Wits University 2015 Prospectus:

Global University Rankings and the Mediatization of Higher Education Michelle Stack, 2016-04-12 Higher Education Institutions simultaneously critique and participate in national and international rankings of universities However this creates a difficult situation since if universities do participate in rankings they acquiesce to a system based in media logics that has little to do with academic norms of research If they do not participate in the rankings they risk losing public funding students and donors in an increasingly competitive and globalized environment This book delves into the influence of journalists business tycoons and multinational corporations in defining what world class is and how it will be measured Rankings provide us with a rich study for understanding how universities define deploy and manage their assets and liabilities in a mediatized globalized economy

Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald, 2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO's ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Esia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature's place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today

Changing Our Worlds Michelle LeBaron, Janis Sarra, 2018-07-03 Changing Our Worlds draws on the wisdom of African artists theorists educators and leaders It profiles an array of transformative arts projects that among other things changed attitudes and behaviours toward HIV testing and prevention helped rural citizens to design and build a new community centre and supported those with HIV AIDS to strengthen their resilience As a group of scholar practitioners collaborating on the book reinforced our confidence in the potency of arts practices to unsettle unjust orders inspire new visions and embrace the human dignity that comes from acknowledging the interdependent world in which we live

Doing Digital Migration Studies Koen Leurs, Sandra Ponzanesi, 2025-10-01 Doing Digital Migration present a comprehensive entry point to the variety of theoretical debates methodological interventions political discussions and ethical debates around migrant forms of belonging as articulated through digital practices Digital technologies impact upon everyday migrant lives while vice versa migrants play a key role in technological developments be it when negotiating the communicative affordances of platforms and devices as consumers of particular commercial services such as sending remittances as platform gig workers or test cases for new advanced surveillance technologies With its international scope this anthology invites scholars to pluralize understandings of the migrant and the digital The anthology is organized in five different sections Creative Practices Digital Diasporas and Placemaking Affect and Belonging Visuality and digital media and Datafication Infrastructuring and Securitization These sections are dedicated to emerging key topics and debates in digital migration studies and sections are each introduced by international experts I The emphasis on reflective doing of digital migration studies So far scholarship in this interdisciplinary focus area has remained relatively silent on the topic of accountability and questions of decision making in the research process II The truly transdisciplinary and international scope of the volume distinguishes this volume from the disciplinary oriented special issues and monographs published in the field of media and communication anthropology migration studies and refugee studies Digital migration creates new challenges for cross disciplinary dialogues that require an integration of ethnography with digital methods and critical data studies in order to look at the formation of identity and experience representation community building and creating spaces of belongingness III The innovative emphasis on everyday lived experiences and practices sheds much needed light on the ways in which increasingly documented infrastructures of datafication and digitization are lived negotiated and contested For this purpose the volume pays particular attention to the everyday use of digital media for the support of transnational lives emotional bonds and cosmopolitan affiliations focusing also on the role technologies such as social media and smartphones play in shaping local urban and national diasporic formations This is because it becomes increasingly important to give everyday digital media usage a central role in investigations of transnational belonging digital intimacy diasporic community re production migrant subject formation long distance political participation urban social integration and local national self organization

The changing spaces of television acting Richard Hewett, 2017-08-17 This book provides a historical overview and then and now comparison of performing for British television drama By examining changing acting styles from distinct eras of television production studio realism and location realism it makes a unique contribution to both television and performance studies unpacking the various determinants that have combined to influence how performers work in the medium The book compares the original versions of The Quatermass Experiment BBC 1953 Doctor Who BBC 1963 89 and Survivors BBC 1975 77 with their respective modern day re makes unpacking the effects of the shift from multi camera studio to single camera location production Textual analysis is combined with extensive archival research into production process and reception alongside interviews with numerous actors and production personnel from more than sixty years of television production

Hans Christian Andersen in American Literary Criticism of the Nineteenth Century Herbert Rowland, 2020-11-03 In Hans Christian Andersen in American Literary Criticism of the Nineteenth Century Herbert Rowland argues that the literary criticism accompanying the publication of Hans Christian Andersen s works in the United States compares favorably in scope perceptiveness and chronological coverage with the few other national receptions of Andersen outside of Denmark Rowland contends that American commentators made it abundantly evident that in addition to his fairy tales Andersen wrote several novels travelogues and an autobiography which were all of more than common interest In the process Rowland shows that American commentators naturalized Andersen in the United States by confronting the sensationalism in the journalism and literature of the time with the perceived wholesomeness of Andersen s writing deploying his long fiction on both sides of the debate over the nature and relative value of the romance and the novel and drawing on three of his works to support their positions on slavery the Civil War and Reconstruction

Against Self-Reliance William Hunting Howell, 2015-03-03 Individualism is arguably the most vital tenet of American national identity American cultural heroes tend to be mavericks and nonconformists and independence is the fulcrum of the American origin story But in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries a number of American artists writers and educational philosophers cast imitation and emulation as central to the linked projects of imagining the self and consolidating the nation Tracing continuities between literature material culture and pedagogical theory William Huntting Howell uncovers an America that celebrated the virtues of humility contingency and connection to a complex whole over ambition and distinction Against Self Reliance revalues and rethinks what it meant to be repetitive derivative or pointedly generic in the early republic and beyond Howell draws on such varied sources as Benjamin Franklin s programs for moral reform Phillis Wheatley s devotional poetry David Rittenhouse s coins and astronomical machines Benjamin Rush s psychological and political theory Susanna Rowson s schoolbooks and the novels of Charles Brockden Brown and Herman Melville to tease out patterns of dependence in early America With its incisive critique of America s storied heroic individualism Against Self Reliance argues that the arts of dependence were and are critical to the project of American independence General Prospectus (University of the Witwatersrand).
