Re-Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities Bosch, Chantelle, Laubscher, Dorothy Joy, Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, 2021-05-14 Challenges in the educational arena are not new phenomena However with the recent outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic researchers and educators have been made even more aware of the need for a paradigm shift in education Blended learning as opposed to fully online learning or traditional face to face teaching has been well researched and has been found to have the potential to provide better educational solutions in challenging contexts These contexts range from pandemic situations where social distancing is the order of the day to financial and time constraints regarding full time study as well as limited physical capacity at institutions Blended learning solutions are often designed for resourceful institutions and cannot be easily implemented in developing countries and in communities where resources are limited Typical issues like connectivity accessibility lack of suitable devices and affordability need to be taken into consideration and in cognizance of blended learning interventions These challenges are often neglected in blended learning research but are critical discussions to be had Re Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities shares how institutions in the developing world and less privileged communities have re imagined and restructured blended education to enhance teaching and learning for underprivileged communities This book aims to address blended learning solutions across institutional program course and activity levels The chapters will cover a variety of learning environments from rural settings to less developed countries and more and explore the programs and courses designed to improve student success and accessibility in diverse student populations This book is ideally intended for teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students who are interested in blended learning opportunities in less privileged settings and to underserved and marginalized populations

Making Sense of the Learning Turn Anders Örtengren,2024-05-09 From learning toy and learning society to learning city and learning organization what is meant by learning The main focus of this volume is to increase our understanding of the learning turn referring in this book to the frequent occurrence and usage of terms in the last few decades where the word learning is the premodifier The authors also offer insights into the use of the word learning as a premodifier in the future and discuss what if anything may replace it such as knowledge as in knowledge management and smart as in smart city An extensive range of academic disciplines are covered including political science economics human geography philosophy linguistics higher education working life science management and organization and marketing While a single overall unified conclusion is not provided Making Sense of the Learning Turn presents a variety of voices and perspectives Some contributors are critical towards the learning turn explaining it in terms of fashion following manipulation and seduction Others interpret the learning turn more lightly or suggest a more collective form of learning as an alternative to the individualization of learning that some authors argue has been the case thus far Today's Family Guide to Austin,

Gusto Diana Kennedy,2011-12-01 No one has done more to introduce the world to the authentic flavorful cuisines of Mexico than Diana Kennedy Acclaimed as the Julia Child of Mexican cooking Kennedy has been an intrepid indefatigable student of Mexican foodways for more than fifty years and has published several classic books on the subject including The Cuisines of Mexico now available in The Essential Cuisines of Mexico a compilation of her first three books The Art of Mexican Cooking, My Mexico and From My Mexican Kitchen. Her uncompromising insistence on using the proper local ingredients and preparation techniques has taught generations of cooks how to prepare and savor the delicious subtle and varied tastes of Mexico. In Oaxaca al Gusto, Kennedy takes us on an amazing journey into one of the most outstanding and colorful cuisines in the world. The state of Oaxaca is one of the most diverse in Mexico with many different cultural and linguistic groups often living in areas difficult to access. Each group has its own distinctive cuisine and Diana Kennedy has spent many years traveling the length and breadth of Oaxaca to record in words and photographs these little known foods both wild and cultivated the way they were prepared and the part they play in the daily or festive life of the communities. Oaxaca al Gusto is the fruit of these labors and the culmination of Diana Kennedy's life's work. Organized by regions, Oaxaca al Gusto presents some three hundred recipes most from home cooks for traditional Oaxacan dishes. Kennedy accompanies each recipe with fascinating notes about the ingredients, cooking techniques, and the food's place in family and communal life. Lovely color photographs illustrate the food and its preparation. A special feature of the book is a chapter devoted to the three pillars of the Oaxacan regional cuisines: chocolate, corn, and chiles. Notes to the cook, a glossary, a bibliography, and an index complete the volume. An irreplaceable record of the infinite world of Oaxacan gastronomy, Oaxaca al Gusto belongs on the shelf of everyone who treasures the world's traditional regional cuisines. The Publishers Weekly, 1964
