You Send Me The Life And Times Of Sam Cooke:

You Send Me Daniel J. Wolff, 1995 In late 1957 when You Send Me burst upon the pop scene and shot to number one it was seen as a phenomenal debut by a young unknown But in African American communities across the nation Sam Cooke was already one of gospel music's most charismatic stars and his crossover into rock n roll heralded the beginning of a new era The remarkable string of hits that followed Only Sixteen Chain Gang Cupid Twistin the Night Away Bring It on Home to Me Havin a Party Shake earned Cooke the title of The Man Who Invented Soul Music At the same time Cooke became one of the music business's first African American entrepreneurs fighting for the publishing rights to his songs and founding his own record label Enmeshed in the beginnings of the civil rights movement he crisscrossed the country insisting that rock n roll be fully integrated And he encouraged younger singers like Aretha Franklin and Smokey Robinson to follow his crossover example Despite a near fatal car accident and the tragic death of his infant son Sam Cooke managed to forge a career that artists such as Rod Stewart Keith Richards and Aaron Neville still revere Indeed Sam Cooke was one of the first names inducted into the Rock Roll Hall of Fame Just as Cooke achieved a new level of success with sold out appearances at New York's Copacabana his life came to a sudden end He was discovered half naked in a seedy south Los Angeles motel with a bullet through his heart His was a murder that is still viewed by many as inexplicable and unsolved

Like a Rolling Stone Greil Marcus, 2006-04-04 Greil Marcus saw Bob Dylan for the first time in a New Jersey field in 1963 He didn't know the name of the scruffy singer who had a bit part in a Joan Baez concert but he knew his performance was unique So began a dedicated and enduring relationship between America's finest critic of popular music simply peerless in Nick Hornby's words not only as a rock writer but as a cultural historian and Bob Dylan In Like A Rolling Stone Marcus locates Dylan's six minute masterwork in its richest fullest context capturing the heady atmosphere of the recording studio in 1965 as musicians and technicians clustered around the mercurial genius from Minnesota the young Bob Dylan at the height of his powers But Marcus shows how far from being a song only of 1965 Like a Rolling Stone is rooted in faraway American places and times drawing on timeless cultural impulses that make the song as challenging disruptive and restless today as it ever was capable of reinvention by artists as disparate as the comedian Richard Belzer and the Italian hip hop duo Articolo 31 Like a Rolling Stone never loses its essential quality which is directly to challenge the listener it remains a call to arms and a demand for a better world Forty years later it is still revolutionary as will and idea as an attack and an embrace How Does it Feel In this unique burningly intense book Marcus tells you and much more besides Singing in a Strange Land Nick Salvatore, 2007-10-15 A prizewinning historian pens this biography of C L Franklin the greatest African American preacher of his generation father of Aretha and civil rights pioneer Just My Soul Responding Brian Ward, 2012-10-12 Brian Ward is Lecturer in American History at the University of Newcastle upon Tyne This book is intended for American studies American history postwar social and cultural history political history Black history Race and Ethnic studies and Cultural studies together with the general trade music Bad Boy of Gospel Music Russ Cheatham, 2010-03-05 I messed up Calvin Newton lamented after wasting thirty years and doing time in both state and federal prisons for theft counterfeiting and drug violations These were years of my life that I could have been singing gospel music During his prime he was super handsome athletic and charged with sexual charisma that attracted women to him like flies to honey Atop this abundance was his astounding voice the voice of an angel This book is his prodigal son story Audacious Newton never turned down a dare even if it meant climbing on the roof of a speeding car or wading into a freezing ocean As a boy boxer he was a Kentucky Golden Gloves champ who knocked his opponent in twenty three seconds By his late teens he had been recruited by the Blackwood Brothers the number one gospel quartet in the world In his mid twenties while he was singing Christian songs with the Oak Ridge Quartet Newton's mighty talent and movie star looks took him deep into hedonism reckless driving heavy romancing and addictive pill popping As 1950s rock n roll began its invasion of gospel he and two partners formed the Sons of Song the first all male gospel trio Long before the pop sound claimed contemporary Christian music the Sons of Song turned gospel upside down with histrionic harmony high styled tuxedos and Hollywood verve Their signature song Wasted Years foreshadowed Newton's punishing fall This biography looks back at the destructive lifestyle that wrecked a sparkling career When well into his sixties Newton turned his life around and was able to confront his demons and discuss his prodigal days He talked extensively with Russ Cheatham about his self destruction and the great personal expense of his own bad boy choices and late redemption In this candid biography one of gospel's all stars discloses a messed up life that vacillated between achievement and failure fame and infamy happiness and grief People Get Ready! Bob Darden,2004-01-01 From Africa through the spirituals from minstrel music through jubilee and from traditional to contemporary gospel People Get Ready provides for the first time an accessible overview of this musical genre A Critical History of Soul Train on Television Christopher P. Lehman,2008-04-30 As a wildly popular local dance show Soul Train provided a venue for Chicago's soul singers and political activists and gave African American teenagers their first significant chance to see and identify with their peers on television The subsequent national series garnered even more popularity establishing producer and host Don Cornelius as one of the most successful pioneers of African American television production This work discusses Cornelius's role in the evolution of his groundbreaking series from a small all black 1970s television show to a lucrative brand name applying not only to the program but also to awards and various merchandise in the present day The first two chapters focus on Cornelius's years in Chicago and the initial launching of Soul Train in 1970 The next two chapters explore how the nationally televised California based version of the show rose steadily in both popularity and cultural influence among primarily African American viewers and how Cornelius himself became a rising celebrity during that time The final chapters illustrate Cornelius's efforts in branching out beyond the dance show through various music related business ventures including the Soul Train Music Awards The work includes interviews with several former cast members and guests along with a complete chronology of the series and Cornelius's other professional ventures
