Winnie Mandela A Life:

Winnie Mandela Anné Mariè du Preez Bezdrob, 2003 Few people have courted as much controversy or evoked such strong and divergent emotions as Winnie Madikizela Mandela Adored by some abhorred by others she bears a name famous throughout the world yet not many people know the woman behind the headlines myths and controversies or the details of the fascinating story that is her life This intimate in depth and unbiased biography reveals the enigma that is Winnie Mandela by exploring both her personal and political life The reader is given a rare glimpse into Winnie s strict yet happy rural upbringing where the foundations were laid for her faith compassion and indomitable resolve As a young social worker in 1950s Johannesburg her beauty style and character captivated the political activist and Tembu prince Nelson Mandela Together they personified the rising aspirations and political awakening of their people and in so doing inspired a nation Through her fierce determination and dauntless courage she survived her husband s imprisonment continuous harassment by the security police banishment to a small Free State town betrayal by friends and allies and more than a year in solitary confinement all the while keeping the struggle flame alight and the name of Nelson Mandela alive A sensitive and balanced portrayal the book nevertheless thoroughly investigates and honestly examines the controversies that have dogged Winnie Mandela in recent years the allegations of kidnapping and murder her divorce from Mandela and the charges of fraud Winnie Mandela A Life takes the reader on a remarkable journey of understanding painting a rich warm and vivid portrait of one of the world s most charismatic yet enigmatic women

Autobiography and Decolonization Philip Holden, 2008 Philip Holden reveals deeply gendered connections between the writing of individual lives and of the narratives of nations emerging from colonialism Autobiography and Decolonization is the first book to give serious academic attention to autobiographies of nationalist leaders in the process of decolonization attending to them not simply as partial historical documents but as texts involved in remaking the world views of their readers Holden examines Mohandas K Gandhi s An Autobiography The Story of My Experiments with Truth Marcus Garvey s fragmentary Autobiography Joseph Ephraim Casely Hayford s Ethiopia Unbound Lee Kuan Yew s The Singapore Story Nelson Mandela s Long Walk to Freedom Jawaharlal Nehru s An Autobiography and Kwame Nkrumah s Ghana The Autobiography of Kwame Nkrumah Holden argues that these examples of life writing have had significant influence on the formation of new and often profoundly gendered national identities These narratives constitute the nation less as an imagined community than as an imagined individual Moving from the past to the promise of the future they mediate relationships between public and private and between individual and collective stories Ultimately they show how the construction of modern selfhood is inextricably linked to the construction of a postcolonial polity
