What Do I Say About That:

What Do I Say? Linda N. Edelstein, Charles A. Waehler, 2011-05-12 The must have guide to honestly and sensitively answering your clients questions Written to help therapists view their clients questions as collaborative elements of clinical work What Do I Say explores the questions some direct others unspoken that all therapists at one time or another will encounter from clients Authors and practicing therapists Linda Edelstein and Charles Waehler take a thought provoking look at how answers to clients questions shape a therapeutic climate of expression that encourages personal discovery and growth Strategically arranged in a question and answer format for ease of use this hands on guide is conversational in tone and filled with personal examples from experienced therapists on twenty three hot button topics including religion sex money and boundaries What Do I Say tackles actual client questions such as Can you help me Chapter 1 The Early Sessions Sorry I am late Can we have extra time Chapter 9 Boundaries I don t believe in all this therapy crap What do you think about that Chapter 3 Therapeutic Process Why is change so hard Chapter 4 Expectations About Change Will you attend my graduation wedding musical performance speech business grand opening Chapter 20 Out of the Office Where are you going on vacation Chapter 10 Personal Questions I gave your name to a friend Will you see her Chapter 9 Boundaries Should I pray about my problems Chapter 12 Religion and Spirituality Are you like all those other liberals who believe gay people have equal rights Chapter 13 Prejudice The power of therapy lies in the freedom it offers clients to discuss anything and everything It s not surprising then that clients will surprise therapists with their experiences and sometimes with the questions they ask What Do I Say reveals how these questions no matter how difficult or uncomfortable can be used to support the therapeutic process rather than derail the therapist client relationship

What do I say next? Everyday Mental Health Conversations in Primary Care Sophie Jadwiga Ball, Liz Moulton, 2024-08-30 A significant problem experienced by some GPs and many trainees and other primary care health professionals is the challenge of completing a useful and safe consultation with patients with mental health problems within the constraints of a standard length appointment These challenges may arise from a lack of specific expertise in this area poor training in the relevant skills and perhaps the attitude that there is not much that the primary care practitioner can do to help This new book focuses on enhancing the repertoire of communication skills available for mental health consultation providing a range of tools and techniques drawn from accepted models including cognitive behavioural therapy CBT transactional analysis TA motivational interviewing and acceptance commitment therapy ACT illustrating how to apply these within a typical 10 to 12 minute primary care consultation Key features enhances the repertoire of communication and consultation skills for primary care practitioners working in mental health consultations summaries and quick take home points aid rapid reference in the time constrained consultation setting whether in person or virtual offers worked through model consultations with a variety of patients showing how to apply the tools and techniques described demonstrates how such consultations can be completed safely and effectively within a normal consultation time
