The wisdom of the desert : sayings from the desert fathers of the fourth century Thomas Merton (1915-1968 trans), 1960 The Wisdom of the Desert, 1970 An Altar in the World Barbara Brown Taylor, 2017-03-31 In this highly acclaimed and lyrical modern classic bestselling author Barbara Brown Taylor reveals the countless ways we can discover divine depths in the small things we do and see every day While people will often go to extraordinary lengths in search of a spiritual experience she shows that the stuff of our everyday lives is a holy ground where we can encounter God at every turn For her as for Jacob in the Genesis story even barren empty deserts can become the house of God and the gate of heaven places where a ladder of angels connects heaven to earth and earth to heaven An Altar in the World reveals concrete ways to discover the sacred in such ordinary occurrences as hanging out the washing doing the supermarket shop feeding an animal or losing our way It will transform our understanding of ourselves and the world we live in and renew our sense of wonder at the extraordinary gift of life Thomas Merton Michael W. Higgins, 2014 People of God is a brand new series of inspiring biographies for the general reader Each volume offers a compelling and honest narrative of the life of an important twentieth or twenty first century Catholic Some living and some now deceased each of these women and men have known challenges and weaknesses familiar to most of us but responded to them in ways that call us to our own forms of heroism Each of them offers a credible and concrete witness of faith hope and love to people of our own day Thomas Merton was the consummate post modern holy one flawed anti institutional a voice for the voiceless But he was also a classical traditionalist centered obedient in search of stability He was a religious thinker of remarkable insight a social commentator of courage and conviction and a writer of startling virtuosity Michael W Higgins recounts the life of this insatiable wanderer He explores the various layers of influence and evolution in Merton's thought and spirituality This book tells the remarkable story of a life that remains to be understood from its beginnings and long after its premature ending For the Time Being Richard Quinney, 1998-08-27 Through the sharing of one man's life and photographs this ethnography of human existence covers religion philosophy literature the environment visual arts music drama literary criticism sociology and the psychology of self

The Blue Sapphire of the Mind Douglas E. Christie, 2013 In The Blue Sapphire of the Mind Douglas E. Christie Shaping the Journey Daniel Ethan Harris, 2025-08-21 How do the theological impulses of evangelical pietism and contemplative monasticism converge in the modern spiritual formation movement Shaping the Journey brings John Wesley and Thomas Merton into critical dialogue examining their distinct yet complementary contributions to Christian spirituality With Wesleyan evangelicalism as a thesis and Mertonian monasticism as antithesis this study argues that the spiritual formation movement represents a meaningful synthesis of these traditions Central to this synthesis is the work of M Robert Mulholland Jr whose integrative vision of spiritual formation clearly reflects the influences of Wesley and Merton and the evangelical and monastic traditions they represent Engaging history theology and spirituality this work offers a vital resource for understanding the roots and trajectory of Christian spiritual formation Thomas Merton James Thomas Baker, 2021-12-14 Thomas Merton Social Critic organizes and critically analyzes the social thought of the Cistercian monk who has become an internationally known symbol of the spiritual element in man The author evaluated all of Merton's writings published and unpublished then discussed his interpretations with Merton personally The result is a perceptive relation of Merton's social thought to its genesis in his own life experiences and contemplation a faithful rendering of Merton's thought on the problems of our time Merton the author makes clear called for a spiritual social and religious union It was a poetic and sometimes unimplemented solution to alienation and division a valid and authentic if at times limited response to the contemporary chaos This study will be greeted by a strong reaction from Mertonians everywhere Finding the Monk Within Edward C. Sellner, 2008 Finding the Monk Within is written with the conviction that lying deep within every person and underlying much of contemporary western and eastern cultures is an ancient memory a vital archetypal energy related to monasticism and its spirituality This book recovers that monastic memory the living presence of the past for those who desire to name and incorporate monastic values values of solitude and silence faith and compassion friendship and mentoring contemplation and leadership itself The author examines the social and religious dimensions in the fourth century that gave rise to monasticism then looks at Christian leaders from late antiquity to the medieval period associated with monasticism in both East and West who have much to teach about monastic values and their relevance for today among them Antony the first monk Augustine and Jerome John Cassian Brigit of Kildare and early Celtic monasticism Gregory the Great Benedict and Scholastica and finally Bernard of Clairvaux By studying the history of monasticism and its great heroes we come to realize that for the Christian much of what we call monastic is purely and simply what being a follower of Christ is all about and that being a monk whether inside monastic enclosures or outside in the world is simply becoming the sort of person everyone ought to be a person who unites action and contemplation in the care of souls writes the author By becoming familiar with the stories and thought of these inspirational figures readers will be inspired to incorporate monastic perspectives and values into their own lives Holy Fools Mathew Woodley, 2008-05-01 Pastor Woodley offers a fresh view of holy folly an ancient spiritual approach that combines humor irony spiritual discipline surprise radical compassion and passionate faith many qualities that the postmodern world hungers for Practical Life The House is Burning - How to Get Out Alive! Dr. Meath Conlan, 2013-09-11 A new book by author Meath Conlan PhD takes select teachings of a modern day Buddhist Master and reveals how common ground of inter spiritual wisdom can be found between his aphorisms or sayings and teachings of the Desert Elders from the early Christian centuries 250 AD to Late Roman Antiquity Khejok Tulku Rinpoche is one of the diminishing numbers of old teachers in the Tibetan Tradition Born in the 1930s he is regarded as an incarnation of a renowned lama from the 5th Dalai Lama's time As a boy he was recognised and installed as Abbot of the second oldest monastery in the Gelugpa tradition of Tibetan Buddhism Dhe Tsang Monastery in Eastern Tibet Khejok Rinpoche crossed the Himalayas and eventually came to Australia in 1986 He established centres dedicated to the learning and practice of Buddhism in the Gelug lineage Meath Conlan a student and friend of the late Dom Bede Griffiths met Rinpoche in 1988 The two men have become firm friends having travelled together to Christian and Buddhist Monasteries in Tibet India Nepal and Australia Throughout the book original drawings taken from the author's field notebooks while traveling Tibet and Nepal will add interest to the readings contained in this book Foreword by H H The Dalai Lama Agents of uncertainty John Danvers, 2012-01-01 Through an analysis of many different examples Danvers articulates a new way of thinking about mysticism and scepticism not as opposite poles of the philosophical spectrum but as two fields of enquiry with overlapping aims and methods Prompted by a deep sense of wonder at being alive many mystics and sceptics like the Buddha practice disciplines of doubt in order to become free of attachment to fixed appearances essences and viewpoints and in doing so they find peace and equanimity They develop ways of living with impermanence and the unexpected by letting go of adherence to dogmatic beliefs and by suspending judgement In common with many artists and poets they act as agents of uncertainty actively disturbing the routines and habits of day to day thought and behaviour in order to demonstrate how to maintain a sense of balance and spontaneity in the midst of life's difficulties Topics explored include being and self as process mysticism and language scepticism and dogmatism Buddhism interdependence and emptiness Daoism and impermanence dialectics of doubt in art and poetry Written in a lively and accessible style accompanied by drawings and photographs by the author this volume is aimed at scholars artists teachers and anyone interested in philosophy religion art poetry and ways of being

