What Is A World On Postcolonial Literature As World Literature:

What Is a World? Pheng Cheah, 2015-12-17 In What Is a World Pheng Cheah a leading theorist of cosmopolitanism offers the first critical consideration of world literature's cosmopolitan vocation. Addressing the failure of recent theories of world literature to inquire about the meaning of world, Cheah articulates a normative theory of literature's world-making power by creatively synthesizing four philosophical accounts of the world as a temporal process: idealism, Marxist materialism, phenomenology, and deconstruction. Literature opens worlds, he provocatively suggests, because it is a force of receptivity. Cheah compellingly argues for postcolonial literature's exemplarity as world literature through readings of narrative fiction by Michelle Cliff, Amitav Ghosh, Nuruddin Farah, Ninotchka Rosca, and Timothy Mo that show how these texts open up new possibilities for remaking the world by negotiating with the inhuman force that gives time and deploying alternative temporalities to resist capitalist globalization.

World Literature in an Age of Geopolitics Theo D'haen, 2021-07-19 If you want to know how globalisation affects literary studies today, this is the book for you. Why has world literature become so hotly debated? How does it affect the study of national literatures? What does geopolitics have to do with literature? Does American academe still set an example for the rest of the world? Is China taking over? What about European literature? Europe's literatures: Do minor European literatures get lost in the shuffle? How can authors from such literatures get noticed? Who gains and who loses in an age of world literature? If those are questions that bewilder you, look no further: this book provides answers and leaves you fully equipped to dig deeper into the fascinating world of world literature in an age of geopolitics.

The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2011-09-14 In the age of globalization, the category of World Literature is increasingly important to academic teaching and research. The Routledge Companion to World Literature offers a comprehensive pathway into this burgeoning and popular field. Separated into four key sections, the volume covers the history of World Literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said, Casanova, and Moretti; the disciplinary relationship of World Literature to areas such as philology, translation, globalization, and diaspora studies; theoretical issues in World Literature, including gender, politics, and ethics; a global perspective on the politics of World Literature. The forty-eight outstanding contributors to this companion offer an ideal introduction to those approaching the field for the first time or looking to further their knowledge of this extensive field.

Postcolonial Literatures in English Anke Bartels, Lars Eckstein, Nicole Waller, Dirk Wiemann, 2019-04-27 The term postcolonial literatures in English designates English language literatures from Africa, Asia, the Americas, and Oceania, as well as the literatures of diasporic communities who have moved from those regions to the global north. This volume introduces the central themes of postcolonial literary studies and delineates how these themes are reflected and elaborated in exemplary literary works by postcolonial authors from around the world. It also offers succinct definitions of key terms like Orientalism, hybridity, Indigeneity, or writing back.

Women and Contemporary World Literature Deborah Fillerup Weagel, 2009 Many women in cultures throughout the world exhibit resilience and power in the face of obstacles and vicissitudes From colonial New Spain to postcolonial Africa and India Women and Contemporary World Literature examines ways in which women in literature function within their specific culture and circumstances to confront the challenges they encounter In spite of fragmentation in their lives much like quiltmakers they piece together the scraps of their existence to form an integrated and complete whole With its focus on power fragmentation and metaphor and a strong interdisciplinary approach this book offers a unique perspective to scholars teachers and students of comparative literature contemporary world literature colonial and postcolonial literature women s studies interdisciplinary studies and literature and cultural studies The Routledge Concise History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2013-03-01 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to and overview of World Literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism to postmodernism Theo D haen examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe s concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature non canonical and less known literatures from around the globe the possibility and implications of a definition of world literature This book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation and postcolonial studies and anyone with an interest in these or related topics Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca, 2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation mediums and materialities and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature We live in the age of popular self representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian auto biographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research

World Literature and the Postcolonial Elke Sturm-Trigonakis, 2020-05-19 This volume approaches literary representations of post and neocolonialism by combining their readings with respective theoretical configurations The aim is to cast light upon common characteristics of contemporary texts from around the world that deal with processes of colonization Based on the epistemic discourses of postimperialism postcolonialism globalization and world literature the volume's chapters bring together international scholars from various disciplines in the Humanities including Comparative Cultural Studies Slavic Romance German and African Studies The main concern of the contributions is to conceptualize an autonomous category of a world literature of the colonial going well beyond established classifications according to single languages or center periphery dichotomies

World Literature and Postcolonial Studies, 2023-04-17 What is the role of literature in our global landscape today How do local authors respond to the growing worldwide power of English and the persisting effects of the colonial systems that paved the way for globalization today These questions have often been approached very differently by postcolonialists and by students of world literature but over the past two decades a developing dialogue between these divergent approaches has produced robust scholarship and sometimes fractious debate as issues of language politics and cultural difference have come to the fore Drawing on a wide variety of cases from medieval Wales to contemporary Syria and Australia and on works written in Arabic Basque English Hindi and more this collection explores the mutual illumination that can be gained through the interaction of postcolonial and world literary perspectives

