Unraveling Reweaving Africana Womanhood Feminist:

A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo, 2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women's political participation. The author's primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng's concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism. It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women's oppression. The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual's life, a salient principle of Christian ethics, and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures. This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity. Using a sophiological hermeneutic, this in-depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism. It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio-political ethic. The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching. The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians, postcolonial theorists, inculturation theology, African males, and Jon Sobrino's liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology.

Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in Africana Womanhood Rose Mary Amenga-Etego, Rosetta E. Ross, 2015-12-15 In this collection, continental and diasporan African women interrogate the concept sacred text and analyze ways oral and written religious texts intersect with violence against African descended women and girls. While the sanctioned idea of a sacred text is written literature, this project interrupts that conception by drawing attention to speech and other embodied practices that have sacral authority within the social imaginary. As a volume focused on religion and violence, essays in this collection analyze religions' authorization of violence against women and girls, contest the legitimacy of some religious texts, and affirm other writing, especially memoir, as redemptive. Unraveling and Reweaving Sacred Canon in Africana Womanhood arises from three years of conversation of continental and diasporan women, most recently continued in the July 6-10, 2014 Consultation of African and African Diasporan Women in Religion and Theology, and privileges experiences and contexts of continental and diasporan African women and girls. Interlocutors include African traditionalists, Christian Protestants and Catholics, Muslims, and women embodying hybrid practices of these and other traditions.

Minoritized Women Reading Race and Ethnicity Mitzi J. Smith, Jin Young Choi, 2020-09-24 Nonwhite women primarily appear as marginalized voices if at all in volumes that address constructions of race ethnicity and early Christian texts Employing an intersectional approach the contributors analyze historical cultural literary and ideological constructions of racial ethnic identities which intersect with gender sexuality class religion slavery and or power Given their small numbers in academic biblical studies this book represents a critical mass of nonwhite women scholars and offers a critique of dominant knowledge production Filling a significant epistemological gap this seminal text provides provocative innovative and critical insights into constructions of race ethnicity in ancient and modern texts and contexts

Religion, Women of Color, and the Suffrage Movement Simon Mary Asese A. Ahiokhai, 2024-04-08 The year 2020 marks the centenary of the passing of the 19th Amendment that allowed for women in the United States to vote The strategic struggle of women demanding equal dignity and the right to vote in the United States helped to shed light on the systemic evils that have plagued the collective history of the country Ideologies of racism genderism classism and many more were and continue to be used to deny women their dignities both in the United States and in other parts of the world This work sheds light on the intersectionality of religion class gender philosophy theology and culture as they shape the experiences of women especially women of color A fundamental question that this volume aims to address is What does it mean to be a woman of color in a world where systems of erasure dominate The title of this volume is meant to showcase a deliberate engagement with the uncelebrated insights and perspectives of women of color in a world where systemic discrimination persists and to articulate new strategies and paradigms for recognizing their contributions to the broader struggles for freedom and equity of women in our world

Africana Womanism Clenora Hudson (Weems), 2019-10-02 First published in 1993 this is a new edition of the classic text in which Clenora Hudson Weems sets out a paradigm for women of African descent Examining the status struggles and experiences of the Africana woman forced into exile in Europe Latin America the United States or at Home in Africa the theory outlines the experience of Africana women as unique and separate from that of some other women of color and of course from white women Differentiating itself from the problematic theories of Western feminisms Africana Womanism allows an establishment of cultural identity and relationship directly to ancestry and land This new edition includes five new chapters as well as an evolution of the classic Africana womanist paradigm to that of Africana Melanated Womanism It shows how race class and gender must be prioritized in the fight against every day racial dominance Africana Womanism Reclaiming Ourselves offers a new term and paradigm for women of African descent A family centered concept prioritizing race class and gender it offers eighteen features of the Africana womanist self namer self definer family centered genuine in sisterhood strong in concert with male in the liberation struggle whole authentic flexible role player respected recognized spiritual male compatible respectful of elders adaptable ambitious mothering nurturing applying them to characters in novels by Hurston B Marshall Morrison and McMillan It evolves from Africana Womanism to Africana Melanated Womanism This is an important work and essential reading for researchers and students in women and gender studies Africana studies African American studies literary studies and cultural studies particularly with the emergence of family centrality community and collective engagement the very cornerstone of Africana Womanism since its inception Elevating Humanity via Africana Womanism Clenora Hudson (Weems),2024-12-17 Elevating Humanity via Africana Womanism is a short but powerful book advocating synergy via unity collectivity as a panacea for all societal ills It discusses the Africana Womanism theory an authentic family centered concept for all women of African descent as a grid upon which to erect the private and public personae of all positive Africana people Within the context of our cultural and historical matrix it opens with defining the paradigm while promoting the importance of prioritizing race class and gender the triple plight of Black women A workable strategy for ensuring equality for all it closes on a note of love and spirituality while embracing the special connection between Africana men and women the 2 sided human coin This introduction logically and convincingly speaks truth to power about who we Black women are beginning in Part One with naming and defining ourselves with the foreknowledge of the seminal role of our male counterparts It identifies the 18 descriptors of the true Africana woman and her male counterpart Part Two offers fruitful commentary via sharing some of the many contributions we have given to society which could enhance self esteem among our people many of whom have come to not love themselves and even their own due to inadequate historical documentation

Africana Womanist Literary Theory Clenora Hudson-Weems,2004 By placing Africana womanism an evolutionary Africana paradigm within a literary context this book expands the layered meanings of this family centered race based theory and applies them to the works and ideas of renowned international literary figures such as Toni Morrison Paula Marshall and Buchi Emecheta Rediscoursing African Womanhood in the Search for Sustainable Renaissance Itai Muwati,2012
