Twilight Of Authority:

Twilight of Authority Robert A. Nisbet, 2000 Nisbet argues that the political community in the West has broken down after two centuries of ascendancy He believes that the West has entered a twilight age that will be characterised by political and cultural crises similar to those that preceded the fall of Rome He foresees the displacement of traditional liberal society by centralised collectivised power what he terms the war society driven by the rising power and expense of a hugely scaled military Nisbet offers no prophecy of inevitable decline rather he means to call attention to the problem of finding the means of generating a social order within which the individual can live and derive a spirit of initiative

Ain't My America Bill Kauffman, 2008-04-15 From the finest literary stylist of the American right a surprising and spirited account of how true conservatives have always been antiwar and anti empire Allan Carlson author of The American Way Conservatives love war empire and the military industrial complex They abhor peace the sole and rightful property of liberals Right Wrong As Bill Kauffman makes clear true conservatives have always resisted the imperial and military impulse it drains the treasury curtails domestic liberties breaks down families and vulgarizes culture From the Federalists who opposed the War of 1812 to the striving of Robert Taft known as Mr Republican to keep the United States out of Korea to the latter day libertarian critics of the Iraq war there has historically been nothing freakish cowardly or even unusual about antiwar activists on the political right And while these critics of U S military crusades have been vilified by the party of George W Bush their conservative vision of a peaceful decentralized and noninterventionist America gives us a glimpse of the country we could have had and might yet attain Passionate and witty Ain t My America is an eye opening exploration of the forgotten history of right wing peace movements and a clarion manifesto for antiwar conservatives of today

Howell, 1990-09 Empowering Authority is a collection of dialogues about the central crisis of the Roman Catholic Church in our times the role of authority in the identity of the church and its mission to the world Against the background of the Vatican investigation of Archbishop Raymond Hunthausen of the Archdiocese of Western Washington the conversations presented here attempt to re examine the ways in which authority speaks authoritatively

The Dilemmas of American Conservatism Kenneth L. Deutsch, Ethan M. Fishman, 2010-08-18 In the second half of the twentieth century American conservatism emerged from the shadow of New Deal liberalism and developed into a movement exerting considerable influence on the formulation and execution of public policy in the United States During that period the political philosophers who provided the intellectual foundations for the American conservative movement were John H Hallowell Eric Voegelin Leo Strauss Richard Weaver Russell Kirk Robert Nisbet John Courtney Murray Friedrich Hayek and Willmoore Kendall By offering a comprehensive analysis of their thoughts and beliefs The Dilemmas of American Conservatism both illuminates the American conservative imagination and reveals its most serious contradictions The contributing authors question whether a core set of conservative principles can be determined based on the frequently diverging perspectives of
