The Word Of God Upon My Lips A Messenger Speaks:

The Word of God Upon My Lips Michael Olin Hitt, 2007 A Contemporary Prophet's Journey While praying in October 1998 I was literally knocked to the floor I was flooded with spiritual energy My body shook with tremors but my mind was perfectly clear I knew that something holy was entering me and I knew I had to surrender Like the prophets of old Ezekiel Jeremiah Daniel Michael Olin Hitt English professor and husband of a United Methodist minister fell into a trance and began to speak with the voice of a maggid or Messenger of the Holy Spirit The teachings that have poured forth since have enhanced our contemporary understanding of God in unexpected ways The Word of God Upon My Lips includes some of Michael Olin Hitt's personal story as well as many excerpts from actual conversations with The Messenger Taken from teachings that came forth when groups of spiritual seekers gathered to experience this mysterious holy Presence The Word of God Upon My Lips includes answers to some of the questions most troubling today's people of faith and nonbelievers alike The prophecies shine a new light of understanding on issues such as How do miraculous healings occur and why don't they always come about when we pray What really happened when God created the universe Is there an actual Heaven What is it What is the purpose of the soul What is Evil What actually happens when we pray Are these really the End Times Dr Michael Olin Hitt is Professor of English at Mount Union College in Alliance Ohio where he teaches creative writing and American Literature courses He is also founder of the Spiritual Quest Foundation with a mission to create forums in which the spiritually gifted can grow and share in the Spirit of God
