Uncanny computer generated animations of splashing waves billowing smoke clouds and characters flowing hair have become a ubiquitous presence on screens of all types since the 1980s This Open Access book charts the history of these digital moving images and the software tools that make them Unpredictable Visual Effects uncovers an institutional and industrial history that saw media industries conducting more private R D as Cold War federal funding began to wane in the late 1980s In this context studios and media software companies took concepts used for studying and managing unpredictable systems like markets weather and fluids and turned them into tools for animation Unpredictable Visual Effects theorizes how these animations are part of a paradigm of control evident across society while at the same time exploring what they can teach us about the relationship between making and knowing Hollywood Heroines Laura L. S. Bauer,2018-12-07

This is a topical resource that provides a comprehensive look at the most influential women in Hollywood cinema across a wide range of occupations rarely found together in a single volume Unlike other anthologies Hollywood Heroines The Most Influential Women in Film History is a hybrid of film history and industry information with an exclusive focus on prominent women This reference work includes more commonly discussed categories of important women in Hollywood film history such as directors and actresses and reaches beyond them to encompass women working as cinematographers casting directors studio heads musical composers and visual and special effects supervisors Dive into interviews with industry legends such as Sherry Lansing the first woman to run major Hollywood studios like 20th Century Fox and Paramount Studios Jodie Foster acclaimed actress and director Zo Bell renowned stuntwoman Donna Gigliotti Academy Award winning producer Vicky

Jenson animation director of Shrek Ve Neill makeup artist behind The Hunger Games and Pirates of the Caribbean and a host of other influential women in visual effects editing casting costume cinematography and sound each of whom has left their mark in film history The wide range of filmmaking crafts covered in the book provides an acute view of the industry and increases the visibility of and quality of representation for women working in Hollywood By bringing the experience of these influential women to light Hollywood Heroines joins a growing movement that endeavors to dismantle harmful long standing industry myths that perpetuate the systemic underrepresentation of women and the devaluation of women s stories in the Hollywood film industry

The Film Handbook Mark de Valk, Sarah Arnold, 2013-05-02 The Film Handbook examines the current state of filmmaking and how film language technique and aesthetics are being utilised for today s digital film productions It reflects on how critical analysis of film underpins practice and story and how developing an autonomous vision will best aid student creativity The Film Handbook offers practical guidance on a range of traditional and independent guerrilla film production methods from developing script ideas and the logistics of planning the shoot to cinematography sound and directing practices Film professionals share advice of their creative and practical experiences shooting both on digital and film forms The Film Handbook relates theory to the filmmaking process and includes documentary narrative and experimental forms including deliberations on reading the screen genre mise en sc ne montage and sound design new technologies of film production and independent distribution digital and multi film formats utilised for indie filmmakers and professional dramas sound design and music the short film form theories of transgressive and independent guerrilla filmmaking the avant garde and experimental as a means of creative expression preparing to work in the film industry development of specialisms as director producer cinematographer editor and the presentation of creative work

Media Heterotopias Hye Jean Chung, 2018-02-22 In Media Heterotopias Hye Jean Chung challenges the widespread tendency among audiences and critics to disregard the material conditions of digital film production Drawing on interviews with directors producers special effects supervisors and other film industry workers Chung traces how the rhetorical and visual emphasis on seamless masks the social political and economic realities of global filmmaking and digital labor In films such as Avatar 2009 Interstellar 2014 and The Host 2006 which combine live action footage with CGI to create new hybrid environments filmmaking techniques and seamless digital effects allow the globally dispersed labor involved to go unnoticed by audiences Chung adapts Foucault s notion of heterotopic spaces to foreground this labor and to theorize cinematic space as a textured multilayered assemblage in which filmmaking occurs in transnational collaborations that depend upon the global movement of bodies resources images and commodities Acknowledging cinema s increasingly digitized and globalized workflow Chung reconnects digitally constructed and composited imagery with the reality of production spaces and laboring bodies to highlight the political social ethical and aesthetic stakes in recognizing the materiality of collaborative filmmaking

Editing and Special/Visual Effects Charlie Keil, Kristen Whissel, 2016-08-26 Most moviegoers think of editing and special effects as distinct components of the filmmaking process We might even conceive of them as polar opposites since effective film editing is often subtle and almost invisible whereas special effects frequently call attention to themselves Yet film editors and visual effects artists have worked hand in hand from the dawn of cinema to the present day Editing and Special Visual Effects brings together a diverse range of film scholars who trace how the arts of editing and effects have evolved in tandem Collectively the contributors demonstrate how these two crafts have been integral to cinematic history starting with the trick films of the early silent era which astounded audiences by splicing in or editing out key frames all the way up to cutting edge effects technologies and concealed edits used to create the illusions Throughout readers learn about a variety of filmmaking techniques from classic Hollywood's rear projection and matte shots to the fast cuts and wall to wall CGI of the contemporary blockbuster In addition to providing a rich historical overview Editing and Special Visual Effects supplies multiple perspectives on these twinned crafts introducing readers to the analog and digital tools used in each craft showing the impact of changes in the film industry and giving the reader a new appreciation for the processes of artistic collaboration they involve

Humans at Work in the Digital Age Shawna Ross, Andrew Pilsch, 2019-12-05 Humans at Work in the Digital Age explores the roots of twenty first century cultures of digital textual labor mapping the diverse physical and cognitive acts involved and recovering the invisible workers and work that support digital technologies Drawing on 14 case studies organized around four sites of work this book shows how definitions of labor have been influenced by the digital technologies that employees use to produce interpret or process text Incorporating methodology and theory from a range of disciplines and highlighting labor issues related to topics as diverse as census tabulation market research electronic games digital archives and 3D modeling contributors uncover the roles played by race class gender sexuality and national politics in determining how narratives of digital labor are constructed and erased Because each chapter is centered on the human cost of digital technologies however it is individual people immersed in cultures of technology who are the focus of the volume rather than the technologies themselves Humans at Work in the Digital Age shows how humanistic inquiry can be a valuable tool in the emerging conversation surrounding digital textual labor As such this book will be essential reading for academics and postgraduate students engaged in the study of digital humanities human computer interaction digital culture and social justice race class gender and sexuality in digital realms the economics of the internet and technology in higher education
