The Things They Carried Quotes:

The Things They Carried Tim O'Brien, 1990 One of the first questions people ask about The Things They Carried is this Is it a novel or a collection of short stories The title page refers to the book simply as a work of fiction defying the conscientious reader's need to categorize this masterpiece It is both a collection of interrelated short pieces which ultimately reads with the dramatic force and tension of a novel Yet each one of the twenty-two short pieces is written with such care emotional content and prosaic precision that it could stand on its own The Things They Carried depicts the men of Alpha Company Jimmy Cross Henry Dobbins Rat Kiley Mitchell Sanders Norman Bowker Kiowa and of course the character Tim O'Brien who has survived his tour in Vietnam to become a father and writer at the age of forty-three They battle the enemy or maybe more the idea of the enemy and occasionally each other In their relationships we see their isolation and loneliness their rage and fear They miss their families their girlfriends and buddies they miss the lives they left back home Yet they find sympathy and kindness for strangers the old man who leads them unscathed through the mine field the girl who grieves while she dances and love for each other because in Vietnam they are the only family they have We hear the voices of the men and build images upon their dialogue The way they tell stories about others we hear them telling stories about themselves With the creative verve of the greatest fiction and the intimacy of a searing autobiography The Things They Carried is a testament to the men who risked their lives in America's most controversial war It is also a mirror held up to the frailty of humanity Ultimately The Things They Carried and its myriad protagonists call to order the courage determination and luck we all need to survive In 1979 Tim O'Brien's Going After Cacciato a novel about the Vietnam War won the National Book Award In this his second work of fiction about Vietnam O'Brien's unique artistic vision is again clearly demonstrated Neither a novel nor a short story collection it is an arc of fictional episodes taking place in the childhoods of its characters in the jungles of Vietnam and back home in America two decades later

Below Freezing shows us how the disparate elements of our lives collect to construct our deepest selves and help us to make sense of it all Anderson layers his personal experiences and reflections with those of others who have wrestled with inner and outer social cultural and political memories that are not as accurate as history might suggest but that each of us believe nonetheless He challenges the reader's sense of memory and fact downplaying the latter in explaining how each of us crafts our own personal histories As Anderson weaves his voice among numerous other voices and ideas that rest upon other ideas we are faced with larger issues of human existence war memory trauma mortality religion fear joy ugliness and occasional beauty What we have here is a meditation on living in America We are shown how the world we consume becomes us as we metabolize it How we as humans through our own fragments of memories influences and experiences become our true selves By charting fragments of thoughts over a lifetime Anderson exposes a way of thinking and perceiving the world that is refreshingly intuitive and desperately needed Fragments of a Mortal Mind is a powerful masterpiece that closely resembles our lived experiences and is a vivid reflection of our time
