This book is dedicated to all those people who want to be more, do more, and have more than they ever thought possible in their lives. To those people who need to believe in themselves, their skills, and their abilities, this book is for you. This book is also dedicated to the person who needs encouragement to move from procrastination to productivity. This book was born of my personal desire to Live an Unstoppable Life on my own terms and to teach others how to do the same. I have been blessed to meet amazing people I have had the chance to talk to and be around, ordinary people who are doing extraordinary things to live their life on the next level. I have learned these 11 key attributes by watching them, studying them, and doing the things they did to get to the places they only once dreamed of. I thank all of my mentors, coaches, and colleagues that assisted me on this journey to completing this book. I thank all my naysayers and haters that gave up on me and thought I would never finish this book. I thank all of my past failures for pushing me to have greater success.
