The Weight Of Your Words:

The Weight of Your Words Joseph M. Stowell, 1998-03-09 Sticks and stones will break my bones but names will never hurt me This lie has been taught to children for years We claim it strengthens them Allows them to let the harsh words of other children roll off their backs But the truth is that words have power Power to encourage Power to heal But also power to intimidate power to scourge and power to wound How are you using the power of words What we say has both spiritual and physical implications Revelation 21:8 tells us that liars have their place in the Lake of Fire And we all have seen the devastation wreaked by rumors on innocent reputations Yet with the same intensity kind words can soothe a broken spirit and restore shattered relationships Your words also say a lot about you Jesus said For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks Matthew 12:34 If our hearts are not in tune with God neither will be our words In The Weight of Your Words Joseph Stowell shares the truth about the tongue straight from the Bible God's Word to His people He challenges us to not allow our mouths to be controlled by our anger or our circumstances but rather to be controlled by the Holy Spirit and His work in our lives Take inventory of your words and your heart attitude with Joseph Stowell in The Weight of Your Words

Don't Use Your Words! Jane Juffer, 2019-05-28 How children are taught to control their feelings and how they resist this emotional management through cultural production Today even young kids talk to each other across social media by referencing memes songs and movements constructing a common vernacular that resists parental educational and media imperatives to name their feelings and thus control their bodies Over the past two decades children's television programming has provided a therapeutic site for the processing of emotions such as anger but in doing so has enforced normative structures of feeling that Jane Juffer argues weaken the intensity and range of children's affective experiences Don't Use Your Words seeks to challenge those norms highlighting the ways that kids express their feelings through cultural productions including drawings fan art memes YouTube videos dance moves and conversations while gaming online Focusing on kids between ages five and nine Don't Use Your Words situates these productions in specific contexts including immigration policy referenced in drawings by Central American children just released from detention centers and electoral politics as contested in kids artwork expressing their anger at Trump's victory Taking issue with the mainstream tendency to speak on behalf of children Juffer argues that kids have the agency to answer for themselves what does it feel like to be a kid Choosing Your Words, Crafting Your Life Jean A.
