unSpun Brooks Jackson, Kathleen Hall Jamieson, 2007-04-24 The founders of FactCheck.org teach you how to identify and debunk spin hype and fake news in this essential guide to informed citizenship in an age of misinformation Americans are bombarded daily with mixed messages half truths misleading statements and out and out fabrications masquerading as facts The news media is often too intimidated too partisan or too overworked to keep up with these deceptions unSpun is the secret decoder ring for the twenty first century world of disinformation Written by Brooks Jackson and Kathleen Hall Jamieson the founders of the acclaimed website FactCheck.org unSpun reveals the secrets of separating facts from disinformation such as the warning signs of spin common tricks used to deceive the public how to find trustworthy and objective sources of information Telling fact from fiction shouldn't be a difficult task With this book and a healthy dose of skepticism anyone can cut through the haze of political deception and biased reporting to become a savvy more responsible citizen Praise for unSpun Read this book and you will not go unarmed into the political wars ahead of us Jackson and Jamieson equip us to be our own truth squad and that just might be the salvation of democracy Bill Moyers The definitive BS detector an absolutely invaluable guidebook Mark Shields syndicated columnist and political analyst NewsHour with Jim Lehrer unSpun is an essential guide to cutting through the political fog Mara Liasson NPR national political correspondent The Internet may be a wildly effective means of communication and an invaluable source of knowledge but it has also become a new virtual haven for scammers financial political even personal Better than anything written before unSpun shows us how to recognize these scams and protect ourselves from them Craig Newmark founder and customer service representative Craigslist Critical Media Literacy and Fake News in Post-Truth America Christian Z. Goering, Paul L. Thomas, 2018-04-16 This edited collection is not a response to the 2016 United States Presidential Election so much as it is a response to the issues highlighted through that single event and since when incredibly smart sophisticated and intelligent members of our society were confused by misinformation campaigns While media literacy and critical media literacy are ideas with long histories in formal education including K 12 students and higher education the need for increased attention to these issues has never reached a flash point like the present The essays collected here are confrontations of post truth fake news mainstream media and traditional approaches to formal schooling But there are no simple answers or quick fixes Critical media literacy we argue here may well be the only thing between a free people and their freedom Real World Research Skills Peggy Garvin, 2009 Real World Research Skills compiles basic advice techniques reference information and resources to help working professionals find accurate information quickly particularly information from the federal government

Fake News and Alternative Facts Nicole A. Cooke, 2018-12-03 Talk of so called fake news what it is and what it isn't is front and center across the media landscape with new calls for the public to acquire appropriate research and evaluation skills and become more information savvy But none of this is new for librarians and information professionals particularly for those who teach information literacy Cooke a Library Journal Mover discover techniques to identify fake news especially online and explore methods to help library patrons of all ages think critically about information teaching them ways to separate fact from fiction Information literacy is a key skill for all news consumers and this Special Report shows how librarians can make a difference by helping patrons identify misinformation

How to Win the War on Truth Samuel C. Spitale, 2022-10-25 Made to Stick by Chip Heath meets Thing Explainer by Randall Munroe in this illustrated guide to navigating today's post truth landscape filled with real world examples of disinformation campaigns The average person receives 4 000 to 10 000 media messages a day It's no wonder we struggle to separate the news from the noise and fact from fiction but in these unprecedented times it's essential to democracy that we do For anyone struggling to figure out how to live and vote their values How to Win the War on Truth is here to help You'll learn The history of propaganda from Edward Bernays to Fox News Why simple messages are so powerful How social messaging creates unconscious biases Who profits from propaganda How propaganda is manufactured and delivered directly to you Filled with real world examples of disinformation campaigns that impact every citizen and clever illustration How to Win the War on Truth will help you see the world with clear eyes for the first time

The Publishers Weekly, 2007 Saskatchewan Law Review, 2010 Global Citizens Mark Gerzon, 2010 We are all aware of the number of global problems that need to be solved in order to save the future of the world finance the environment and terrorism to name a few But as the author of this stimulating and practical book makes clear it is not enough for us to wait for governments and international companies to sort things out We all have to realise our global common ground amidst differences everywhere in our lives both at home and at work locally and abroad At the moment we are putting forward piecemeal solutions from the standpoint of each country when we really need to start seeing ourselves as citizens of the world he author Mark Gerzon is perfectly placed to explain this important new step which we all need to take He travels the globe lecturing consulting and training on the one hand showing Chinese politicians how to change their mindsets and on the other encouraging the world's top think tanks to work together and to sharpen four key skills witnessing learning connecting and partnering Only when we have all truly become global citizens does he believe we will start to solve the many crises facing our world

American Book Publishing Record , 2007 Beyond Fake News Justin P. McBrayer, 2020 The world is swimming in misinformation Conflicting messages bombard us every day with news on everything from politics and world events to investments and alternative health The daily paper nightly news websites and social media each compete for our attention and each often insist on a different version of the facts Inevitably we have questions Who is telling the truth How would we know How did we get here What can we do Beyond Fake News answers these and other queries It offers a technological and market based explanation for how our informational environment became so polluted It shows how purveyors of news often have incentives to mislead us and how consumers of information often have incentives to be misled And it chronicles how as technology improves and the regulatory burdens drop our information scape becomes ever more littered with misinformation Beyond Fake News argues that even when we really want the truth our minds are built in such a way so as to be incapable of grasping many facts and blind spots mar our view of the world But we can do better both as individuals and as a society As individuals we can improve the accuracy of our understanding of the world by knowing who to trust and recognizing our limitations And as a society we can take important steps to reduce the quantity and effects of misinformation
