Robert S. Pelton, 2015-06-09 Archbishop Romero and Spiritual Leadership in the Modern World presents a contemporary and integrated understanding of one of the most remarkable pastoral leaders of our time This bishop Oscar Romero of El Salvador experienced deeply the overwhelming sufferings of the Salvadoran people as well as those within himself He cried out in vain to Presidents Carter and Reagan no more arms to El Salvador but his pleas were not heard at that time Knowing that he would soon be murdered Romero promised that he would rise again in the Salvadoran people This book illustrates how this is happening and conclusively demonstrates that by respecting transparency and with dogged perseverance a nonviolent public leader can become an influential leader even in times of the most savage repression and marginalization Archbishop Romero accomplished precisely that through determination courage and honing his public skills while simultaneously conducting himself in deeply spiritual ways The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2008 Oscar

Romero Kevin Clarke, 2014 People of God is a brand new series of inspiring biographies for the general reader Each volume offers a compelling and honest narrative of the life of an important twentieth or twenty first century Catholic Some living and some now deceased each of these women and men have known challenges and weaknesses familiar to most of us but responded to them in ways that call us to our own forms of heroism Each of them offers a credible and concrete witness of faith hope and love to people of our own day With the cause for his beatification reportedly moving along rapidly now at the Vatican this biography of a people's saint traces the events leading up to the assassination of Archbishop Oscar Romero at a chapel altar in San Salvador and the reverberations of that day in El Salvador and beyond This in depth look at Archbishop Romero the pastor defender of the poor and great witness of the faith offers a prism through which to view a Catholic understanding of liberation and how to be a church of the poor for the poor as Pope Francis calls us to be The Disciple, 1981 The Scent of Jasmine Patricia McCarthy, 1995-12 The Scent of Jasmine encourages readers to lay claim to Christ's promise of peace to make each day an experience of God and an experience of the gift of peace This practical book raises questions gives facts and blends the liturgical cycle with the secular cycle of civic observations and recurring yearly events

365 Meditations for a Peaceful Heart and a Peaceful World Marcus Braybrooke, 2004 Provides a meditation for each day of the year Each meditation offers an inspiring quotation usually from a leading spiritual teacher of Jewish Christian Muslim or other faith tradition a story or reflection and a suggestion for a related prayer or meditation Seasons of Faith and Conscience Bill Wylie-Kellermann, 2008-11-07 Seasons of Faith and Conscience challenges religious activists and the wider church with an answer to the question What is the connection between faith and politics Every act of worship Kellermann says every occasion where the sovereignty of the word of God is acknowledged is always and everywhere expressly political In a profound biblical and theological reflection Kellermann begins by investigating the political implications of worship and liturgy both in the Hebrew Bible and in the New Testament He goes on to review the history of confessional politics those situations in which Christians have felt their historical situation to be so grave as to call into question the very identity of the church Recent examples include the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany and the Kairos document from South Africa Kellermann explores analogies in our own situation the continuing arms buildup the international debt system and the war against the poor in the Third World Seasons of Faith and Conscience concludes with a series of moving meditations on the key seasons and events of the liturgical calendar Advent Christmas Epiphany Lent Easter and Pentecost

Experiencing Grace Mark Ekstrom, 2024-02-12 When Jesus called his first disciples he asked them What are you looking for Jesus knew that we are all searching for something a relationship with God a grace filled way of living and the answers to life's most important questions such as Who am I Too often we seek those answers in the wrong places We can search the world and come up empty only to find that what we were seeking was inside of us all along In a part spiritual autobiography and part guided meditation certified spiritual director Mark Ekstrom invites believers to join him on a journey of self discovery and faith while offering insight into his spiritual ups and downs doubts wonderings and the growth that has brought him to where he is today Organized as a thirty day pilgrimage with daily meditations spiritual seekers are guided through reflection questions scripture readings spiritual disciplines and prayer in order to experience God's love and grace more fully foster a deeper spirituality and continue to build a strong personal relationship with God Experiencing Grace leads believers on an introspective thirty day journey to encourage an awareness of God not as a theological concept but as a transforming relationship

Third World Liberation Theologies Deane W. Fernald, 2004-04-15 Here for the first time is a systematic survey of the principal liberation theologians from Asia Africa and Latin America Exposing the rich variety of Third World liberation theologies the author highlights points of agreement and divergence in approaches and context and critically assesses the most often heard criticisms of liberation theology With its companion volume Third World Liberation Theologies A Reader this survey represents the most comprehensive introduction in any language to what may well be the most significant theological development of this century

Theosemiotic Michael L. Raposa, 2020-10-06 In Theosemiotic Michael Raposa uses Charles Peirce's semiotic theory to rethink certain issues in contemporary philosophical theology and the philosophy of religion He first sketches a history that links Peirce's thought to that of earlier figures both within the tradition of American religious thought and beyond as well as to other classical pragmatists and to later thinkers and developments Drawing on Peirce's ideas Raposa develops a semiotic conception of persons selves emphasizing the role that acts of attention play in shaping human inferences and perception His central Peircean presuppositions are that all human experience takes the form of semiosis and that the universe is perfused with signs Religious meaning emerges out of a process of continually reading and re-reading certain signs Theology is explored here in its manifestations as inquiry therapy and praxis By drawing on both Peirce's logic of vagueness and his logic of relations Raposa makes sense out of how we talk about God as personal and also how we understand the character of genuine communities An investigation of what Peirce meant by musement illuminates the nature and purpose of prayer Theosemiotic is portrayed as a form of religious naturalism broadly conceived At the same time the potential links between any philosophical theology conceived as theosemiotic and liberation theology are exposed
