Environmental Health in International and EU Law Stefania Negri, 2019-12-09 This book presents a broad overview of the many intersections between health and the environment that lie at the basis of the most crucial environmental health issues focusing on the responses provided by international and EU law Consistent with the One Health approach and moving from the relevant international and EU legal frameworks the book addresses some of the most important issues of environmental health including the traditional such as pollution of air water and soil and related food safety issues as well as new and emerging challenges like those linked to climate change antimicrobial resistance and electromagnetic fields Applying an intersectoral and interdisciplinary approach it also investigates other branches of international and EU law including human rights law investment law trade law energy law and disaster law The work also discusses ethics and intergenerational equity Ultimately the book assesses the degree of effectiveness of the international and EU normative framework and the extent to which the relevant legal instruments contribute to the protection of public health from major environmental hazards The book will be a valuable resource for students academics and policy makers working in the areas of Environmental Health law Global Health law International law and EU law

Private International Law Aspects of Corporate Social Responsibility Catherine Kessedjian, Humberto Cantú Rivera, 2020-03-06 This book addresses one of the core challenges in the corporate social responsibility or business and human rights debate how to ensure adequate access to remedy for victims of corporate abuses that infringe upon their human rights However ensuring access to remedy depends on a series of normative and judicial elements that become highly complex when disputes are transnational In such cases courts need to consider and apply different laws that relate to company governance to determine the competent forum to define which bodies of law to apply and to ensure the adequate execution of judgments The book also discusses how alternative methods of dispute settlement can relate to this topic and the important role that private international law plays in access to remedy for corporate related human rights abuses This collection comprises 20 national reports from jurisdictions in Europe North America Latin America and Asia addressing the private international law aspects of corporate social responsibility They provide an overview of the legal differences between geographical areas and offer numerous examples of how states and their courts have resolved disputes involving private international law elements The book draws two preliminary conclusions that there is a need for a better understanding of the role that private international law plays in cases involving transnational elements in order to better design transnational solutions to the issues posed by economic globalisation and that the treaty negotiations on business and human rights in the United Nations could offer a forum to clarify and unify several of the elements that underpin transnational disputes involving corporate human rights abuses which could also help to identify and bridge the existing gaps that limit effective access to remedy Adopting a comparative approach this book appeals to academics lawyers judges and legislators concerned with the issue of access to remedy and reparation for corporate abuses under the prism of private international law Salute e sanità Rosario Ferrara,2010 Tutela della salute e diritto internazionale Pia Acconci,2011 Collected Courses of the Academy of European Law:1997 European Community Law Academy of European Law,2001-05-23 The Academy of European Law was established by the European University Institute in 1990 and extends the Institute's current programmes into a larger field of interest. It has as its main activity the holding of annual Summer Courses in the law of the European Community and the protection of human rights in Europe. In addition to General Courses, shorter courses are held on subjects of special academic and practical interest in both fields. Finally, special guest lectures on topical issues are given by policy makers, judges and persons who have held or currently hold the highest position in these fields. The courses are published in the language in which they were delivered: English and French.

International Law and the Protection of Humanity Pia Acconci, David Donat Cattin, Antonio Marchesi, Giuseppe Palmisano, Valeria Santori, 2016-11-28 This challenging volume contains articles by a wide variety of well-known scholars and practitioners and deals with human rights, international humanitarian law, international criminal law and humanitarian assistance as well as other areas of international law relating to the protection of humanity. These are topics to which Flavia Lattanzi, in whose honour the volume is being published, has made an outstanding contribution and to which she has given her determined and unrelenting professional and personal commitment. As a former Professor at the Universities of Pisa, Sassari, Teramo and Roma Tre and as Judge ad litem at the International Tribunal for Rwanda and the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, she has adhered constantly to a number of important principles as reflected in the research contained in this volume. They include the firm conviction that respect for human rights is an indispensable precondition for durable peace; the notion that grave breaches of human rights, including the refusal to provide assistance to populations in distress, can imply a threat to international peace and security; and that guarantees against human rights violations include the question of the punishment of core crimes under International Law. Il danno alla salute Marco Rossetti, 2025-04-01 Aggiornato al D.P.R. 13/1/2025 n. 12 Approvazione della Tabella Unica Nazionale IL DANNO ALLA SALUTE offre un'esposizione completa sui danni alla persona. Ne definisce la nozione, ne cerca il fondamento, ne definisce l'accertamento, ne spiega la liquidazione. Il testo, aggiornato al D.P.R. 13/1/2025 n. 12 Approvazione della Tabella Unica Nazionale, il volume esamina tutti i tipi di danno: il danno biologico permanente e temporaneo, il danno patrimoniale da incapacità di guadagno, il danno patrimoniale per spese mediche, il danno patrimoniale e non patrimoniale derivante dall'uccisione di un prossimo congiunto, il danno da perdita di chances, il danno di tipo terminale o da lucida agonia, il danno causato da colpa medica. Human Rights and Emerging Technologies Daniele Ruggiu, 2018-06-26 What is the state of current European governance on new and emerging technologies and where is it going? What is and what can be the role of human rights in governance arrangements? These are the main questions that this book answers for both European and non-European scholars. It provides a wide picture of current European governance, notably in biotechnology, nanotechnology and synthetic biology, and discusses the model of Responsible Research and Innovation which is gaining popularity within the European Union under a human rights perspective It shows how human rights can contribute to governance frameworks without posing obstacles to research and innovation The theory presented in the book is followed by practical guidelines drawn from human rights law Starting from the Strasbourg Court jurisprudence it provides a complete review of the wide range of rights that the European Convention on Human Rights protects in light of the challenges of techno scientific advances This analysis will come in handy for private actors policymakers regulators as well as judges in solving hard cases raised by techno scientific progress in the future

International Human Rights Law Riccardo Pisillo Mazzeschi, 2021-09-29 This textbook provides a thorough and systematic overview of human rights law including the most relevant practice and case law but also dealing with theoretical issues It pursues an original approach seeking to reconcile its didactic purpose with a scientific one positing that there must be a necessary synergy between these two purposes Furthermore the author is convinced that international human rights law should not be studied as is done in virtually every textbook as a special legal regime separate and autonomous from the overall system of international law but as a regime that is fully integrated into the international legal order The book's dominant theme is the interrelationship of international human rights law and general international law Following this approach the author has chosen to devote comparatively little content to institutional issues Part IV and to instead more intensively explore the structural impact of human rights law on the entire international order Part I on the sources Part II and obligations Part III of general international law and what constitutes fundamental human rights Part V without neglecting other rights Part VI
