Twilight Memories Marking Time In A Culture Of Amnesia:

Twilight Memories Andreas Huyssen, 1995 As we are approaching our fin de siècle issues of time and memory haunt contemporary culture Museums and memorials are being constructed rapidly as if there were no tomorrow Contemporary art and literature focuses on memory and the past rather than claiming radical breakthroughs into some unknown future With the recent resurgence of nationalism and issues of national identity the political future too seems to fold itself back into the past rather than offering a bold vision of the 21st century The great paradox of our fin de siècle culture is that novelty is even more associated with memory and the past rather than future expectation But if the obsession with memory is one salient symptom in this age of a modernity grown old then cultural and political amnesia is undoubtedly its counterpoint Rather than blaming amnesia on television or the school Twilight Memories argues that the danger of amnesia is inherent in the information revolution Our obsessions with cultural memory can be read as re representing a powerful reaction against the electronic archive and they mark a shift in the way we live structures of temporality In this book the media are the hidden veil through which the author looks at the problem of cultural memory and an emerging new sensibility of temporality in literature art politics media theory and the museum

The Art of Recollection in Jena Romanticism Laurie Ruth Johnson, 2015-02-06 This exploration of Romantic depictions of memory as a faculty of body as well as of mind analyzes representations of remembrance in Jena Romantic texts When these texts pose questions about memory's employment and depiction in art about the aestheticization of recollection they reveal serious doubt about the explanatory ability of the philosophical psychological and aesthetic discourses against which Romantic and modern thought is constructed

The Changing Place of Europe in Global Memory Cultures Christina Kraenzle, Maria Mayr, 2016-12-10 This book investigates the transnational dimensions of European cultural memory and how it contributes to the construction of new non supra and post national but also national memory narratives The volume considers how these narratives circulate not only within Europe but also through global interactions with other locations The Changing Place of Europe in Global Memory Cultures responds to recent academic calls to break with methodological nationalism in memory studies Taking European memory as a case study the book offers new empirical and theoretical insights into the transnational dimensions of cultural memory without losing sight of the continued relevance of the nation The articles critically examine the ways in which various individuals organizations institutions and works of art are mobilizing future oriented memories of Europe to construct new memory narratives Taking into account the heterogeneity and transnational locations of commemorative groups the multidirectionality of acts of remembrance and a variety of commemorative media such as museums film photography and literature the volume not only investigates how memory discourses circulate within Europe but also how they are being transferred translated or transformed through global interactions beyond the European continent

The Svetlana Boym Reader Svetlana Boym, 2018-04-19 Svetlana Boym was a prolific writer a charismatic professor a novelist and a public intellectual She was also a fiercely resourceful and reflective immigrant her most resonant book The Future of Nostalgia was deeply rooted in that experience Even after The Future of Nostalgia carried her fame beyond academic circles few readers were aware of all of her creative personas She was simply too prolific and her work migrated across most people's disciplinary boundaries from literary and cultural studies through film visual and material culture studies performance intermedia and new media The Svetlana Boym Reader presents a comprehensive view of Boym's singularly creative work in all its aspects It includes Boym's classic essays carefully chosen excerpts from her five books and journalistic gems Showcasing her roles both as curator and curator the reader includes interviews and excerpts from exhibition catalogues as well as samples of intermedial works like Hydrant Immigrants It also features autobiographical pieces that shed light on the genealogy of her scholarly work and rarities like an excerpt from Boym's first graduate school essay on Russian literature complete with marginalia by her mentor Donald Fanger Last but not least the reader includes late pieces that Boym did not live to see through publication as well as transcripts of her memorable last lectures and performances

History and memory Geoffrey Cubitt, 2013-01-18 In recent years memory has become a central though also a controversial concept in historical studies a term that denotes both a new and distinctive field of study and a fresh way of conceptualizing history as a field of inquiry more generally This book which is aimed both at specialists and at students provides historians with an accessible and stimulating introduction to debates and theories about memory and to the range of approaches that have been taken to the study of it in history and other disciplines Contributing in a wide ranging way to debate on some of the central conceptual problems of memory studies the book explores the relationships between the individual and the collective between memory as survival and memory as reconstruction between remembering as a subjective experience and as a social or cultural practice and between memory and history as modes of retrospective knowledge

Contemporary German-Chinese Cultures in Dialogue Haina Jin, Anna Stecher, Rebecca Ehrenwirth, 2023-05-16 This book provides a unique perspective on contemporary German and Chinese cultural encounters Moving away from highlighting exchanges between the two countries in terms of colonial connections religious influences and philosophical impacts the book instead focuses on the vast array of modern cultural dialogues that have influenced both countries especially in literature theatre and film The book discusses issues of translation adaptation and reception to reveal a unique cultural relationship The editors and contributors examine the existing programs and strategies for cultural interchange and analyse how these shape or have shaped intercultural dialogue and what kind of intercultural exchange is encouraged This book is of interest to students and researchers of film and media studies Sinophone studies transnational studies cultural studies and social and cultural anthropology

Beyond Berlin Gavriel D. Rosenfeld, Paul B. Jaskot, 2015-05-01 Beyond Berlin breaks new ground in the ongoing effort to understand how memorials buildings and other spaces have figured in the larger German struggle to come to terms with the legacy of Nazism The contributors challenge reigning views of how the task of coming to terms with the Nazi Past Vergangenheitsbewältigung has been pursued at specific urban and architectural sites Focusing on west as well as east German cities whether prominent metropolises like Hamburg dynamic regional centers like Dresden gritty industrial cities like Wolfsburg or idyllic rural towns like Quedlinburg the volume's case studies of individual urban centers provide readers with a more complex sense of the manifold ways in which the confrontation with the Nazi past has directly shaped the evolving form of the German urban landscape since the end of the Second World War In these multidisciplinary discussions of important intersections with historical art historical anthropological and geographical concerns this collection deepens our understanding of the diverse ways in which the memory of National Socialism has profoundly influenced postwar German culture and society Scholars and students interested in National Socialism modern Germany memory studies urban studies and planning geography industrial design and art and architectural history will find the volume compelling Beyond Berlin will appeal to general audiences knowledgeable about the Nazi past as well as those interested in historic preservation memorials and the overall dynamics of commemoration

The houses of history Anna Green, Kathleen Troup, 2016-08-15 The houses of history is a clear jargon free introduction to the major theoretical approaches employed by historians This innovative critical reader provides accessible introductions to fourteen schools of thought from the empiricist to the postcolonial including chapters on Marxist history Freud and psychohistory the Annales historical sociology narrative gender public history and the history of the emotions Each chapter begins with a succinct description of the ideas integral to a particular theory The authors then explore the insights and controversies arising from the application of this model drawing upon debates and examples from around the world Each chapter concludes with a representative example from a historian writing within this conceptual framework This newly revised edition of the highly successful textbook is the ideal basis for an introductory course in history and theory for students of history at all levels
