Bruce Fisher, Nina Hart-Fisher

Your Many Faces The First Step To Being Loved:

Your Many Faces Virginia Satir, 2011-04-20 Each one of us has a medley of faces that composes our individual personality intelligence anger love jealousy helplessness courage and many more We re often quick to judge these characteristics as either positive or negative without recognizing that we need each of them in order to become fuller more balanced human beings Originally written in 1978 by renowned psychotherapist Virginia Satir the timeless classic Your Many Faces has been updated and reissued and is as relevant today as ever In a refreshingly candid style Satir takes us on a lively and insightful journey of self discovery and transformation We learn how to acknowledge understand and manage our many faces and in doing so open up a world of possibilities for ourselves This new edition also features a compelling foreword by Mary Ann Norfleet PhD which explores Satir s pioneering approaches to psychology and her enduring legacy in the field of family therapy

Internal Family Systems Therapy with Children Lisa Spiegel, 2017-09-19 Internal Family Systems Therapy with Children details the application of IFS in child psychotherapy The weaving together of theory step by step instruction and case material gives child therapists a clear roadmap for understanding and utilizing the healing power of this modality In addition any IFS therapist will deepen their understanding of the theory and practice of Internal Family Systems by reading how it is practiced with children This book also covers the use of IFS in parent guidance an important aspect of any therapeutic work with families or adult individuals with children The poignant and humorous vignettes of children s therapy along with their IFS artwork make it an enjoyable and informative read Applies the increasingly popular Internal Family Systems model to children Integrates theory step by step instruction and case material to demonstrate to therapists how to use IFS with children Contains a chapter on using IFS in parent guidance Includes a foreword by Richard Schwartz the developer of the Internal Family Systems model

12 Hidden Rewards of Making Amends Allen Berger, 2013-05-28 Did you know there are hidden rewards to making amends Without a willingness to experience our painful feelings we can never grow and mature into the person we d like to be We can never reach our potential We can never become our true self To grow we must stay in close contact with our experience whatever it is We need to stay in close contact with how we behaved in our relationships in order to make a thorough list of those we have harmed We must face the wrongs we have done without running away from the truth If we were rigorously honest with ourselves while making the list of people we had harmed we probably felt one or more of the following feelings anxiety shame discomfort or guilt This is exactly what we were suppose to feel We were learning that we don t have to feel comfortable to be OK In fact another hidden reward is that the more willing we are to feel uncomfortable the more comfortable we become Yes another paradox One of the many hidden rewards in working Steps 8 9 and 10 is to stay in close contact with our experience so we can learn from it This self understanding is at the heart of self forgiveness and emotional recovery Excerpted from 12 Hidden Rewards of Making Amends

The Bully in the Greenhouse: Why children bully others and what schools can do about it Graham

Ramsden,2020-04-27 Graham Ramsden s insightful new book helps understand why people particularly children bully others It utilises research from a wide variety of psychological and sociological sources to explore the context of bullying from both a historical viewpoint as well as from a social perspective It delves into the psychology of those people who choose to bully and helps the reader to understand why some people bully others and why some do not The closing chapters use this understanding to explore a variety of ways schools and other education settings can use their existing systems and structures to address this endemic issue

Loving Choices Bruce Fisher,Nina Hart-Fisher,2000 The author of Rebuilding has created a powerful personal practical and provocative guide to building new and lasting loving relationships Loving Choices is packed with insights exercises and examples to help readers turn life s challenges into loving choices The Art of Living Sideways

Sophie Friedel,2015-03-11 Sophie Friedel explores the action of skateboarding in her book as a way to escape cycles of despair not only in war torn environments and regions affected by poverty The author critically reflects on her involvements of teaching skateboarding in Afghanistan within the context of youth empowerment and peace work By way of personal experiences Friedel illustrates how skateboarding can be understood as an elicitive approach to peace work and conflict transformation that unfolds the extraordinary human potential inherent to all of us

Emotionally Healthy Spirituality Peter Scazzero,2011-05-09 What Are You Missing Peter Scazzero learned the hard way you can t be spiritually mature while remaining emotionally immature Even though Pete was pastor of a rapidly growing church he did what most people do avoid conflict in the name of Christianity ignore his anger sadness and fear use God to run from God live without boundaries Eventually God awakened him to a biblical integration of emotional health a profound relationship with Jesus and the historical practices of contemplative spirituality It created nothing short of a spiritual revolution utterly transforming him and his church In this best selling book Pete outlines his journey and the signs of emotionally unhealthy spirituality Then he provides seven biblical reality tested ways to break through to the revolutionary life Christ meant for you Emotionally Healthy Spirituality is presently used in more than twenty six countries to equip churches in a deep beneath the surface spiritual formation paradigm that truly transforms lives

Reconciliation and Social Healing in Afghanistan Heela

Najibullah, 2017-01-11 Heela Najibullah analyzes the Afghan reconciliation processes through the lenses of transrational peace philosophy and Elicitive Conflict Transformation. The research highlights two Afghan governments' reconciliation processes in 1986 and 2010 and underlines the political events that shaped the 1986 National Reconciliation Policy, drawing lessons for future processes. The author points out the historical and geopolitical patterns indicating regional and global stakeholders' involvement in Afghan politics. Social healing through a middle-out approach is the missing and yet crucial component to achieve sustainable reconciliation in Afghanistan.
