God's Book of Works R. J. Berry,2003-04-01 R J Berry writes as a professional biologist and as a Christian believer He contends that the interplay of science and faith requires continual re examination in the light of scientific developments with the consequent need to review religious assumptions To quote from his Preface Where science and faith meet they must be congruent if they are not both the science and the religion ought to be examined Religion cannot drive the content of science nor can science properly determine the nature of religion R J Berry s treatment differs from traditional work in science and religion in that he intentionally and explicitly extends his exploration of the implications of religious faith for contemporary science to environmental conservation or Creation care Professor Berry s expertise in this area is considerable as an ecologist who has long been involved in developing environmental ethics both locally and internationally He argues that the contribution of religious belief to environmental science is highly important not only in theoretical terms but also in practice This book does not assume extensive specialised background knowledge It will be of immense interest to anyone concerned with environmental problems scientists and religious believers exploring contemporary applications of religious faith

There Are Two Errors in the the Title of This Book, Revised and Expanded (Again) Robert M. Martin,2011-10-26 As this book richly and entertainingly demonstrates philosophy is as much the search for the right questions as it is the search for the right answers Robert M Martin s popular collection of philosophical puzzles paradoxes jokes and anecdotes is updated and expanded in this third edition with dozens of new entries

Tell Me a Story Robert J. Hater,2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother s death and its impact on him This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church pastors homilists catechetical leaders catechists and teachers parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories

Telling God's Story Preben Vang,Terry G. Carter,2021-02-01 Telling God s Story looks closely at the Bible from its beginning in Genesis to its conclusion in Revelation Updated to include notes on biblical theology and a new section on the intertestamental period this third edition of Telling God s Story is ideal for Christians seeking to grow in their understanding of God s word

The Book of Experience Emmanuel Falque,2023-12-28 Emmanuel Falque one of the foremost philosophers working in the continental philosophy of religion today takes us by the hand into the very heart of 12th century monastic spirituality Translated into English for the first time The Book of Experience weaves together contemporary phenomenological questions with medieval theology revealing undiscovered dialogues already underway between Hugh of St Victor and Maurice Merleau

Ponty between Richard of St Victor and Emmanuel Levinas between Aelred of Rievaulx and Michel Henry and not least between Bernard of Clairvaux and the trio of Descartes Heidegger and Jean Luc Marion consummating in a masterful phenomenological reading of Bernard's sermons on the Song of Songs Whether it is a question of the idea that comes to God Anselm of Canterbury or actively feeling oneself fully alive Aelred of Rievaulx or Bernard of Clairvaux Falque uses these encounters to shed light on both parties medieval and modern theological and philosophical Leading us through works of art landscapes architectures and liturgies this major contemporary philosopher of religion clarifies mysteries and discovers experience lying at the heart of the medieval tradition
