
Mitch Albom: Making Each Moment Matter

Directions: While you are watching the speech, answer the following questions.

1. Why had Mitch not spoken to Momie in 18 years? He was too busy chasing his dreams and sticking up a perfect life.
2. How did that first visit to see Momie impact Mitch? He saw that Momie was happy and he wasn't. He wanted to learn how to start to make himself happy.
3. How were all of Momie's visits with his friends the same? They went in with a positive outlook and came out crying. They came to comfort him, but he wound up helping them instead.
4. Mitch asks Momie about all of the visits. He asks why Momie doesn't just accept the sympathy of others. How does Momie respond? He says, "Why would I ever take from people like that? Taking makes me feel like I'm dying. Giving makes me feel like I'm living."
5. What special request does Momie make of Mitch? He wants Mitch to visit his grave, stick around for awhile, and talk about his problems.
6. Fill in the blank: "After I'm dead, you _____ and I'll listen."
"After I'm dead, you talk and I'll listen."
7. Why did Mitch write the book? It was supposed to help Momie pay for his medical bills.
8. How do Mitch and Momie believe people can live on after they are gone? They can give love to others while they are alive so that others will be able to hear them still when they are gone. They can invest in relationships.
9. Fill in the blank: "One thing you have that makes you distinctly you is your _____ and you have to give it away." "One thing you have that makes you distinctly you is your voice and you have to give it away."

Teaching Death and Dying Christopher M Moreman,2008-10-03 The academic study of death rose to prominence during the 1960s Courses on some aspect of death and dying can now be found at most institutions of higher learning These courses tend to stress the psycho social aspects of grief and bereavement however ignoring the religious elements inherent to the subject This collection is the first to address the teaching of courses on death and dying from a religious studies perspective

Critical Literacy Approach to English as a Foreign Language Nizar Kamal Ibrahim,2022-06-13 This book discusses how to approach critical literacy in English as a Foreign Language EFL contexts It responds to the concerns of educators who get enthusiastic about teaching critical literacy but become perplexed when they start reading about its theories This causes some to avoid it altogether and leads others to argue for practicing it without theory The book argues that both positions should be reconsidered and capitalizes on the notion of praxis a notion introduced by Freire to explicate the various subtle connections between theory and practice The book instills the theoretical assumptions of critical literacy with as little jargon as possible with many practical illustrations It will be of interest to graduate and undergraduate students language teachers program and material developers researchers and educational policy makers Teaching History in an Uncivilized World Philip Bigler,2012-10-15 Teaching History in an Uncivilized World is the latest book by National Teacher of the Year Philip Bigler It is a fascinating chronicle of his 23 year odyssey as a high school history and humanities teacher Widely recognized for his innovative and exciting methods Bigler explains how as a novice teacher he discovered the power of using historical simulations to motivate students and to help them become active participants in their own learning These inspiring lessons proved highly effective in teaching important curricular content as President Bill Clinton would later acknowledge Through these historic simulations his students have learned lessons about democracy and the meaning of citizenship lessons we want every American to know Despite Bigler s success as a history teacher he was laid off twice early in his career due to school budgetary crises Growing frustrated and increasingly disillusioned Bigler eventually quit teaching and during this three year hiatus he received an advanced degree at the College of William and Mary and served as an Army historian at Arlington National Cemetery It was while working at Arlington that Bigler discovered that he missed the daily excitement of teaching history as well as the interaction with his students In 1985 he returned to the high school classroom a far wiser and better educator At BCC and McLean High Schools Bigler taught a variety of history courses and was actively involved in implementing the latest computer technology into his instruction As the yearbook advisor at McLean he aggressively upgraded the publication s limited computer resources and introduced the editors and staff to desktop publishing Widely respected by both staff and students Philip Bigler was twice selected by the McLean High School senior class as their most influential teacher and was chosen as the school s Teacher of the Year in 1996 In order to pursue his avid interest in the potential of educational technology to improve student learning Bigler transferred to Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology in the fall of 1996 There he was selected as the Fairfax County and the Virginia Teacher of the Year In 1998 Philip Bigler was named the National Teacher of the Year by President Bill Clinton who remarked We need more teachers like Philip Bigler in every classroom in America today for it is they who can make our schools the best in the world As the National Teacher of the Year Bigler was granted a one year sabbatical and traveled extensively speaking to various educational groups and organizations about the importance of teaching He persuasively argues that Civilization begins anew with each child and that if we fail to teach and educate our young people we are just one generation removed from barbarism Bigler advocates for a return of academic rigor to our nation s classrooms and the need for strong content standards Bigler has appeared as a featured guest on The Late Show with David Letterman Nightline and the History Channel Teaching History in an Uncivilized World is an essential book for all of those interested in improving the quality of American education It is highly readable and contains numerous useful appendices for history teachers The book is supported by a regularly updated website where additional educational resources and lesson plans are available E-Portfolios in Higher Education Tushar Chaudhuri,Béatrice Cabau,2017-03-30 This book shares the collective experience of integrating electronic portfolios as assessment tools and as instruments for life long learning in courses across various disciplines in higher education It enables readers to trace the evolution of e portfolios over the last ten years and to deal with the challenges faced by instructors and students when implementing e portfolios in their respective courses Further the book suggests flexible ways of dealing with those challenges It also highlights the relevance of electronic portfolios for the needs and demands of contemporary societies As such it speaks to a large target audience from a range of disciplines roles and geographical contexts within the wider context of higher education in Asia and around the globe Sociological Re-Imaginations in & of Universities Mohammad H. Tamdgidi,2009-06-01 This Summer 2009 VII 3 issue of Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is devoted to the theme Sociological Re Imaginations in of Universities As part of the journal s continuing series critically engaging with C Wright Mills sociological imagination i e the proposition that the best way to theorize and practice sociology is via a continual conversation between the study of one s personal troubles and that of broader public issues the present issue turns its attention to fostering sociological re imaginations in and of universities Several faculty recent graduates or alumni and current undergraduate students advance insightful critical perspectives about their own learning and teaching experiences and personal troubles and broader university disciplinary and administrative public issues that in their view merit immediate attention in favor of fundamental rectifications of outdated procedures and educational habits that continue to persist at the cost of more creative and in fact more scientific and rational approaches to production and dissemination of knowledge Contributors include Satoshi Ikeda Sandra J Song L Lynda Harling Stalker Jason Pridmore Festus Ikeotuonye Samuel Zalanga Donald A Nielsen Anne Bubriski Penelope Roode Belle Summer E M Walsh Ann Marie Moler Minxing Zheng Andrew Messing Jillian Pelletier Christine Quinn Trevor Doherty Lisa Kemmerer and Mohammad H Tamdgidi also as journal editor in chief Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is a publication of OKCIR The Omar Khayyam Center for Integrative Research in Utopia Mysticism and Science Utopistics For more information about OKCIR and other issues in its journal s Edited Collection as well as Monograph and Translation series visit OKCIR s homepage
