Yvain Chrétien de Troyes, 1987-09-10 The twelfth century French poet Chrétien de Troyes is a major figure in European literature. His courtly romances fathered the Arthurian tradition and influenced countless other poets in England as well as on the continent. Yet because of the difficulty of capturing his swift moving style in translation, English speaking audiences are largely unfamiliar with the pleasures of reading his poems. Now for the first time an experienced translator of medieval verse who is himself a poet provides a translation of Chrétien's major poem Yvain in verse that fully and satisfyingly captures the movement, the sense and the spirit of the Old French original. Yvain is a courtly romance with a moral tenor; it is ironic and sometimes bawdy; the poetry is crisp and vivid. In addition, the psychological and the socio-historical perceptions of the poem are of profound literary and historical importance for it evokes the emotions and the values of a flourishing vibrant medieval past.
