Three Women In A Mirror:

Three Women in a Mirror Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt, 2021-03-23 A miraculous book in praise of women in praise of both their shortcomings and their strengths from the internationally bestselling author l Express Anne Hanna and Anny Three young women free spirits all each one at odds with the age in which they live Despite the centuries that divide them their stories intersect a surprising narrative technique that lends increasing tension and richness to this novel which builds to a thrilling crescendo of unexpected revelations Anne lives in Flanders in the sixteenth century She s a mystic who talks with animals like Saint Francis she finds God in nature and cannot understand the need for religious rituals Yet her ideas run against the temper of the times and result in her being branded a heretic with tragic consequences Hanna lives in Vienna at the start of the twentieth century She is a young noblewoman dissatisfied with bourgeois conventions who will find a method for uncovering the roots of her malaise in a new cure developed by a Viennese doctor by the name of Sigmund Freud Anny is a Hollywood star of the 2000s addicted to celebrity and to variety of illicit substances Both her curse and her solace acting will give her the key to an open a new chapter in her life where she will find love companionship and the meaning she has been searching for Schmitt writes movingly about three women divided by time and distance whose lives connect when they attempt to break free of expectations imposed by society Schmitt s three complex stories are beautifully translated and masterfully written Kirkus Reviews starred review Nicholas Love's Mirror and Late Medieval Devotio-Literary Culture David J. Falls, 2016-03-31 Surviving in 59 complete manuscript versions few English texts of the late medieval period seem to have achieved the popularity of Nicholas Love s fifteenth century translation and adaptation of the Latin Meditationes Vitae Christi The Mirror of the Blessed Life of Jesus Christ The Mirror has received surprisingly little scholarly attention and is often contextualized in terms of its role in the theological conflict between English ecclesiastical orthodoxy and the teachings of heresiarch John Wycliff David Falls presents a new account of the text s history which de centralises but does not disregard the influence of the Wycliffite controversy Falls interrogates preconceptions and investigates new possibilities for understanding the composition circulation function and use of Love s Mirror by examining both the textual modifications and additions made by Love in his adaptation of the Latin and places these alterations in context by examining individual copies of the Mirror The manuscript copies are read as both sites of literary consumption and nexuses of textual transition demonstrating that it was Love s ability to inscribe his work with functional diversity which explains the Mirror s popularity This book presents a nuanced picture not only of the Mirror s production circulation and function but also the dynamic and flourishing devotio literary culture of late medieval England in which Love s text operated Short Stories & Poetry Maureen Oliver, Disenchantment □□ □□ Vol. II: Mirror Image (1983-1986) By Zhang Kangkang, 2025-09-18 This is a book about memory and forgetting The 1980s grow increasingly distant occasionally returning with wind and snow but transformed to dust or drizzle or wavering suspended in the tainted air like a deathless specter That decade marking the end of our youth has the desolate beauty of an elegy ushering in our middle age it has the solemn and stirring quality of a processional Gravity has smashed the past into fragments that only words can laboriously piece together While knowing that it is merely a pointless addendum a futile reboot a belated tribute I have stubbornly attempted to look back and write this book Luo Yi once said History is essentially a court that is constantly in retrial One person s biased and narrow memories are trivial against the grand and stirring historical narrative written by the victors But I ve always forgotten what should be remembered and remembered what should be forgotten The opus magnum of a writer who has experienced the whole period of the communist regime in China Disenchantment is filled with scenes and stories oozing authenticity Michel Bonnin The author deconstructs the enchantment of ideology and reveals the brutal political violence of this period through the backgrounds and stories of her characters Su Xiaokang A stellar contribution to Chinese literature and the understanding of contemporary Chinese history Michael Duke A courageous and important work which deserves to be published in the Chinese speaking world and beyond Richard King An epic of an extraordinary age of great transformations and convulsions Bernadette Y Li A Chinese version of Doctor Zhivago David Rong Psychoanalyses / Feminisms Peter L. Rudnytsky, Andrew Gordon, 2000-01-01 Brings together 12 provocative and iconoclastic contributions by leading scholars and new voices probing the complementary yet contested relations between various forms of contemporary psychoanalysis and feminism Contributors use and interrogate Freud Lacan Klein and Jessica Benjamin as well as object relations theory self psychology and Horneyan theory as they discuss the work of such writers as D H Lawrence Emily Bronte and Kathy Acker Material stems from an April 1994 conference held at the University of Florida The Woman in the Mirror Dominique Coutant-Defer, 2023-04-07 What should we remember about The Woman in the Mirror the novel that has enthralled readers Find everything you need to know about this work in a complete and detailed analysis In particular you will find in this sheet A complete summary A presentation of the main characters such as Anne Hanna and Anny An analysis of the specificities of the work A specific narrative scheme A portrait of women with three facets The theme of the mirror and Three places three times and the same straitjacket A reference analysis to quickly understand the meaning of the work Beckett's afterlives Jonathan Bignell, Pim Verhulst, Anna McMullan, 2023-02-21 Despite the steady rise in adaptations of Samuel Beckett s work across the world following the author s death in 1989 Beckett s afterlives is the first book length study dedicated to this creative phenomenon The collection employs interrelated concepts of adaptation remediation and appropriation to reflect on Beckett s own evolving approach to crossing genre boundaries and to analyse the ways in which contemporary artists across different media and diverse cultural contexts including the UK Europe the USA and Latin America continue to engage with Beckett The book offers fresh insights into how his work has kept inspiring both practitioners and audiences in the twenty first century operating through methodologies and approaches that aim to facilitate and establish the study of modern day adaptations not just of Beckett but other multimedia authors as well Medusa's Mirrors Julia M. Walker, 1998 The question of selfhood in Renaissance texts constitutes a scholarly and critical debate of almost unmanageable proportions The author of this work begins by questioning the strategies with which male writers depict powerful women Although Spenser's Britomart Shakespeare's Cleopatra and Milton's Eve figure selfhood very differently and to very different ends they do have two significant elements in common mirrors and transformations that diminish the power of the female self And the Mirror Cracked A. Smelik,1998-05-27 And The Mirror Cracked explores the politics and pleasures of contemporary feminist cinema Tracing the highly productive ways in which feminist directors create alternative film forms Anneke Smelik highlights cinematic issues which are central to feminist films authorship point of view metaphor montage and the excessive image In a continuous mirror game between theory and cinema this study explains how these cinematic techniques are used to represent female subjectivity positively and affirmatively Among the films considered are A Question of Silence Bagdad Cafe Sweetie and The Virgin Machine Special Catalogue of the Collection of Antiquities Alessandro Castellani,1876 Wild Materialism Jacques Lezra,2010 Blends a discussion of terror with radical democracy in a way that is thoroughly original an important book on a large and crucial topic Marc Redfield Claremont Graduate University The Guiltless Hermann Broch,2000 Murder lust shame hypocrisy and suicide are at the center of The Guiltless Hermann Broch's postwar novel about the disintegration of European society in the three decades preceding the Second World War Broch's characters an apathetic man who can barely remember his own name a high school teacher and his lover who return from the brink of a suicide pact to carry on a dishonest relationship Zerline a lady's maid who enslaves her mistresses prostitutes the young country girl Melitta and metes out her own justice against the empty wickedness of her betters are trapped in their indifference prisoners of a sort of wakeful somnolence These men and women may mention the imbecile Hitler yet they prefer a nap or sexual encounter to any social action Broch thought the kind of ethical perversity and political apathy exhibited by his characters paved the way for Nazism He believed in the purifying power of writing and hoped that by revealing Germany's underlying guilt he could purge indifference from his own and future generations In The Guiltless Broch captures how apathy and ennui very human failings evolve into something dehumanizing and dangerous Book Jacket

