What Is Islam The Importance Of Being Islamic:

What is Islam? Shahab Ahmed, 2016 What is Islam How do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction What is Islamic about Islamic philosophy or Islamic art Should we speak of Islam or of islams Should we distinguish the Islamic the religious from the Islamicate the cultural Or should we abandon Islamic altogether as an analytical term In What Is Islam Shahab Ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of Islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture He argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding Islam distorting it diminishing it and rendering it incoherent What Is Islam formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing Islam It presents a new paradigm of how Muslims have historically understood divine revelation one that enables us to understand how and why Muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration ambiguity aestheticization polyvalence and relativism as well as practices such as figural art music and even wine drinking as Islamic It also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of Islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory A book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of Islam What Is Islam reveals how Muslims have historically conceived of and lived with Islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent Publisher's description

0 license The School of Hillah and the Formation of Twelver Shi'i Islamic Tradition Aun Hasan Ali, 2023-06-15 Against the background of long standing narratives in which Twelver Shi'ism is viewed as fundamentally authoritarian The School of Hillah and the Formation of Twelver Shi'i Islamic Tradition builds upon recent scholarship in the fields of Religious Studies Anthropology and History to argue that Twelver Shi'ism is better understood as a discursive tradition At a conceptual level this solves the basic problem of how to integrate the extraordinary diversity of Twelver Shi'ism across time and space into a single historical category without engaging in a normative assessment of its underlying essence Furthermore in light of this conception of tradition the School of Hillah stands out as a seminal period in the archive of Twelver Shi'ism though it has seldom been recognized as such in European language scholarship Insofar as it gave birth to a conversation that would prove capable of encompassing the dynamism of Twelver Shi'ism the School of Hillah should be considered the formative period of Twelver Shi'i tradition Moreover when the tradition is conceptualized in this manner it is a bulwark against the very authoritarianism by which Twelver Shi'ism has been characterized for so long The Concept of Justice in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Catharina Rachik, Georges Tamer, 2025-06-30 The concept of justice is a fundamental tenet of Judaism Christianity and Islam exerting a profound influence on their respective theological ethical and social perspectives The pursuit of a just world is a central concern of these religions with a particular emphasis on human responsibility compassion and mercy This book presents a comprehensive overview of the understanding of justice in each one of the three religions elucidating the similarities and differences between them Each chapter provides perspectives on justice in the respective holy scriptures as well as key classical and traditional views on the topics of divine human relations and social and political justice issues Additionally modern interpretations are presented including the tension between freedom and religious duties and responsibilities of individuals and among societies Given the paucity of literature on this topic this book offers a rare and essential contribution to understanding justice in the context of the monotheistic faiths Religion and Contract Law in Islam Valentino Cattelan, 2023-08-25 What is a contract in Islam Is it an aspect of Muslim religion or of secular life How much has it changed over the centuries Undertaking a search that spans revelation legal tradition and the reality of the Muslim world this book explores the Islamic contract aqd in Arabic as a city at the crossroads of convergent paths of translation comparison and law in context In particular the book shows that only by re-orienting traditional categories of Western law religion toward the East can an alternative path of discovery for the aqd be advanced Hence through a fortuitous encounter with an Arab Girl the reader will re-visit the Temple of Western modernity and explore a city ruled by Towers of dialectical forces carrying a hermeneutical Ring that combines dialectics Islamic studies and media theory This interdisciplinary approach will not only enrich our knowledge of the aqd but also make it more understandable as a cultural and social construction to which both Muslims and non Muslims have participated in forging its multiple representations By inviting the readers to know who they are while looking at her the Arab Girl is already waiting for us to listen to the Islamic contract in a new way By applying a distinctive law and religion approach to the study of the contract in Islam the book provides a comprehensive exploration of a topic that is of interest to legal and economic comparatists as well as to readers in anthropology Islamic and cultural studies and it is also of topical meaning for today s international lawyers and the operators of an increasingly multicultural and transnational market

Feminism, Tradition and Change in Contemporary Islam Shehnaz Haqqani, 2024-10-17 The Islamic tradition has always been flexible changing over time and constantly adapting to the different societies Muslims find themselves in Few Muslims today would abide by the fatwa against the printing press under the Ottomans Moreover although Islamic law legislates for slavery and child marriage only a vanishing minority of Muslims consider these practices acceptable today and some will even argue that Islam never permitted them Yet some issues like the prohibition on female led prayer and female interfaith marriage seem curiously impervious to change Why is that Through a mixture of interviews with ordinary Muslims in Texas and critical analysis of contemporary and historical scholarship Shehnaz Haqqani demonstrates the gendered dimensions of change and negotiation in Islamic tradition She argues that a reliance on a mostly male scholarly consensus means that the tradition preserves male privilege at the expense of justice for Muslim women

Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia Chiara Formichi, 2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia offers both new and established scholarship on Muslim societies and religious practices across Asia from a variety of interdisciplinary angles with chapters covering South Central East and Southeast Asia as well as Africa Asia connections Presenting work grounded in archival literary and ethnographic inquiry contributors to this handbook lend their expertise to paint a picture of Islam as deeply connected to and influenced by Asia often by passing or reversing relationships of power and authority that have placed Arab Islam in a hierarchically superior position vis vis Asia This handbook is structured in four parts each representing an emergent area of inquiry Frames Authority and authorizing practices Muslim spatialities Imaginations of piety Dislodging ingrained assumptions that Asia is at the periphery of Islam and that Islam is at the periphery of Asia s cultural matrix this handbook sets an agenda against the center periphery dichotomy as well as the syncretism paradigm that has dominated conversations on Islam in Asia It thus demonstrates possibilities for new scholarly approaches to the study of Islam within the Asian context This ground breaking

handbook is a valuable resource to students and scholars of Asian studies religious studies and cultural studies more broadly

Wilhelm Von Humboldt and Transcultural Communication in a Multicultural World John Walker, 2022 Shows that the work of Wilhelm von Humboldt 1767 1835 forms a philosophy of dialogue and communication that is crucially relevant to contemporary debates in the Humanities Wilhelm von Humboldt 1767 1835 is the progenitor of modern linguistics and the originator of the modern teaching and research university However his work has received remarkably little attention in the English speaking world Humboldt conceives language as the source of cognition as well as communication both rooted in the possibility of human dialogue In the same way his idea of the university posits the free encounter between radically different personalities as the source of education for freedom For Humboldt both linguistic and intellectual communication are predicated firstly on dialogue between persons which is the prerequisite for all intercultural understanding Linking Humboldt's concept of dialogue to his idea of translation between languages persons and cultures this book shows how Humboldt's thought is of great contemporary relevance Humboldt shows a way beyond the false alternatives of culturalism the demand that a plurality of cultural and faith based traditions be recognized as sources of ethical and political legitimacy in the modern world and universalism the assertion of the primacy of a universal culture of human rights and the renewal of the European Enlightenment project John Walker explains how Humboldt's work emerges from the intellectual conflicts of his time and yet directly addresses the concerns of our own post secular and multicultural age

The Nature of Sufism Milad Milani, 2021-09-28 This book explores how Sufis approach their faith as Muslims upholding an Islamic worldview but going about making sense of their religion through the world in which they exist often in unexpected ways Using a phenomenological approach the book examines Sufism as lived experience within the Muslim lifeworld focusing on the Muslim experience of Islamic history It draws on selected case studies ranging from classic Sufism to Sufism in the contemporary era mainly taken from biographical and hagiographical data manuscript texts and treatises In this way it provides a revisionist approach to theories and methods on Sufism and more broadly the category of mysticism

European Muslims and the Qur'an Gulnaz Sibgatullina, Gerard Wiegers, 2023-12-18 This edited volume aims to advance a Muslim centered perspective on the study of Islam in Europe To do so it brings together a range of case studies that illustrate how European Muslims engaged with their Sacred Scripture while being part of a Christian dominated social and political space The research presented in this volume seeks to analyse Muslims practices of translating interpreting and using the Qur'an as a sacred object and thus pursues three main research agendas Part I focuses on the issues of Muslim Christian relations in Europe and studies how these relations have engendered discursive connections between Muslim and Christian produced texts related to the study and interpretation of the Qur'an Part II aims to bring scholarly attention to the under represented cases of Muslim communities in Europe This part introduces new research on Polish Belarusian Daghestani Bosnian and Kazan Tatars and examines local traditions of producing vernacular Qur'ans and commodification of Qur'anic manuscripts The final section of the volume Part III contributes to filling in the gaps related to the theoretical and conceptual framing of Muslim translation activities The history of religious thought and practice in European history is in many ways still uncharted territory This book aims to contribute to a better understanding of the cultural history of the Qur'an and Muslim agency in interpreting transmitting and translating the Sacred Scripture

Conceptualizing Islam Frank Peter, Paula Schrode, Ricarda Stegmann, 2025-03-31 In recent decades academic debates on how to conceptualize Islam as an object of study and how to approach it theoretically have been revitalized Not only has research on Islam grown enormously and become much more differentiated but Islam is also being discussed more intensively in society and politics than ever before This reader which brings together the perspectives of various disciplines provides an overview of academic approaches to Islam against the backdrop of these in some cases tense entanglements Through two contributions from scholars working on Buddhism and Hinduism these debates are situated in the context of broader trajectories of research history In sum this book does not only offer its readers entry points to a more complex and refined understanding of Islam but also to research processes within the study of Islam as well as religion in general

Overcoming Orientalism Tamara Sonn, 2021 Since John Esposito published his first book nearly 40 years ago he has been guiding readers beyond misleading and dangerous stereotypes of Muslims The essays in this volume highlight the contributions of scholars from a variety of disciplines who like Esposito present Islam as a multi faceted and dynamic tradition embraced by communities in globally interconnected but substantially diverse contexts over the centuries

