Directions: Read the main ideas for sections JCE and JCE Chapter 2 • Sections 2 of the documents summarize the statements with the words included in the column titled answers. Therefore the Summary 2 reflects the main answers the questions in the question provided.

A. Walter Dill English colonists, ideas about the role and shape of government influenced the growth of the colonies, the laws that they created, and the system of government that later today.

1. John, Charters, customs and traditions from British lawmakers are important contributions to the founding principles and development of the United States.

2. The principle that a government system should absolutely derive from the Magna Carta, which the English people have long regarded as a guarantee of British, government.

3. The English Bill of Rights, and other documents that increasingly and consistently established the concept applied to them and gave them the same rights as people living in Britain.

4. The English system of law, especially as organized by the British Parliament, was widely followed in the colonies.

5. British Parliament, with delegates representing the people, was a familiar example of representative government, but they criticized it.

6. Thomas Hooker developed the Social, Contract, theory, which suggested that people give up their individual sovereignty to the government in exchange for the government's maintenance of law and order.

7. John Locke believed that people have natural, rights, as human beings and a government that failed to protect them has lost its legitimacy.

8. James Madison called man, rights, liberty, freedom, rights, freedom that people have and he emphasized that any people in a community were automatically accepted as equal without the power of their rights under existing laws and government.

9. Charles Louis de Montesquieu suggested separation, the powers of government.

10. Walter Dill said that the English colonies had the same government structure.
