Strategic Communication Management for Development and Social Change Tsietsi Mmutle, Tshepang Bright Molale, Olanrewaju Olugbenga Akinola, Olebogeng Selebi, 2023-12-13 This book is the first of its kind within the African region to combine scholarly perspectives from the fields of Strategic Communication Management and Communication for Development and Social Change It draws insights from scholars across the African continent by unravelling the complementary nature of scholarship between the two fields through the lens of prevailing governance and sustainability challenges facing African countries today This edited volume covers issues that have adversely affected the achievement of goals related to humanitarian upliftment development and social change for all African nations Consequently citizen participation which lies at the heart of these challenges when considering the question of sustainable governance and policy development for social change in an African context is addressed To this end a reflection is also made on various case studies that exist where local citizens do not inform sustainable development programmes while the promotion of bottom up development and social change is largely replaced by top down instrumental action approaches and hemispheric communication instead of strategic communication Themes explored include Communication for social change bottom up development and social movements in the local government sphere Strategic communication in governance planning and policy reforms The role of multi stakeholder partnerships in achieving development of objectives geared towards good governance in Africa Public participation protests and resistance from below

Public sector health communications and development Media relations accountability and contested development narratives with the Fourth Estate Social media and eParticipation in government development programs The Authoritarian International Stephen G. F. Hall, 2023-05-25 Stephen Hall argues that democracies can preserve their norms and values from increasing attacks and backsliding by better understanding how authoritarian regimes learn He focuses on the post Soviet region investigating two established authoritarian regimes Belarus and Russia and two hybrid regimes Moldova and Ukraine with the aim of explaining the concept of authoritarian learning and revealing the practices that are developed and the sources of that learning Hall finds clear signs of collaboration between countries in developing best survival practices between authoritarian minded elites and demonstrates that learning does not just occur between states rather it can happen at the intra state level with elites learning lessons from previous regimes in their own countries He highlights the horizontal nature of this learning with authoritarian minded elites developing methods from a range of sources to ascertain the best practices for survival Post Soviet regional organisations are crucial for the development and sharing of these survival practices as they provide learning rooms and training exercises
