Levesque,2014-07-08

The Encyclopedia of Adolescence breaks new ground as an important central resource for the study of adolescence Comprehensive in breath and textbook in depth the Encyclopedia of Adolescence with entries presented in easy to access A to Z format serves as a reference repository of knowledge in the field as well as a frequently updated conduit of new knowledge long before such information trickles down from research to standard textbooks By making full use of Springer's print and online flexibility the Encyclopedia is at the forefront of efforts to advance the field by pushing and creating new boundaries and areas of study that further our understanding of adolescents and their place in society Substantively the Encyclopedia draws from four major areas of research relating to adolescence The first broad area includes research relating to Self Identity and Development in Adolescence This area covers research relating to identity from early adolescence through emerging adulthood basic aspects of development e.g biological cognitive social and foundational developmental theories In addition this area focuses on various types of identity gender sexual civic moral political racial spiritual religious and so forth The second broad area centers on Adolescents Social and Personal Relationships This area of research examines the nature and influence of a variety of important relationships including family peer friends sexual and romantic as well as significant nonparental adults The third area examines Adolescents in Social Institutions This area of research centers on the influence and nature of important institutions that serve as the socializing contexts for adolescents These major institutions include schools religious groups justice systems medical fields cultural contexts media legal systems economic structures and youth organizations Adolescent Mental Health constitutes the last major area of research This broad area of research focuses on the wide variety of human thoughts actions and behaviors relating to mental health from psychopathology to thriving Major topic examples include deviance violence crime pathology DSM normalcy risk victimization disabilities flow and positive youth development

The Psychology of Teen Violence and Victimization Michele A. Paludi,2011-10-20 This compilation of original essays does more than just illuminate the serious problem of teen violence and victimization it also provides resources that parents and teachers can use to address issues of violence with their teens and make a difference While it's widely known that hate crimes represent a serious issue among today's adolescent population most parents and perhaps even some educators may be unaware that gender based violence is the most prevalent type of hate crime committed by and experienced by teens and that adolescent girls are exposed to more violence than boys A complete understanding of the nature of the problem is fundamental to curtailing problems like cyberbullying and sexual harassment The Psychology of Teen Violence and Victimization is a two volume set that fills a gap in the current literature on teen violence by addressing the incidence psychological explanations and impact of all forms of teen violence The author a psychologist who has focused upon interpersonal problems centered on violence harassment and gender provides in depth discussion of the various types of violence committed by and against teens The set offers actionable prevention strategies for parents and teachers as well as individuals involved in community programs Special attention is given to the impact of violence on adolescents emotional and physical health interpersonal relationships career development and self concept

Adolescent Risk Behaviors David A. Wolfe, Peter G. Jaffe, Claire V. Crooks, 2008-10-01 This book focuses on the crucial role that relationships play in the lives of teenagers The authors particularly examine the ways that healthy relationships can help teens avoid such common risk behaviors as substance abuse dating violence sexual assault and unsafe sexual practices Addressing the current lack of effective prevention programs for teens they present new strategies for encouraging healthy choices The book first traces differences between the rules of relating for boys and girls and discusses typical and atypical patterns of experimentation in teens The authors identify the common link among risk behaviors the relationship connection In the second part of the book they examine the principles of successful programs used by schools and communities to cultivate healthy adolescent development An illuminating conclusion describes the key ingredients for engaging adolescents their parents teachers and communities in the effort to promote healthy nonviolent relationships among teens Chasing Carson Dawn McCord, 2021-12-18 We knew we were in trouble when we started getting calls from the neighbors saying Carson was at the top of the tallest tree on the street He was 7 or 8 years old At 10 he made a zipline out of the dog s tie out and leash then attempted to zip from the tree to the top of the playhouse nearly hanging himself He came out of the womb a natural athlete and risk taker We were amazed by his ingenuity Freshman year of high school he started experimenting with drugs like most teens do however our boy had unlocked the door to addiction As his drugs became harder he spiraled out of control with periods of abstinence followed by a few weeks of being on a bender until a crisis would end that cycle Each time we would think this is his rock bottom then it wasn t We struggled with Is this just the throws of adolescence or does he have a problem By his Senior year he overdosed Then starts the scramble to find some sort of rehabilitation that is longer different and out of our area How can we afford it Insurance Savings Mortgage the house What does recovery look like for a now 18 year old that can just walk away from wherever we send him Always Chasing Carson
