Schools of Opportunity Adam York,Kevin Welner,Linda Molner Kelley,2023 The National Education Policy Center s Schools of Opportunity project was designed to highlight public high schools that are using research based practices for closing opportunity gaps in student learning The project recognizes schools that are working to address the needs of all students regardless of their zip codes or their school s average test scores By embracing a shift away from the nation s myopic focus on standardized test scores the program s focus is on inputs access to equitable exemplary policies and practices that students experience every school day not outcomes This follows from research findings that schools alone cannot fix the problems created by the stark inequalities in our society Instead schools should be expected to do their part by responding to inequities with research based practices The book features case studies of schools that demonstrate key criteria that other schools can emulate such as an inclusive school climate support for language minority students performance based assessment teacher professionalism a commitment to detracking and supports for students in need Schools of Opportunity builds an argument for shifting the way that excellent public high schools are recognized and built

Book Features Provides accounts of school reform jointly told by researcher practitioner teams connecting current research with successful efforts of educators to create outstanding learning environments Brings together the voices of principals and school leaders who share stories of how their work has unfolded in their school district and state contexts Identifies the school leadership and teacher practices that close opportunity gaps for student learning and what it takes to implement them Contributors Dwane Chapelle Janet Eckerson Lourenco Garcia Matt Garcia Kristen Goessling Kimberly Grayson Jill Gurtner Ted Hamann Ann Ishimaru Mark Larson Julie Mead John Murphy Jeannie Oakes Jeff Palladino Derek Pierce Jenifer Rayne Kellie Rolstad Lorrie Shepard Kate Somerville Michelle Valladares Kathryn Wiley Teaching History with Big Ideas S. G. Grant, Jill M. Gradwell, 2010-07-16 In the case studies that make up the bulk of this book middle and high school history teachers describe the decisions and plans and the problems and possibilities they encountered as they ratcheted up their instruction through the use of big ideas Framing a teaching unit around a question such as Why don't we know anything about Africa offers both teacher and students opportunities to explore historical actors ideas and events in ways both rich and engaging Such an approach exemplifies the construct of ambitious teaching whereby teachers demonstrate their ability to marry their deep knowledge of subject matter students and the school context in ways that fundamentally challenge the claim that history is boring The Key to Understanding U.
