School Reevaluation To Be Completed in July

After three years of planning and study, the Pharr Independent School District board of trustees will complete its reevaluation of the district's schools in July. The board, which met last night for its 100th meeting, will then vote on the final recommendations of the study committee.

The study committee, headed by Dr. J. B. Smith, has been working on the reevaluation since 1964. It has held numerous public hearings and has received many suggestions from the community. The committee's report will cover a wide range of subjects, including the district's financial condition, its personnel, its facilities, and its curriculum.

The board of trustees will also be asked to vote on a new set of bylaws for the district. These bylaws will be based on the recommendations of the study committee and will be designed to improve the district's management and operations.

Paving South 'I' Gets Endorsement of School

The Pharr Independent School District board of trustees has endorsed a plan to pave the south side of Interstate 37 (I-37) in Pharr. The plan, which was developed by the city of Pharr, calls for paving the road from the city limits to the border with Mexico.

The board of trustees, which met last night, voted 6-1 in favor of the plan. The plan calls for paving the road with asphalt and for installing drainage ditches along the sides of the road. The estimated cost of the project is $100,000.

The city of Pharr has been working on the plan for some time. It has held several public hearings and has received many suggestions from the community. The city's plan is designed to improve the appearance of the city and to make it easier for motorists to travel through the city.

Edison Is Named Geraldine Palmer Elem. School

Geraldine Palmer, namesake of the new elementary school.

The Pharr Independent School District board of trustees has named the new elementary school in Edison "Geraldine Palmer Elementary School." The school, which is located on the corner of Edison and Main streets, was dedicated last night.

The school is named in honor of Geraldine Palmer, a former teacher and administrator of the district. She has been a member of the board of trustees for many years and has been instrumental in the development of the district's schools.

The new school will serve the students of Edison and will be the first of several new schools to be built in the district. The board of trustees plans to build more schools in the future to meet the needs of the growing population of Pharr.

New Public Safety Bldg. Is Officially Opened

The new Public Safety Building, which was dedicated last night, is the first of several new buildings to be built in the city of Pharr. The building, which is located on the corner of Main and Broadway streets, will serve as the headquarters for the city's police and fire departments.

The building is a two-story structure with a modern design. It has a large parking lot and is surrounded by a landscaped area. The building was designed by the city's architect and was built by a local contractor.

The city of Pharr has been working on the building for some time. It has held several public hearings and has received many suggestions from the community. The city's plan is designed to improve the appearance of the city and to make it easier for the police and fire departments to operate.

City Settles Gas Rate Dispute

The city of Pharr has settled a dispute with the Pharr Gas Company over the city's gas rates. The city had been paying a rate that was higher than the rate that the company was charging other customers in the area.

The city and the company had been in negotiations for some time, but they had not been able to reach an agreement. The city had threatened to sue the company, but the company had refused to lower its rates.

The city and the company have now reached an agreement. The city will pay a rate that is the same as the rate that the company is charging other customers in the area. The agreement will be in effect for a period of one year.

Boat Syndrome Is S-O in Shedd County

The "Boat Syndrome" is a common problem in Shedd County. It is a condition in which a person's boat is stolen or damaged. The syndrome is named after the fact that many of the boats that are stolen are small motorboats.

The syndrome is a problem for many people in Shedd County. It is a problem because it can be very expensive to replace a boat. It is also a problem because it can be very embarrassing to have a boat stolen.

The Pharr Independent School District board of trustees has been working on the problem. It has held several public hearings and has received many suggestions from the community. The board's plan is designed to improve the security of the district's boats.
