University Of Limpopo Application Forms:

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen's capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capability scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capability scholars practitioners and policy makers

Business Discourse Francesca Bargiela-Chiappini, Catherine Nickerson, B. Planken, 2013-07-25 This second edition reviews the field of business discourse centring on the investigation of business language and communication as practice It combines research based discussions with innovative practical applications and promotes debate and enquiry on a range of competing issues emerging from business discourse research and teaching practice

Rural Transitions to Higher Education in South Africa Sue Timmis, Thea de Wet, Kibashini Naidoo, Sheila Trahar, Lisa Lucas, Emmanuel Mfanafuthi Mqgwashu, Patricia Muhuro, Gina Wisker, 2021-09-14 This unique and timely book focuses on research conducted into the experiences of students from rural backgrounds in South Africa foregrounding decolonial perspectives on their negotiation of access and transitions to higher education This book highlights not only the challenges of coming from a rural background against the historical backdrop of apartheid and ongoing colonialism but also shows the immense assets that students from rural areas bring into higher education Through detailed narratives created by student co researchers the book charts early experiences in rural communities negotiations of transitions to university and in many cases to urban life and students subsequent journeys through higher education spaces and curricula The book will be of significant interest and value to those engaged in rurality research across diverse settings those interested in the South African higher education context and higher education more widely Its innovative participatory methodology will be invaluable to researchers seeking to conduct collaborative research that draws on decolonising approaches Report of the Annual Meeting of the South African Association for the Advancement of Science ,2005

Social Work in Social Change Nicci Earle,2008 This study forms part of a series of studies on professions and professional education being conducted by the HSRC s research programme on Education Science Skills Development It follows a pilot study on medical doctors published in 2006 entitled Doctors in a Divided Society The profession and education of medical practitioners in South Africa Like the other studies in the series this study involved developing an understanding of the professional milieu and professional labour market of social workers As the implementers of government social policy social work professionals have been at the forefront of grappling with the practicalities of the changes in focus approach and methods of social security and social service delivery since 1994 It examines developments in the education and training of social workers within the democratic dispensation the most significant of which is the development of a national standardised Bachelor of Social Work degree The study also reveals that the dominant profile in student enrolment and graduation statistics has changed from white female to African female and that enrolment has increased significantly However the study also shows that graduation trends have been negative and losses due to emigration are an additional concern Given the scarcity of these professionals against the demand for their services understanding the factors that contribute to this picture are critical to effective intervention

Disability and Social Change Brian Watermeyer,2006 This powerful volume represents the broadest engagement with disability issues in South Africa yet Themes include theoretical approaches to and representations of disability governmental and civil society responses to disability issues aspects of education as these pertain to the oppression liberation of disabled people social security for disabled people the complex politics permeating service provision relationships and a consideration of disability in relation to human spaces physical economic and philosophical Firmly located within the social model of disability this collection resonates powerfully with contemporary thinking and research in the disability field and sets a new benchmark for cutting edge debates in a transforming South Africa