Witschi,2020-02-17 Dirty Words in Deadwood showcases literary analyses of the Deadwood television series by leading western American literary critics Whereas previous reaction to the series has largely addressed the question of historical accuracy rather than intertextuality or literary complexity Melody Graulich and Nicolas S Witschi s edited volume brings a much needed perspective to Deadwood s representation of the frontier West As Graulich observes in her introduction With its emotional coherence compelling characterizations compressed structural brilliance moral ambiguity language experiments interpretation of the past relevance to the present and engagement with its literary forebears Deadwood is an aesthetic triumph as historical fiction and like much great literature makes a case for the humanistic value of storytelling From previously unpublished interviews with series creator David Milch to explorations of sexuality disability cinematic technique and western narrative this collection focuses on Deadwood as a series ultimately about the imagination as a verbal and visual construct and as a literary masterpiece that richly rewards close analysis and interpretation

Common Differences Gloria I. Joseph, Jill Lewis, 1986 An unprecedented analysis of an alarming schism in the women's movement the differences between black and white women's perspectives attitudes and concerns It presents an overview of women's status through history and discusses the vital issues where common differences occur sexuality men and marriage mothers and daughters media images and the direction of the movement itself Ambiguous Subjects Jennifer Wawrzinek, 2008-01-01 In the history of ideas the aesthetic categories of the sublime and the grotesque have exerted a powerful force over the cultural imagination Ambiguous Subjects is one of the first studies to examine the relationship between these concepts Tracing the history of the sublime from the eighteenth century through Burke and Kant Wawrzinek illustrates the ways in which the sublime has traditionally been privileged as an inherently masculine and imperialist mode of experience that polices and abjects the grotesque to the margins of acceptable discourse and the way in which twentieth century reconfigurations of the sublime increasingly enable the productive situating of these concepts within a dialogic relation as a means of instating an ethical relation to others This book examines the articulations of both the sublime and the grotesque in three postmodern texts Looking at novels by Nicole Brossard and Morgan Yashincek and the performance work of The Women's Circus Wawrzinek illuminates the ways in which these writers and performers restructure the spatial and temporal parameters of the sublime in order to allow various forms of highly contingent transcendence that always necessarily remain in relation to the grotesque body Ambiguous Subjects illustrates how the sublime and the grotesque can co exist in a manner where each depends on and is inflected through the other thus enabling a notion of individuality and of community as contingent but nevertheless very real moments in time Ambiguous Subjects is essential reading for anyone interested in aesthetics continental philosophy gender studies literary theory sociology and politics
