administrator or academy director with an interest in football youth sport sports development sports coaching or sport management Junior and Youth Grassroots Football Culture Jimmy O'Gorman, 2018-02-02 Football is ubiquitously acknowledged as The Global Game and or The People's Game everyday all encompassing terms familiar to anyone with an interest in football which illustrate albeit nebulously the game's international reach and popularity Yet much academic and popular attention has been and continues to be narrowly centred on topics pertaining to the elite and professional aspects of the game At a time when there appears to be an ever widening gap between the grassroots and elite levels of the sport this book brings together for the first time a collection of research articles dedicated solely to youth and junior grassroots football The intention is to generate future inquiry encourage theoretical debate and stimulate empirical research on topics and issues within the relatively marginalised area of the game that is youth and junior grassroots football The collection represents a preliminary consideration of what is already currently known about grassroots football and no less importantly point towards what remains unknown and under researched but which deserves much more attention than has been given hitherto As such the collection includes contributions from practitioners and researchers alike Topics included range from the provision organisation and development of grassroots football in one national association to broader issues such as the sources of enjoyment in participation the lived experiences of junior players and coaches to the causes of youth dropout from football In addition the significance of social stratification and various forms of social division which structure children's participation in grassroots football are discussed These include female participation and the role of elite female role models and issues relating to the participation of immigrant youth The book is intended to appeal to practitioners academics and football enthusiasts alike This book was originally published as a special issue of Soccer Society The Away Game Sebastian Abbot, 2018-03-06 An exhilarating at times heartbreaking and ultimately unforgettable journey that lays bare the true human stakes of the world's most popular game Warren St John best selling author of Outcasts United Searching for soccer's next superstars an audacious program called Football Dreams held tryouts for millions of 13 year old boys across Africa In The Away Game Sebastian Abbot follows several of the boys as they chase their dreams in a dizzying world of rich Arab sheikhs money hungry agents and soccer mad European fans Science and Football A. Mark Williams, 2023-05-22 This book presents a state of the art overview of the science underpinning talent identification and development in the world's most popular sport It covers a broad range of topics that span the various sub disciplines of sports science with contributions from some of the foremost scientists and applied practitioners globally The chapters provide readers with a comprehensive insight into how sport science is helping practitioners to create more evidence based approaches when attempting to identify and develop future generations of elite players rather than relying on tradition and precedence This book dispels some of the myths involved in talent identification and highlights how science is playing an ever increasing role in guiding and shaping the practices used at the most renowned professional clubs across the globe It is a must read for anyone involved in the game at any level including sports scientists medical staff coaches and administrators This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sports Sciences Sport, Spirituality, and Religion Tracy J.

Trothen,2019-11-22 The research studies included in this Special Issue highlight the fundamental contribution of the knowledge of environmental history to conscious and efficient environment conservation and management The long term perspective of the dynamics that govern the human climate ecosystem is becoming one of the main focuses of interest in biological and earth system sciences Multidisciplinary bio geo archaeo investigations into the underlying processes of human impact on the landscape are crucial to envisage possible future scenarios of biosphere responses to global warming and biodiversity losses This Special Issue seeks to engage an interdisciplinary dialog on the dynamic interactions between nature and society focusing on long term environmental data as an essential tool for better informed landscape management decisions to achieve an equilibrium between conservation and sustainable resource exploitation Science in Soccer
