

The background is a dense, abstract painting. It features a dark, swirling, almost black central area that transitions into lighter, more textured regions of brown, tan, and blue. The overall composition is chaotic and layered, with various shapes and colors blending together. A prominent red rectangular area is superimposed in the center, containing white text.

Rapprochement Between Fathers and Sons Louis Rothschild,2023-11-23 Following Freud s rather cold conception of fathers and a relative neglect of their role in psychoanalytic theory is a challenge to continue more recent efforts to develop a psychoanalytically affirmative portrait of fatherhood Here fathers are attuned to relational mutuality and intimacy as a source of flourishing Rapprochement is understood as a sub phase of child development marked by a dramatic expression of conflict such as Hear me see me give me space don t give me space In addition rapprochement is considered to characterize conflicts between autonomy and dependency across the lifespan An often muted and subtle tension between holding and letting go persists Working with what is felt entails entering a never fully completed negotiation marked by misreadings bias and illusion Father is understood to be a name pointing to a parenting function With material that includes the grief of failed reunion particular stories are mediated through thinking alongside philosophy and psychoanalytic theory in order to further explore the difficulty of integrating nurturing capacities into conceptions of masculinity As a critique of gendered rigidity a case is made for a social surround that declares mutual vulnerability to exist in a state of permanent inquiry and relational curiosity Such openness can function to aid parents clinicians and respective community members to privilege the development of increased frustration tolerance By extension a good enough father is one who recognizes breakdown a need for refueling and possesses and practices a willingness to encounter uneven rhythms in human dimensions This thoughtful work brings fresh insight into the role of the father and masculinity and is essential reading for mental health professionals

The Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1895 Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest ,1897 Robert Mugabe and the Will to Power in an African Postcolony William J. Mpfu,2021-03-04 This book is a philosopher s view into the chaotic postcolony of Zimbabwe delving into Robert Mugabe s Will to Power The Will to Power refers to a spirited desire for power and overwhelming fear of powerlessness that Mugabe artfully concealed behind performances of invincibility Nietzsche s philosophical concept of the Will to Power is interpreted and expanded in this book to explain how a tyrant is produced and enabled and how he performs his tyranny Achille Mbembe s novel concept of the African postcolony is mobilised to locate Zimbabwe under Mugabe as a domain of the madness of power The book describes Mugabe s development from a vulnerable youth who was intoxicated with delusions of divine commission to a monstrous tyrant of the postcolony who mistook himself for a political messiah This account exposes how post political euphoria about independence from colonialism and the heroism of one leader can easily lead to the degeneration of leadership. However, this book is as much about bad leadership as it is about bad followership. Away from Eurocentric stereotypes where tyranny is isolated to African despots, this book shows how Mugabe is part of an extended family of tyrants of the world. He fought settler colonialism but failed to avoid being infected by it and eventually became a native coloniser to his own people. The book concludes that Zimbabwe faces not only a simple struggle for democracy and human rights but a Himalayan struggle for liberation from genocidal native colonialism that endures even after Robert Mugabe's dethronement and death.

American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw, 1929

Genre-Busting Dark Comedies of the 1970s Wes D. Gehring, 2016-03-29 This examination of dark comedies of the 1970s focuses on films which concealed black humor behind a misleading genre label. All That Jazz 1979 is a musical about death, hardly Fred and Ginger territory. This masking goes beyond misnomer to a breaking of formula that director Robert Altman called anti-genre. Altman's MASH 1970 ridiculed the military establishment in general, the Vietnam War in particular, under the guise of a standard military service comedy. The picaresque Western Little Big Man 1970 turned the bluecoats vs Indians formula upside down, the audience roots for the Indians instead of the cavalry. The book covers 12 essential films including Harold and Maude 1971, Slaughterhouse Five 1972, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest 1975, and Being There 1979, with notes on A Clockwork Orange 1971. These films reveal a compounding complexity that reinforces the absurdity at the heart of dark comedy.

From Native Son to King's Men Robert McParland, 2017-11-08 On the heels of the Great Depression and staring into the abyss of a global war, American writers took fiction and literature in a new direction that addressed the chaos that the nation and the world was facing. These authors spoke to the human condition in traumatic times, and their works reflected the dreams, aspirations, values, and hopes of people living in the World War II era. In From Native Son to King's Men: The Literary Landscape of 1940s America, Robert McParland examines notable works published throughout the decade Among the authors covered are James Baldwin Pearl S Buck James Gould Cozzens William Faulkner Ernest Hemingway John Hersey Norman Mailer Ann Petry Irwin Shaw John Steinbeck Robert Penn Warren Eudora Welty and Richard Wright McParland explores how popular novels literary fiction and even short stories by these authors represented this pivotal period in American culture By examining the creative output of these authors this book reveals how the literature of the 1940s not only offered a pathway for that era s readers but also provides a way of understanding the past and our own times From Native Son to King s Men will appeal to anyone interested in the cultural climate of the 1940s and how this period was depicted in American literature The Missionary Review ,1902
