What Evil Means to Us C. Fred Alford, 2018-10-18 C Fred Alford interviewed working people prisoners and college students in order to discover how people experience evil in themselves in others and in the world What people meant by evil he found was a profound inchoate feeling of dread so overwhelming that they tried to inflict it on others to be rid of it themselves A leather jacketed emergency medical technician for example one of the many young people for whom vampires are oddly seductive icons of evil said he would give anything to be a vampire Drawing on psychoanalytic theory Alford argues that the primary experience of evil is not moral but existential The problems of evil are complicated by the terror it evokes a threat to the self so profound it tends to be isolated deep in the mind Alford suggests an alternative to this bleak vision The exercise of imagination in particular imagination that takes the form of a shared narrative offers an active and practical alternative to the contemporary experience of evil Our society suffers from a paucity of shared narratives and the creative imagination they inspire

The Ethics of Terrorism Thomas Albert Gilly, Yakov Gilinskiy, Vladimir Sergevnnin, 2009 The goal of this book is to provide a unique and comprehensive examination of the ethics of terrorism s origins history meaning and its numerous avenues of expression There are 18 lectures that address the ethics of terrorism in both traditional and nontraditional explanations including the psychological aspects of abandonment weakness and degradation Inasmuch as ethics and morals are often confused the challenge lies in common misunderstanding and engaging in the discourse of the lectures on the ethics of terrorism These lectures on the ethics of terrorism are meant to decode the comp

On Education Harry Brighouse, 2006-05-02 What is education for Should it produce workers or educate future citizens Is there a place for faith schools and should patriotism be taught In this compelling and controversial book Harry Brighouse takes on all these urgent questions and more He argues that children share four fundamental interests the ability to make their own judgements about what values to adopt acquiring the skills that will enable them to become economically self sufficient as adults being exposed to a range of activities and experiences that will enable them to flourish in their personal lives and developing a sense of justice He criticises sharply those who place the interests of the economy before those of children and assesses the arguments for and against the controversial issues of faith schools and the teaching of patriotism Clearly argued but provocative On Education draws on recent examples from Britain and North America as well as famous thinkers on education such as Aristotle and John Locke It is essential reading for anyone interested in the present state of education and its future

The fundamental importance of Christianity for Jung is well documented in his writings and letters For the whole of his long career the great psychologist had wrestled with what he called the great snake of the centuries the burden of the human mind the problem of Christianity By comparison his statements about Hegel are quite scarce Both topics nevertheless have in common that they elicited from Jung radical accusations accusations not presented in the calm tone of a psychological scholar but fired by a deep seated personal affect that propelled Jung to wish to dream the myth onwards that is to move to a new his own improved and corrected version of Christianity Rather than merely portraying and elucidating Jung s views this volume critically examines his theses and arguments by means of a series of close readings and by confronting his claims with the texts on which his interpretations are based The guiding principle in the spirit of which the author s investigation is conducted is the question of the needs of the soul and the standards of true psychology While constantly bearing these needs and standards in mind diverse topics are discussed in depth Jung s interpretation of a dream he had had about being unable to completely bow down before the highest presence his thesis concerning the patriarchal neglect of the feminine principle his views about the alleged one sidedness of Christianity the recalcitrant Fourth and the reality of Evil his understanding of the Trinity and the spirit his rejection of Hegel and of speculative thought and his reaction to the modern doubt that has killed religious faith A companion to the preceding volume The Flight into the Unconscious the essays collected here continue its radical critique of Jung s psychology project yielding not only deep insights into Jung s personal religiosity and into what ultimately drove his psychology project as a whole but granting as well a more sophisticated understanding of the psychological potential and telos of the Christian idea History of European Morals from Augustus to Charlemagne

Like any professional Pastors can be busy people Often the demands upon their time are myriad The time when I first came to accept Christ as my Lord was wonderful beyond measure Although my Pastor was eager to introduce me to Christ he was not as intimately available to guide me in the aftermath of that wonderful moment You see having accepted Christ as Savior guarantees the blessing of eternity with Christ but the new believer still has the rest of his or her life to negotiate There are lots of things to learn but in big churches people can get lost in the crowd and fall through the cracks and in small churches well there is only so much a small staff can do So I stumbled around for a long time very gradually figuring out how to navigate the world and still hold to my faith in Christ I remember thinking There has to be a better way than this These discussions are part commentary part history part blessing and part questioning There s a little bit of everything I ve put considerable thought into writing these things and I want you to get some benefit some blessing from them Think about what you read You might be provoked to irritation or to curiosity or to laughter Try to apply the thoughts to your life But the bottom line is if you don't read you won't benefit This first book that you are holding tries to answer some basic questions Why should I fear God Why should I trust Him Who am I in Christ What is the nature of sin Following books talk about the Jewish Festivals and their profound meaning about God's Constitution Matthew chapters 5-7 about God's manifested love what it means to be Grafted In to God's family how to know Jesus and what it means to abide in Christ I hope you stick around to the end Every life has its ups and downs and after several cycles of this I was fed up and began to look for answers I found this crazy new church which was meeting in a hotel conference room I remember people all around me speaking in these strange indecipherable ways people falling down on the floor and generally acting nuts I remember thinking Why am I here God had a plan but I was not awake to it But I stayed out of curiosity if nothing else and eventually God began to draw me in Since then God has led me on a wonderful journey Where once I had a sort of vague notion of God He used personal struggle to draw me closer to him Where once I looked at everything from a performance oriented point of view He taught me the true value of the love of Christ Where once I had to be doing things for Christ He taught me the value of resting in the presence of Christ I want people to understand these things I want everyone to experience the intimate presence of Christ in their lives I want everyone to see real time answers to prayer as I have I want people to understand that humble submission to God is the answer to every struggle every problem and every stress Faith and obedience, 10 sermons Frank Nevill, 1884 Church Quarterly Review ,1928 Notes for one year's Sunday school lessons James Maurice Wilson, 1906 The Expository Times ,1920 What Does It Mean To Be Human? Bryan Gould, 2022-11-30 In the absence of divine direction how do we decide for ourselves the behaviours that would best serve our own interests and those of other creatures and of the planet as a whole What might we turn to and draw upon to help us in making our own rules and in establishing our own moral principles The Month and Catholic Review ,1875 The Collected Works of J.
