What Is History Eh Carr:

What is History? E. H. Carr, 2018-06-07 Not only one of our most distinguished historians but also one of the most valuable contributors to historical theory Spectator In formulating an answer to the question of What is History Carr argues that the facts of history are simply those which historians have chosen to focus on All historical facts come to us as a result of interpretive choices by historians influenced by the standards of their age Now for the first time in Penguin Modern Classics with an introduction by Richard J Evans author of the Third Reich trilogy What Is History? Edward Hallet Carr, 1967-10-12 Who is to say how things really were In formulating a modern answer to the question What is History Professor Carr shows that the facts of history are simply those which historians have selected for scrutiny Millions have crossed the Rubicon but the historians tell us that only Caesar's crossing was significant All historical facts come to us as a result of interpretative choices by historians influenced by the standards of their age Yet if absolute objectivity is impossible the role of the historian need in no way suffer nor does history lose its fascination With lucidity Carr casts a light on the proper function of the historian and the vital importance of history in modern society This is an admirably stimulating and intrepid book a bold excursion into a region of central importance where most contemporary philosophers and historians unaccountably either fear or disdain to tread Isaiah Berlin New Statesman What is History? Edward Hallett Carr, 1986

E.H.Carr: A Critical Appraisal M. Cox, 2016-04-30 E H Carr 1892 1982 was born into security but lived a life of controversy Attacked for appeasing both Hitler and Stalin he was not only one of the most productive writers of the Twentieth century but one of its most provocative as well In this book the first ever to deal critically but fairly with Carr's contribution to international relations Soviet Studies and the study of history sixteen internationally respected authors grapple with his complex intellectual legacy For those seriously interested in understanding the life and times of this most English of establishment radicals this is the place to begin E. H. Carr and International Relations Charles Jones, 1998-10 E H Carr is widely remembered as an influential theorist of international relations The scourge of inter war idealists he became the best known Briton in a generation of predominantly American political realists But Carr's realism differed greatly from that of his contemporaries a vigorous advocate of social and economic planning and friend of the Soviet Union he stood closer to Lenin than to Morgenthau In this book Charles Jones makes sense of Carr's distinctive form of realism by examining his rhetoric and the reciprocal relationship between theory and policy making in his writings Close attention is paid to the period from 1936 when Carr left the Foreign Office through his subsequent career as a one man foreign ministry at Aberystwyth the Ministry of Information and above all The Times culminating in the final frustration of his schemes for continued British world power in 1947 The Vices of Integrity Jonathan Haslam, 2000-11-17 In Edward Hallet Carr's definitive biography Jonathan Haslam paints a compelling portrait of a man torn between a vicarious identification with the romance of revolution and the ruthless realism of his own intellectual formation What is History

Now? D. Cannadine, 2002-07-05 E H Carr's What is History was originally published by Macmillan in 1961. Since then it has sold hundreds of thousands of copies throughout the world. In this book ten internationally renowned scholars writing from a range of historical vantage points answer Carr's question for a new generation of historians: What does it mean to study history at the start of the Twenty first century? This volume stands alongside Carr's classic paying tribute to his seminal enquiry while moving the debate into new territory to ensure its freshness and relevance for a new century of historical study.

On 'What Is History?' Keith Jenkins, 2005-07-25 Jenkins provides a student introduction to contemporary historiographical debates. Through its radical critique of Carr and Elton he embraces the postmodern type approaches of thinkers such as Richard Rorty and Hayden White. What is History? Michael Oakeshott, 2004 This is a collection of 30 pieces by Michael Oakeshott almost all of which are previously unpublished covering every decade of his intellectual career. The essays were intended mostly for lectures or seminars and retain an informal style that makes them accessible to readers.

What Is History, Now? Suzannah Lipscomb, Helen Carr, 2021-09-23 This groundbreaking new collection addresses the burning issue of how we interpret history today. What stories are told and by whom? Who should be celebrated and what rewritten? Are questions that have been asked recently not just within the history world but by all of us. Featuring a diverse mix of writers both bestselling names and emerging voices this is the history book we need NOW. WHAT IS HISTORY NOW covers topics such as the history of racism and anti racism, queer history, the history of faith, the history of disability, environmental history, escaping imperial nostalgia, hearing women's voices and rewriting the past. The list of contributors includes Justin Bengry, Leila K Blackbird, Emily Brand, Gus Casely Hayford, Sarah Churchwell, Caroline Dodds Pennock, Peter Frankopan, Bettany Hughes, Dan Hicks, Onyeka Nubia, Islam Issa, Maya Jasanoff, Rana Mitter, Charlotte Riley, Miri Rubin, Simon Schama, Alex von Tunzelmann and Jaipreet Virdi.
