Us Food Policy Anthropology And Advocacy In The Public Interest:

U.S. Food Policy Lisa Markowitz, John Brett, 2013-09-13 Inequity of control over food systems is a particularly insidious form of injustice Collectively the contributors to this volume posit that this inequity is rooted in power asymmetries in the U S food system and codified through U S food policies This process puts the public at risk in the U S and via trade and foreign aid policies in the Global South Inequities are manifest in the allocation of food and food producing resources in favor of the wealthy exploitation of the natural environment for short term gain of private interests over long term public ones the framing of public discussion on food and food deprivation and finally the deflection of moral challenges posed by human rights to food The contributors draw on long term anthropological field research to examine these tensions and their on the ground outcomes in diverse cultural and national contexts The authors insightful analyses span a wide variety of topics including dietary change food insecurity livestock production and organic farming in the light of U S trade food labor and agricultural policies and food assistance programs The collection highlights the obstacles to and the dilemmas and inconsistencies in shaping policy in the public interest This book was originally published as a special issue of Food Foodways

Reimagining Marginalized Foods Elizabeth Finnis, 2012-04-01 This volume brings together ethnographically based anthropological analyses of shifting meanings and representations associated with the foods ingredients and cooking practices of marginalized and or indigenous cultures Contributors are particularly interested in how these foods intersect with politics nationhood and governance identity authenticity and conservation The chapters cover diverse locales issues and foods A conceptual essay on food and social boundaries rounds out the collection Throughout the contributors address important questions and provide a thoughtful inquiry into what happens when food and culinary practices are moved from cultural physical margins and how such movements can be shaped by and employed in the pursuit of political social and cultural goals Book Jacket Food Chains: Quality, Safety and Efficiency in a Challenging World George

Baourakis, Prodromos Kalaitzis, Konstadinos Mattas, 2014-01-02 Food Chains Quality Safety and Efficiency in a Challenging World addresses the many issues facing European food producers and other food chain stakeholders who endeavour to improve their competitive position in a highly competitive world food market The Food Chain is one of the main economic pillars in Europe providing employment and opportunities for economic development in rural areas It is therefore imperative to continuously monitor the changes that affect the sector in order to allow stakeholders to respond promptly and effectively to the new market conditions Adjusting to the new market involves new technology globalization demographic and social changes within a challenging market environment In order to adopt these new market parameters food chain stakeholders need to adapt their activities in order to gain in terms of effectiveness and efficiency This book was originally published as a special issue of Food Economics Acta Agricultura Scandinavica Section C States of Discipline Cemal Burak

Tansel, 2017-02-08 Despite the severity of the global economic crisis and the widespread aversion towards austerity policies neoliberalism remains the dominant mode of economic governance in the world What makes neoliberalism such a resilient mode of economic and political governance How does neoliberalism effectively reproduce itself in the face of popular opposition States of Discipline offers an answer to these questions by highlighting the ways in which today's neoliberalism reinforces and relies upon coercive practices that marginalize discipline and control social groups Such practices range from the development of market oriented policies through legal and administrative reforms at the local and national level to the coercive apparatuses of the state that repress the social forces that oppose various aspects of neoliberalization The book argues that these practices are built on the pre-existing infrastructure of neoliberal governance which strive towards limiting the spaces of popular resistance through a set of administrative legal and coercive mechanisms Exploring a range of case studies from across the world the book uses authoritarian neoliberalism as a conceptual prism to shed light on the institutionalization and employment of state practices that invalidate public input and silence popular resistance

The Andean World Linda J. Seligmann, Kathleen S. Fine-Dare, 2018-11-08 This comprehensive reference offers an authoritative overview of Andean lifeways It provides valuable historical context and demonstrates the relevance of learning about the Andes in light of contemporary events and debates The volume covers the ecology and pre-Columbian history of the region and addresses key themes such as cosmology aesthetics gender and household relations modes of economic production exchange and consumption postcolonial legacies identities political organization and movements and transnational interconnections With over 40 essays by expert contributors that highlight the breadth and depth of Andean worlds this is an essential resource for students and scholars alike

Global Mountain Regions Ann Kingsolver, Sasikumar Balasundaram, 2018-09-01 No matter where they are located in the world communities living in mountain regions have shared experiences defined in large part by contradictions These communities often face social and economic marginalization despite providing the lumber coal minerals tea and tobacco that have fueled the growth of nations for centuries They are perceived as remote and socially inferior backwaters on one hand while simultaneously seen as culturally rich and spiritually sacred spaces on the other These contradictions become even more fraught as environmental changes and political strains place added pressure on these mountain communities Shifting national borders and changes to watersheds forests and natural resources play an increasingly important role as nations respond to the needs of a global economy The works in this volume consider multiple nations languages generations and religions in their exploration of upland communities responses to the unique challenges and opportunities they share From paintings to digital mapping environmental studies to poetry land reclamation efforts to song lyrics the collection provides a truly interdisciplinary and global study The editors and authors offer a cross-cultural exploration of the many strategies that mountain communities are employing to face the concerns of the future
