Rabbat, 2017-07-05 The courtyard house is one of the most enduring architectural forms transcending regional historical and cultural boundaries Its balance of simple appropriate construction environmental control and social and familial structures continues to engage architects and architectural historians That the courtyard house is still relevant today is indicated through its ability to accommodate continual transformation without losing any of its formal integrity and cultural roots This book presents a series of viewpoints on courtyard houses from different periods and in different regions around the world from the Harem courtyards of the Topkapi Palace and the low cost housing settlements of Protectorate Casablanca to contemporary design strategies for courtyard houses in the arid Gulf region Together the essays illuminate issues of particular relevance in architectural art historical and conservation discourses today The Tarikh-i Hamidi Musa Sayrami, 2023-07-25 The Tarikh i amidi is an epic and tragic history from the region of Xinjiang in northwest China the homeland of the Muslim majority Uyghur people Written in the early twentieth century it chronicles a mass rebellion by the Muslims of Xinjiang against the China based Qing empire from its beginnings in 1864 to the Qing reconquest of 1877 and its aftermath Its author Musa Sayrami was an eyewitness to and participant in the rebellion and he later became a servant to the state that arose from it an emirate led by the Central Asian military commander Ya qub Beg Sayrami documents the optimism of the rebellion s early days when local Muslims rose up to demand justice as well as the tragedies that resulted from its leaders hubris Ya qub Beg s state offered hope for Islamic rule but he turned out to be a flawed ruler and the Qing reconquered the region The narrative alternates dramatic scenes of battles and intrigue with colorful legends and reflections on the nature of politics Sayrami wrote not only to record events being lost from memory three decades after the uprising but also to account for why the Islamic rebellion had failed He draws on traditional Islamic scholarship to analyze the relationship between Qing and Islamic power developing an incisive argument about politics and empire Presenting a distinctly Uyghur perspective on China Eurasia and the world the Tarikh i amidi is at once an invaluable lens on a period of flux and a cornerstone of Uyghur writing The Persian Album, 1400-1600 David J. Roxburgh, 2005-01-01 This groundbreaking book examines portable art collections assembled in the courts of Greater Iran in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Made for members of the royal families or ruling elites albums were created to preserve and display art yet they were conceptualized in different ways David Roxburgh a leading expert on Persian albums and the art of the book discusses this diversity and demonstrates convincingly that to look at the practice of album making is to open a vista to a culture of thought about the Persian art tradition The book considers the album s formal and physical properties assembly and content as well as the viewer s experience Focusing on seven albums created during the Timurid and Safavid dynasties Roxburgh reconstructs the history and development of this codex form and uses the works of art to explore notions of how art and aesthetics were conceived in Persian court culture Generously illustrated with over 175 images many rare and previously unpublished the book offers a range of new insights into Persian visual culture as well as Islamic art history Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an

Studies in the Islamic Decorative Arts Robert Hillenbrand, 2019-12-31 Islamic artists channelled their energies not into easel painting and large scale sculpture but rather into what Western scholars obeying a very different hierarchy of art forms rather disparagingly term the decorative arts or even the minor arts In point of fact some of the greatest masterpieces of Islamic art are in the media of ceramics metalwork textiles ivory and glass Often the images they bear express a complex set of meanings for Islam inherited much material from the iconographic systems of earlier civilizations notably those of the ancient Near East and of the classical world Islam also developed its own distinctive vocabulary of signs and symbols Accordingly questions of iconography and meaning bulk large among the studies gathered together in the present volume These studies written over a period of almost thirty years and taken from a wide variety of published sources deal with aspects of the decorative arts from Spain to India and from the 7th to the 17th century They focus in turn upon ceramics and metalwork on coins carpets and calligraphy and on carving in wood and ivory They are arranged under three headings The first comprises general surveys of the field covering the content of these arts and confronting the challenges they present such as the Islamic approach to three dimensional sculpture The second deals with questions of iconography and meaning while the third comprises a series of studies devoted to specific media such as ivory woodwork and numismatics This volume therefore offers not only a general introduction to some of the problems posed by Islamic art but also readings of key objects in an attempt to explore their meaning and finally an in depth focus on individual objects representing specific genres and media

Islamic Arms and Armor in The Metropolitan Museum of Art David G. Alexander, 2015-12-31 Armor and weaponry were central to Islamic culture not only as a means of conquest and the spread of the faith but also as symbols of status wealth and power The finest arms were made by master craftsmen working with the leading designers goldsmiths and jewelers whose work transformed utilitarian military equipment into courtly works of art This book reveals the diversity and artistic quality of one of the most important and encyclopedic collections of its kind in the West The Metropolitan Museum's holdings span ten centuries and include representative pieces from almost every Islamic culture from Spain to the Caucasus The collection includes rare early works among them the oldest documented Islamic sword and is rich in helmets and body armor decorated with calligraphy and arabesques that were worn in Iran and Anatolia in the late fifteenth century Other masterpieces include a jeweled short sword yatagan with a blade of watered steel that comes from the court of Sleyman the Magnificent a seventeenth century gold inlaid armor associated with Shah Jahan and two gold inlaid flintlock firearms belonging to the guard of Tipu Sultan of Mysore Presenting 126 objects each handsomely photographed and richly documented with a detailed description and discussion of its technical historical and artistic importance this overview of the Met's holdings is supplemented by an introductory essay on the formation of the collection and appendixes on iconography and on Turkman style armor

Constantinople Philip Mansel, 2011-11-10 Philip Mansel's highly acclaimed history absorbingly charts the interaction between the vibrantly cosmopolitan capital of Constantinople the city of the world's desire and its ruling family In 1453 Mehmed the Conqueror entered Constantinople on a white horse beginning an Ottoman love affair with the city that lasted until 1924 when the last Caliph hurriedly left on the Orient Express For almost five centuries Constantinople with its enormous racial and cultural diversity was the centre of the dramatic and often depraved story of an extraordinary dynasty