Studying the Qur'ān in the Muslim Academy Majid Daneshgar, 2020-01-30 Studying the Qur'an in the Muslim Academy examines what it is like to study and teach the Qur'an at academic institutions in the Muslim world and how politics affect scholarly interpretations of the text Guided by the author's own journey as a student university lecturer and researcher in Iran Malaysia and New Zealand this book provides vivid accounts of the complex academic politics he encountered Majid Daneshgar describes the selective translation and editing of Edward Said's classic work Orientalism into various Islamic languages and the way Said's work is weaponized to question the credibility of contemporary Western produced scholarship in Islamic studies Daneshgar also examines networks of journals research centers and universities in both Sunni and Shia contexts and looks at examples of Quranic interpretation there Ultimately he offers a constructive program for enriching Islamic studies by fusing the best of Western theories with the best philological practices developed in Muslim academic contexts aimed at encouraging respectful but critical engagement with the Qur'an Islam, Authoritarianism, and Underdevelopment Ahmet T. Kuru, 2019-08 Analyzes Muslim countries contemporary problems particularly violence authoritarianism and underdevelopment comparing their historical levels of development with Western Europe Christian Thought in the Medieval Islamicate World Salam Rassi, 2022 Christian Thought in the Medieval Islamicate World Abdisho of Nisibis and the Apologetic Tradition is the first monograph length study and intellectual biography of Abdisho of Nisibis d 1318 bishop and polymath of the Church of the East Focusing on his works of apologetic theology it examines the intellectual strategies he employs to justify Christianity against Muslim and to a lesser extent Jewish criticisms Better known to scholars of Syriac literature as a poet jurist and cataloguer Abdisho wrote a considerable number of works in the Arabic language many of which have only recently come to light He flourished at a time when Syriac Christian writers were becoming increasingly indebted to Islamic models of intellectual production Yet many of his writings were composed during mounting religious tensions following the official conversion of the Ilkhanate to Islam in 1295 In the midst of these challenges Abdisho negotiates a centuries long tradition of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to remind his readers of the verity of the Christian faith His engagement with this tradition reveals how anti Muslim apologetics had long shaped the articulation of Christian identity in the Middle East since the emergence of Islam Through a selective process of encyclopaedism and systematisation Abdisho navigates a vast corpus of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to create a synthesis and theological canon that remains authoritative to this day Islam and Statecraft Jon Hoffman, 2025-01-23 Instead of religion influencing political outcomes this analysis examines how politics influences religious outcomes Dominant analyses examining the utilization of religion as a tool of statecraft in the Middle East remain overwhelmingly fixated on how Islam influences the foreign policies of different state actors not how political considerations often influence the forms Islam assumes and how religion itself is often molded according to strategic considerations of political elites That Islam due to its unique or exceptional relationship with politics drives political outcomes at the international level in the Middle East is a myth this book shatters by demonstrating how the political considerations of ruling elites specifically the intersection of domestic and foreign threats influence and constrain the kinds of religious soft power strategies adopted by states in the region This book develops a comprehensive analytical framework for the notion of religious soft power capable of incorporating power based identity based and ideational variables to examine how states couple religion with their broader foreign policy conduct This framework is applied to the Middle East through the specific examination of three countries Saudi Arabia Qatar and the United Arab Emirates in the period following the Arab Uprisings to demonstrate how specific religious narratives identities histories and ideologies are constructed by political elites in the Middle East for the advancement of what are inherently political objectives namely the imperatives of regime preservation and power projection

Intra-Muslim Polemics in South India Nandagopal R. Menon, 2024-03-14 How do we understand differences and disputes among various branches of Islam This book places intimacies rather than radical incompatibilities at the centre of its in depth ethnographic account of mass publicized theological polemics among Sunni Muslims in the south Indian state of Kerala What unites Muslims of different Sunni groups also divides them and incites polemics Islam as a shared system of knowledge and practices bonds of kinship and other social relations and the common condition of being a beleaguered religious minority in a Hindu majoritarian democracy Diverging from works that have focused on how Islamic practices like ritual prayers facilitate the fashioning of theologically grounded pious selves the book argues that intra Muslim polemics marginalize theology and have little to do with cultivating piety Instead polemics constitute inter and intra religious socialities enable Muslims to articulate their connections to India and other imaginaries and produce Islam as a public religion in a secular nation state

The Islamic Secular Sherman A. Jackson, 2024 This book argues that the meaning of secular in the West and in Islam differ fundamentally Though the Islamic secular is a liberation from Islam's sacred law shari'ah it is neither outside religion nor a rival to it it seeks neither to discipline nor displace religion nor expand its own jurisdiction at religion's expense The Islamic Secular is in Sherman Jackson's view a complement to religion in effect a religious secular In this book Jackson makes the case for the Islamic Secular on the basis of Islam's own pre modern juristic tradition and shows how the Islamic Secular impacts the relationship between Islam and the modern state including the Islamic State
