Ua Mau Ke Ea Sovereignty Endures David Keanu Sai, Pū'ā Foundation, 2011-07-12 The Cambridge History of the Pacific Ocean: Volume 2, The Pacific Ocean since 1800 Anne Perez Hattori, Jane Samson, 2023-01-05 Volume II of The Cambridge History of the Pacific Ocean focuses on the latest era of Pacific history examining the period from 1800 to the present day This volume discusses advances and emerging trends in the historiography of the colonial era before outlining the main themes of the twentieth century when the idea of a Pacific centred century emerged It concludes by exploring how history and the past inform preparations for the emerging challenges of the future These essays emphasise the importance of understanding how the postcolonial period shaped the modern Pacific and its historians Paradoxes of Hawaiian

Sovereignty J. Kehaulani Kauanui, 2018-10-18 J K haulani Kauanui examines contradictions of indigeneity and self determination in U S domestic policy and international law showing how Hawaiian elites approaches to reforming land gender and sexual regulation in the early nineteenth century that paved the way for sovereign recognition of the kingdom complicate contemporary nationalist activism which too often includes disavowing the indigeneity of indigenous Hawaiians

The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History David Yoo, Eiichiro Azuma, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History brings together 27 essays that engage the state of the field with historiographically informed but creative approaches to this diverse and vibrant area The chapters trace Asian American history from the beginning of the migration flows toward the Pacific Islands and the American continent to Japanese American incarceration and Asian American participation in World War II from the experience of exclusion violence and racism to the social and political activism of the late twentieth century The authors explore many of the key aspects of the Asian American experience including politics economy intellectual life the arts education religion labor gender family urban development and legal history

Unconquered States H. E. Chehabi, David Motadel, 2024-11-25 In the heyday of empire most of the world was ruled directly or indirectly by the European powers Unconquered States explores the struggles for sovereignty of the few nominally independent non Western states in the imperial age It examines the ways in which countries such as China Ethiopia Japan the Ottoman Empire Persia and Siam managed to keep European imperialism at bay whereas others such as Hawaii i Korea Madagascar Morocco and Tonga long struggled but ultimately failed to maintain their sovereignty The chapters in this book address four major aspects of the relations these countries had with the Western imperial powers armed conflict and military reform unequal treaties and capitulations diplomatic encounters and royal diplomacy Bringing together scholars from five continents this book provides the first comprehensive global history of the engagement of the independent non European states with the European empires reshaping our understanding of sovereignty territoriality and hierarchy in the modern world order Hawaii's Past in a World of Pacific Islands James M. Bayman, Thomas S. Dye, 2013-03-12 Given its relatively late encounter with the West Hawaii offers an exciting opportunity to study a society whose traditional lifeways and technologies were recorded in native oral traditions and written documents before they were changed by contact with non Polynesian cultures This book in the SAA Press Current Perspectives Series chronicles the role of archaeology in constructing a narrative of Hawaii s cultural past focusing on material evidence dating from the Polynesians first arrival on Hawaii s shores about a millennium ago to the early decades of settlement by Americans and Europeans in the nineteenth century A final chapter discusses new directions taken by native Hawaiians toward changing the practice of archaeology in the islands today

The Reflexivity of Pain and Privilege Ellis Hurd,2019-01-21 The Reflexivity of Pain and Privilege offers a fresh and critical perspective to people of indigenous and or marginalized identifications It highlights the research shared experiences and personal stories and the artistic collections of those who are of mixed heritage and or identity as well as the perspectives of young adolescents who identify as being of mixed racial socio economic linguistic and ethno cultural backgrounds and experiences These auto ethnographic collections serve as an impetus for the untold stories of millions of marginalized people who may find solace here and in the stories of others who are of mixed identity

Neo-Colonial Injustice and the Mass Imprisonment of Indigenous Women Lily George,Adele N. Norris,Antje Deckert,Juan Tauri,2020-09-26 This book closes a gap in decolonizing intersectional and comparative research by addressing issues around the mass incarceration of Indigenous women in the US Australia Canada and Aotearoa New Zealand This edited collection seeks to add to the criminological discourse by increasing public awareness of the social problem of disproportionate incarceration rates It illuminates how settler colonial societies continue to deny many Indigenous peoples the life relatively free from state interference which most citizens enjoy The authors explore how White settler supremacy is exercised and preserved through neo colonial institutions policies and laws leading to failures in social and criminal justice reform and the impact of women s incarceration on their children partners families and communities It also explores the tools of activism and resistance that Indigenous peoples use to resist neo colonial marginalisation tactics to decolonise their lives and communities With most contributors embedded in their indigenous communities this collection is written from academic as well as community and experiential perspectives It will be a comprehensive resource for academics and students of criminology sociology Indigenous studies women and gender studies and related academic disciplines as well as non academic audiences offering new knowledge and insider insights both nationally and internationally

A Power in the World Lorenz Gonschor,2019-06-30 Few people today know that in the nineteenth century Hawai i was not only an internationally recognized independent nation but played a crucial role in the entire Pacific region and left an important legacy throughout Oceania As the first non Western state to gain full recognition as a coequal of the Western powers yet at the same time grounded in indigenous tradition and identity the Hawaiian Kingdom occupied a unique position in the late nineteenth century world order From this position Hawai i s leaders were able to promote the building of independent states based on their country s model throughout the Pacific envisioning the region to become politically unified Such a pan Oceanian polity would be able to withstand foreign colonialism and become in the words of one of the idea s pioneers a Power in the World After being developed over three decades among both native and non native intellectuals close to the Hawaiian court King Kal kaula s government started implementing this vision in 1887 by concluding a treaty of confederation with S moa a first step toward a larger Hawaiian led pan Oceanian federation Political unrest and Western imperialist interference in both Hawai i and S moa prevented the project from advancing further at the time and a long interlude of colonialism and occupation has obscured its legacy for over a century Nonetheless it remains an inspiring historical precedent for movements toward greater political and economic integration in the Pacific Islands region today Lorenz Gonschor examines two intertwined historical processes The development of a Hawai i based pan Oceanian policy and underlying ideology which in turn provided the rationale for the second process the spread of the Hawaiian Kingdom s constitutional model to other Pacific archipelagos He argues that the legacy of this visionary policy is today re emerging in the form of two interconnected movements namely a growing movement in Hawai i to reclaim its legacy as Oceania s historically leading nation state on one hand and an increasingly assertive Oceanian regionalism emanating mainly from Fiji and other postcolonial states in the Southwestern Pacific on the other As a historical reference for both nineteenth century Hawaiian policy serves as an inspiration and guideline for envisioning de colonial futures for the Pacific region

A Nation Rising Noelani Goodyear-Kaopua,Ikaika Hussey,Erin Kahunawaika'ala Wright,2014-08-27 A Nation Rising chronicles the political struggles and grassroots initiatives collectively known as the Hawaiian sovereignty movement raising issues that resonate far beyond the Hawaiian archipelago issues such as Indigenous cultural revitalization environmental justice and demilitarization
