Trustworthy Connections Interpersonal Issues In Spiritual Direction:

Trustworthy Connections Anne Winchell Silver, 2003 Although God is at the center of the process of spiritual direction the more readily visible participants are human beings Like all other people directors and directees are subject to relationship dynamics Trustworthy Connections identifies some issues and challenges that can arise in spiritual direction relationships and offers resources for further consideration and reflection The topics and examples are focused on traditional one to one face to face spiritual direction although some are also relevant to group direction and direction by correspondence Trustworthy Connections is designed for use as a reference and a springboard for discussion for spiritual directors and anyone else who is interested in spiritual direction Like the process of spiritual direction itself this book is about asking questions discussing ideas and suggesting alternatives rather than giving advice or getting answers

Supervision of Spiritual Directors Mary Rose Bumpus, Rebecca Bradburn Langer, 2005-11 A collection of essays by prominent practitioners of an emerging field the supervision of spiritual directors This book explores a wide variety of issues including gender and sexuality ethical dilemmas working with diverse racial ethnic constituents working with the differently abled and the parameters of supervision

Enriching Ministry Michael Paterson, Jessica Rose, 2014-03-27 Enriching Ministry offers a more detailed and wide ranging overview of pastoral supervision and its relationship to other disciplines and fields of study It describes an approach to supervision which is theologically rich psychologically informed contextually sensitive and praxis based It is intended for those seeking support for their own ministries as well as for those who supervise in the areas of initial and continuing ministerial formation healthcare executive coaching spiritual direction The final chapters consider the professional development and training of supervisors This book is aimed at those in local ministry seeking training in supervision in the UK training incumbents team rectors superintendents etc healthcare chaplains who facilitate reflective practice or who offer in house supervision a requirement for UK based Band 6 jobs spiritual directors for whom there is not as yet any unified approach to training for pastoral supervision theological educators trying to meet the requirements of supervised placements Supervision Practitioners supervision training providers those in ministry seeking supervision bishops and church leaders looking for ways of getting beyond appraisal to non managerial ministerial and vocational reflection

The Living Church, 2004 Shared Imagination Mary Ann Archer, 2018-05-22 Using imagination in meditation can connect people to the Divine and to each other and can deepen the spiritual experiences of daily life Shared Imagination delves into that notion offering a creative and experiential channel to the Divine and describing the surprising ways this process can blossom in people's lives The work centers on personal stories of spiritual encounters as told with permission by the women and men who have entered the world of prayerful imagining These encounters or shared imaginations arose in a variety of settings individual and group meditation meetings recounted dreams shared spiritual experiences imaginative conversations with God letters written to holy people of the past and some mystical traveling conversations The stories illustrate the interlacing of an individual's imagination with that of the Divine Instructions on how to form and facilitate an imaginative meditation group are interspersed between the stories and detailed in three appendices Arising from author Mary Ann Archer's experiences as a professional musician and spiritual director this collection of personal spiritual narratives presents an exploration of the use of imagination in meditation for a clearer connection with the Divine

Challenges Faced by Iraq War Reservists and Their Families Ken J. Walden, 2012-09-05 The Iraq War caused emotional physical psychiatric relational and spiritual challenges to an untold number of military reservists and their families This book takes you through the war's critical stages of pre deployment deployment and post deployment Reservists families usually living far from military bases with professional staffing are often among the most affected wounded of the Iraq War Injured reservists often return home to discover that civilian medical resources are insufficient and civic organizations unequipped to help manage the range of combat related wounds and psychiatric trauma especially post traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury The lack of needed services causes alienation between reservists and their families in relation to the civilian communities in which they live Using a practical theological method this book analyzes the various impacts of the Iraq War and recommends a soul care approach for chaplains and pastors to use in support of reservists and their families suffering from their experiences of the Iraq War and to guide any persons interested in participating in such support American Book Publishing Record, 2004

Where You Go, I Shall Jane J. Parkerton, K Jeanne Person, Anne Winchell Silver, 2005-10-25 Where You Go I Shall is a book that was born of experience and need The authors two of whom are widows and the third an Episcopal priest were participants in a monthly support group for widows and discovered that many of the Bible's remarkable women Mary Ruth Naomi Abigail Anna Tamar Judith and some who are unnamed are widows In this book they tell and reflect upon the biblical stories offering background for greater understanding and the two authors who are themselves widows also reflect upon aspects of their own widowhood that relate to the biblical story The result is a book that will provide understanding and comfort not only for widows but for all who love care for and minister to individuals who have been widowed
