What Is This Thing Called Metaphysics 2nd Edition:

What is this Thing Called Metaphysics? , What is this thing called Metaphysics? Brian Garrett, 2011-02-25 Why is there something rather than nothing Does God exist Does time flow What are we Do we have free will What is truth Metaphysics is concerned with ourselves and reality and the most fundamental questions regarding existence This clear and accessible introduction covers the central topics in metaphysics in a concise but comprehensive way Brian Garrett discusses the crucial concepts in a highly readable manner easing the reader in with a look at some important philosophical problems He addresses key areas of metaphysics God Existence Modality Universals and particulars Facts Paradoxes of material constitution Causation Time Free will Personal identity Truth This second edition has been thoroughly revised Most chapters include substantial amounts of new material and there are additional chapters on Existence Modality Facts and Paradoxes of Material Constitution What is this thing called Metaphysics contains many helpful student friendly features Each chapter concludes with a useful summary of the main ideas discussed a glossary of important terms study questions annotated further reading and a guide to web resources Text boxes provide bite sized summaries of key concepts and major philosophers and clear and interesting examples are used throughout What is this thing called Metaethics? Matthew Chrisman, 2023-06-20 What makes something morally right Where do our ethical standards come from Are they relative to cultures or timeless and universal Are there any objective moral facts What is goodness If there are moral facts how do we learn about them What do we mean when we say someone ought to do something These are all questions in metaethics the branch of ethics that investigates the status of morality the nature of ethical value the possibility of ethical knowledge and the meaning of ethical statements To the uninitiated it can appear abstract and far removed from its two more concrete cousins ethical theory and applied ethics yet it is one of the fastest growing and most exciting areas of ethics What is this thing called Metaethics demystifies this important subject and is ideal for students coming to it for the first time Beginning with a brief overview of metaethics and the development of a conceptual toolkit Matthew Chrisman introduces and assesses the following key topics ethical reality including questions about naturalism and non naturalism moral facts and the distinction between realism and antirealism ethical language does language represent reality What mental states are expressed by moral statements moral psychology the theory of motivation and the connection between moral judgement and motivation moral knowledge intuitionist and coherentist moral epistemologies and theories of objectivity and relativism in metaethics prominent metaethical theories naturalism nonnaturalism error theory and expressivism new directions in metaethics including non traditional theories thick ethical concepts and extensions to metaepistemology and metanormative theory The Second Edition has been completely revised and updated throughout This includes a new thematic organization of the core chapters many new examples a newly written final chapter including discussion of thick ethical concepts and all things considered normativity updated references to recent scholarly literature improved learning resources an expanded glossary of terms and much more Additional features such as chapter summaries questions of understanding and suggestions for further reading make What is this thing called Metaethics an ideal introduction to metaethics

Love and Friendship Across Cultures Soraj Hongladarom,Jeremiah Joven Joaquin,2021-01-10 This collection brings together different philosophical points of view discussing two important aspects of human life namely love and friendship within the broad context of comparative philosophy These points of view differ in terms of their cultural orientations East or West ancient or modern philosophical methodologies analytical historical experimental or phenomenological broadly construed and motivation explanatory revisionary or argumentative The volume is a comparative treatment of how diverse philosophical cultures view love and friendship such as how Aristotle and Confucius views on friendship are similar and different how the ancient Greeks and the Buddhists view friendship and happiness and how posthumous love is possible With contributions from a diverse set of scholars this book presents the emerging views of Southeast Asian philosophers compared with those of philosophers from other regions including Europe and North America The volume thus provides a multi faceted way of understanding love and friendship across cultures and will be relevant to scholars interested in philosophy the history of ideas Asian Studies and religious studies

Philosophies of Appropriated Religions Soraj Hongladarom,Jeremiah Joven Joaquin, Frank J. Hoffman,2023-12-21 This book brings together different intercultural philosophical points of view discussing the philosophical impact of what we call the appropriated religions of Southeast Asia Southeast Asia is home to most of the world religions Buddhism is predominantly practiced in Thailand Vietnam Myanmar Singapore Laos and Cambodia Islam in Malaysia Indonesia and Brunei and Christianity in the Philippines and Timor Leste Historical data show however that these world religions are imported cultural products and have been reimagined assimilated and appropriated by the culture that embraced them In this collection we see that these appropriated religions imply a culturally nuanced worldview which in turn impacts how the traditional problems in the philosophy of religion are framed and answered in particular questions about the existence and nature of the divine the problem of evil and the nature of life after death Themes explored include religious belief and digital transition Therav da Buddhist philosophy religious diversity Buddhism and omniscience indigenous belief systems divine apology and unmerited human suffering dialetheism and the problem of evil Buddhist philosophy and Spinoza s views on death and immortality belief and everyday realities in the Philippines comparative religious philosophy gendering the Hindu concept of dharma Christian devotion and salvation during the Spanish colonial period in the Philippines through the writings of Jose Rizal indigenous Islamic practices in the Philippines practiced traditions in contemporary Filipino celebrations of Christmas role of place aspects in the appropriation of religions in Southeast Asia and fate and divine omniscience This book is of interest to scholars and researchers of philosophy of religion sociology of religion anthropology of religion cultural studies comparative religion religious studies and Asian studies