Romanian Literature as World Literature Mircea Martin, Christian Moraru, Andrei Terian, 2017-12-28 Approaching Romanian literature as world literature this book is a critical theoretical manifesto that places its object at the crossroads of empires regions and influences and draws conclusions whose relevance extends beyond the Romanian Romance and East European cultural systems This intersectional revisiting of Romanian literature is organized into three parts Opening with a fresh look at the literary ideology of Romania's national poet Mihai Eminescu part I dwells primarily on literary cultural history as process and discipline Here the focus is on cross cultural mimesis the role of strategic imitation in the production of a distinct literature in modern Romania and the shortcomings marking traditional literary historiography's handling of these issues Part II examines the ethno linguistic and territorial complexity of Romanian literatures or Romanian literature in the plural Part III takes up the trans systemic rise of Romanian Jewish Romanian and Romanian European avant garde and modernism Socialist Realism exile and migr literature and translation

The Work of World Literature Francesco Giusti, Benjamin Lewis Robinson, 2021-04-27 The contentious discourse around world literature tends to stress the world in the phrase This volume in contrast asks what it means to approach world literature by inflecting the question of the literary Debates for against and around world literature have brought renewed attention to the worldly aspects of the literary enterprise Literature is studied with regard to its sociopolitical and cultural references contexts and conditions of production circulation distribution and translation But what becomes of the literary when one speaks of world literature Responding to Derek Attridge's theory of how literature works the contributions in this volume explore in diverse ways and with attention to a variety of literary practices what it might mean to speak of the work of world literature The volume shows how attention to literariness complicates the ethical and political conundrums at the centre of debates about world literature

Postcolonialism After World Literature Lorna Burns, 2019-05-16 Postcolonial studies took shape in response to the nationalist and decolonization movements of the twentieth century Today a resurgent interest in world literature reflects an increased awareness of globalization These twin projects are torn between a criticism that finds in the text the trace of capitalist modernity and one that accounts for the revolutionary potential of literature to challenge our global present

Postcolonialism After World Literature exposes what is at stake in this critical choice through a line of philosophical enquiry Bruno Latour Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Rancière that poses an alternative to the materialist strand of world literary criticism pioneered by Pascale Casanova and Franco Moretti Engaging with these theorists and others Lorna Burns contests world systems theory as the basis for thinking about contemporary postcolonial and world literatures and proposes a renewed framework that promotes literature's capacity to provoke dissent to imagine new forms of belonging and relation for both national and world citizens and to stage the shared equality of all

'Post'-9/11 South Asian Diasporic Fiction P. Liao, 2012-12-07 While much of the critical discussion about the emerging genre of 9/11 fiction has centred on the trauma of 9/11 and on novels by EuroAmerican writers this book draws attention to the diversity of what might be meant by post 9/11 by exploring the themes of uncanny terror through a close reading of four post 9/11 South Asian diasporic fictions

The Many Worlds of Anglophone Literature Silvia Anastasijevic, Magdalena Pfalzgraf, Hanna Teichler, 2024-01-11 On what terms and concepts can we ground the comparative study of Anglophone literatures and cultures around the world today What if anything unites the novels of Witi Ihimaera the speculative fiction of Nnedi Okorafor the life writings by Stuart Hall and the emerging Anglophone Arab literature by writers like Omar Robert Hamilton This volume explores the globality of Anglophone fiction both as a conceptual framing and as a literary imaginary It highlights the diversity of lives and worlds represented in Anglophone writing as well as the diverse imaginations of transnational connections articulated in it Featuring a variety of internationally renowned scholars this book thinks through Anglophone literature not as a problematic legacy of colonial rule or as exoticizing commodity in a global literary marketplace but examines it as an inherently transcultural literary medium

Contributors provide new insights into how it facilitates the articulation of divergent experiences of modernity and the critique of hierarchies and inequalities within and beyond post colonial societies Postcolonial Writing in the Era of World Literature Baidik Bhattacharya, 2018-06-14 This book explores the debates surrounding two dynamic fields postcolonial studies and world literature Contrary to many dominant narratives in critical theory it asserts that as an analytical framework the idea of world literature is dead the nineteenth century ideal of world literature had always and already been embedded in colonial histories and also because whatever promise that ideal held out has been exhausted by postcolonial Anglophone literature Through fresh and incisive readings of the postcolonial canon and some of its most prominent authors like Rudyard Kipling V S Naipaul J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie the volume discusses how these Anglophone writings have used the banal and ordinary ideal of world literature to fashion out their own trajectories Ambitious in scope this book challenges many of the existing theoretical and literary frameworks and offers a radical reimagination of the fields The volume written in an accessible and lively prose will be indispensable for scholars and researchers of literature critical theory postcolonial studies cultural studies and comparative literature Literature and the World Stefan Helgesson, Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2019-09-09 Literature and the World presents a broad and multifaceted introduction to world literature and globalization The book provides a brief background and history of the field followed by a wide spectrum of exemplary readings and case studies from around the world Amongst other aspects of World Literature the authors look at New approaches to digital humanities and world literature Ecologies of world literature Rethinking geography in a globalized world Translation Race and political economy Offering state of the art debates on world literature this volume is a superb introduction to the field Its critically thoughtful approach makes this the ideal guide for anyone approaching World Literature Mapping World Literature Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2008-08-20 Thomsen develops the concept of constellations of books based on particular formal and thematic traits and shows how this works in relation to literature written by migrant writers and literature on genocides wars and catastrophes The Longman Anthology of World Literature David Damrosch, 2004 This volume samples a broad range of literature from the ancient world It offers extensive selections from The Bible The Book of Songs The Mahabharata The Ramayana and Virgil's Aeneid as well as seven longer works in their entirety including The Epic of Gilgamesh and The Odyssey
