Oriental Christian Biography, Containing Biographical Sketches of Distinguished Christians who Have Lived and Died in the East W. H. Carey, 1850 Oriental Christian Biography, 1850 Social Christianity in the Orient John Everett Clough, 1914 Christian and Oriental Philosophy of Art Ananda K. Coomaraswamy, 2017-01-12 The late Ananda K Coomaraswamy curator of Indian art at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts uniquely combined art historian philosopher orientalist linguist and expositor in his person His knowledge of the arts and handcrafts of the Orient was unexcelled and his numerous monographs on Oriental art either established or revolutionized entire fields He was also a great Orientalist with an almost unmatched understanding of traditional culture He covered the philosophic and religious experience of the entire premodern world east and west and for him primitive medieval European and classical Indian experiences of truth and art were only different dialects in a common language Finally Coomaraswamy was a provocative writer whose erudition was expressed in a delightful aphoristic style The nine essays in this book are among his most stimulating They discuss such matters as the true function of aesthetics in art the importance of symbolism and the importance of intellectual and philosophical background to the artist they analyze the role of traditional culture in enriching art they demonstrate that abstract art and primitive art despite superficial resemblances are completely divergent and they deal with the common philosophy which pervades all great art the nature of medieval art folklore and modern art the beauty inherent in mathematics and the union of traditional symbolism and individual portraiture in premodern cultures Early Orientalism Ivan Kalmar, 2013-06-17 The history of western notions about Islam is of obvious scholarly as well as popular interest today This book investigates Christian images of the Muslim Middle East focusing on the period from the Renaissance to the Enlightenment when the nature of divine as well as human power was under particularly intense debate in the West Ivan Kalmar explores how the controversial notion of submission to ultimate authority has in the western world been discussed with reference to Islam s alleged recommendation to obey unquestioningly a merciless Allah in heaven and a despotic government on earth He discusses how Abrahamic faiths Christianity and Judaism as much as Islam demand devotion to a sublime power with the faith that this power loves and cares for us a concept that brings with it the fear that on the contrary this power only toys with us for its own enjoyment For such a power Kalmar borrows Slavoj Zizek s term obscene father He discusses how this describes exactly the western image of the Oriental despot Allah in heaven and the various sultans emirs and ayatollahs on earth and how these despotic personalities of imagined Muslim society function as a projection from the West on to the Muslim Orient of an existential anxiety about sublime power Making accessible academic debates on the Land and Society in the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia Donald Crummey, 2000 Land and Society in the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia offers an original perspective on how the rulers of Ethiopia one of the great subcenters of agricultural innovation and development used land to support their dominion Crummey draws on all the surviving documents pertaining to the holding and granting of agricultural land in the Ethiopian highlands from the thirteenth to the twentieth century By examining how social relations affected the conditions for economic production and how people of power drew on the wealth created by society's basic producers he provides new insight into how ordinary farming and herding folk were incorporated into and affected by the institutions that ruled them

Redefining Christian Identity Jan J. Ginkel, Hendrika Lena Murre-van den Berg, Theo Maarten van Lint, 2005 Cultural interaction in the Middle East since the Rise of Islam such was the title of a combined research project of the Universities of Leiden and Groningen aimed at describing the various ways in which the Christian communities of the Middle East expressed their distinct cultural identity in Muslim societies As part of the project the symposium Redefining Christian Identity Christian cultural strategies since the rise of Islam took place at Groningen University on April 7-10 1999 This book contains the proceedings of this conference From the articles it becomes clear that a number of distinct cultural strategies can be identified some of which were used very frequently others only in certain groups or at particular periods of time The three main strategies that are represented in the papers of this volume are i reinterpretation of the pre Islamic Christian heritage ii inculturation of elements from the new Islamic context iii isolation from the Islamic context Viewed in time it is clear that the reinterpretation of older Christian heritage was particularly important in the first two centuries after the rise of Islam the seventh and eighth centuries that inculturation was the dominant theme of the Abbasid period in the ninth to twelfth centuries whereas from the Mongol period onwards from the thirteenth to the eighteenth centuries isolation more and more often occurs although inculturation of elements from the predominantly Muslim environment never came to a complete standstill

Is there a Judeo-Christian Tradition? Emmanuel Nathan, Anya Topolski, 2016-03-21 The term Judeo Christian in reference to a tradition heritage ethic civilization faith etc has been used in a wide variety of contexts with widely diverging meanings Contrary to popular belief the term was not coined in the United States in the middle of the 20th century but in 1831 in Germany by Ferdinand Christian Baur By acknowledging and returning to this European perspective and context the volume engages the historical theological philosophical and political dimensions of the term's development Scholars of European intellectual history will find this volume timely and relevant
