Her Innocent Curves Katherine George, 2015-07-22 Werewolf Romance Have you ever heard it said that it takes a silver bullet to pierce a werewolf's heart I guess you could say that Stephanie was my silver bullet For years I'd been living on my own in the forest isolating myself from the rest of the world for protection against my vicious and bloodthirsty transformations every full moon after I'd vitally wounded a man during my teenage years But then one day Stephanie came into my life unexpectedly visiting the forest on a hunting trip with her cruel and unsupportive boyfriend and after that initial visit I just couldn't seem to get her out of my mind I tried to forget about her knowing that love was something I could never have that trying to have her in my life was selfish and could only end in pain but then one night she showed up in the woods uninvited during a full moon no less and I had to ask myself Could love have been the silver bullet I needed all this time This is a stand alone Contemporary New Adult Romance novel No Cliffhanger Content suitable for mature readers contains sexual content and harsh language
