valuable resource for researchers and educators whether in K 12 or higher education Perfect for courses such as Introduction to Literacy Research Literacy Research and Methods Language Literacy and Culture Literacy Policy and Practice Narrative Research Interpretive Inquiry Research Methods in Education Foundations of Literacy Education Research Methods in Language and Literacy Popular Culture in Literacy Classrooms New and Digital Literacies History of Literacy Practices Educational Philosophy Reading and Language Arts Critical Theory Poststructuralism Digital Media Education Creative Writing Politics of Literacy

Children's Literature

Aligned with SDGs to Promote Global Competencies Angela K. Salmon,Aixa Pérez-Prado,Karin Morrison,Flavia Iuspa,2024-05-23 This book presents children s literature as a platform for learning and helping young readers develop the knowledge skills and attitudes needed to thrive in an interconnected and diverse global society It draws from various theoretical frameworks and research findings to implement critical literacy and culturally responsive teaching in the meaning making process The book focuses on global competencies and Sustainable Development Goals SDGs as intertwined concepts that work together to foster a more sustainable inclusive and equitable world Developing global competencies empowers children and communities to actively participate in achieving the SDGs and addressing the pressing challenges of our time. The authors set high expectations on children as actors in transforming society. To facilitate this, the book offers an overview of child development theories as a foundation for designing developmentally appropriate practices to extend children's books toward deep thinking and understanding. The book includes sample lessons that use cutting-edge research-based pedagogies and tools such as visible thinking routines and other approaches. Those lessons also help readers identify the Habits of Mind (HOM) children can develop by listening to and discussing stories. The HOMs are attributes of good problem finders and problem solvers needed when confronting complex issues. The book provides resources and sample lessons that implement different thinking strategies to engage children in questioning and analyzing what they read, making them more critical. This is how children deeply understand the world and their role in creating positive change. The book aims to cultivate change makers and global citizens through stories. It offers innovative approaches including online learning options in accessible and engaging ways to help children think globally and act locally. Through the power of children's literature, this book serves a larger agenda: To build a more thoughtful world for future generations. By caring for and learning from one another through suggested activities in this book, they will share the riches and resources from across the world. As children learn about the promise of actions toward the UN Sustainable Goals, they can imagine living in an interdependent learning community where all people continually searching for ways to trust each other, learn together, and grow toward greater intelligence.
