Grand Finales Susan Gubar, 2025-06-10 One of our most formidable literary critics explores how nine women artists flourished creatively in their final acts In 2008 academic and scholar Susan Gubar was told by a trusted oncologist that she had only a few years left to live Though she outlived that dire prognosis this brush with mortality refocused her attention on the boons of a longevity she did not expect to experience She began to think In the last years of our lives can we shape and change our creative capabilities The resulting volume Grand Finales answers this question with a resounding yes Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O'Keeffe Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age

Just Vibrations William Cheng, 2016-08-11 Modern academic criticism bursts with what Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick once termed paranoid readings interpretative feats that aim to prove a point persuade an audience and subtly denigrate anyone who disagrees Driven by strategies of negation and suspicion such rhetoric tends to drown out softer spoken reparative efforts which forego forceful argument in favor of ruminations on pleasure love sentiment reform care and accessibility Just Vibrations: The Purpose of Sounding Good calls for a time out in our serious games of critical exchange Charting the divergent paths of paranoid and reparative affects through illness narratives academic work queer life noise pollution sonic torture and other touchy subjects William Cheng exposes a host of stubborn norms in our daily orientations toward scholarship self and sound How we choose to think about the perpetration and tolerance of critical and acoustic offenses may ultimately lead us down avenues of ethical ruin or if we choose repair With recourse to experimental rhetoric interdisciplinary discretion and the playful wisdoms of childhood Cheng contends that reparative attitudes toward music and musicology can serve as barometers of better worlds