Thomas Merton and the Inclusive Imagination Ross Labrie, 2001 Thomas Merton 1915 1968 was a Roman Catholic priest a Trappist monk a social activist and a poet Author of the celebrated autobiography The Seven Storey Mountain Merton has been described as the most important American religious writer of the past hundred years One of the notable characteristics of Merton's writing both in poetry and in prose was his seamless intermingling of religious and Romantic elements an intermingling that because of his gifts as a writer and because of his enormous influence has had the effect of making widespread a distinctive form of religious thought and expression In Thomas Merton and the Inclusive Imagination

Ross Labrie reveals the breadth of Merton's intellectual reach by taking an original and systematic look at Merton's thought which is generally regarded as eclectic and unsystematic Choosing to Love the World Thomas Merton, 2015-11-30 Amid the noise and distractions of everyday life is it really possible to choose to love the world In these times of great uncertainty and anxiety how can we find God Thomas Merton felt the urgency of these questions more than 50 years ago and his reflections upon them are more relevant than ever One of America's most beloved mystics of the 20th century Merton's voice was prophetic in the troubled era of the 1960s In this new collection of thoughts and meditations selected from his most inspiring books and letters Merton's radiant wisdom and foresight serve as a beacon of light for all of us searching to find true meaning and solace in today's difficult times Father Louis as he was known at the Abbey of Gethsemani fully embraced the contemplative life of a monk yet he never held the world at arm's length We and our world interpenetrate It is only in assuming full responsibility for our world for our lives and for ourselves that we can be said to live really for God Sharply honest in his words but balanced by his poet's heart Merton explores themes that include the inner ground of love living in wisdom and dialoguing with silence He teaches that contemplation is possible for everyone and that the fundamental context for seeking God's presence is always our everyday lives In the deep silence wisdom begins to sing her unending sunlit inexpressible song the private song she speaks to the solitary soul In Choosing to Love the World Thomas Merton inspires us to look deep within ourselves and in the peaceful silence of contemplation to find and sing our own song Edited by Jonathan Montaldo associate director of The Merton Institute for Contemplative Living and director of Bethany Spring the Merton Institute retreat center in Trappist Kentucky Reading the Christian Spiritual Classics Jamin Goggin, Kyle C. Based on over twenty years of research and spiritual practice this is a groundbreaking and life changing book In his decades of study Dr Roger Walsh has discovered that each of the great spiritual traditions has both a common goal and seven common practices to reach that goal recognizing the sacred and divine that exist both within and around us Filled with stories exercises meditations myths prayers and practical advice Essential Spirituality shows how you can integrate these seven principles into one truly rewarding way of life in which kindness love joy peace vision wisdom and generosity become an ever growing part of everything you do Christian Spirituality Karen E.
