Daoist China: Governance, Economy, Culture Livia Kohn,2018 Traveling in China today and walking about in various cities it is easy to observe the continued unbridled construction of huge megalithic high rise complexes in vast stretches of the country complete with the untrammelled despoiling of nature and intensification of pollution as well as the ever increasing vibrancy of the Chinese people glued to their cell phones and actively connected online always moving about and hustling for yet another deal At the same time using the internet without a VPN and talking to academics at various universities it becomes obvious that there is a massive increase in repressive measures by the state the tightening of the intellectual control of both content and expression the fluctuating inaccessibility of information sources that used to be perfectly fine What the question arises is going on here Where China stands today and where is it headed from here And what in all of this is the role and place of Daoism These sixty vignettes on Daoist China present different aspects of life in China in each case describing the current situation and connecting it to the role and changing facets of Daoism today focusing in turn on dimensions of governance
