The Touch Of The Past Remembrance Learning And Ethics:

The Touch of the Past R. Simon, 2016-04-30 In Roger Simon's new collection based on ten years of research the respected scholar reminds us that historically traumatic events simultaneously summon forgetting and remembrance in unique ways. The Touch of the Past explores the ways in which remembrance consciousness and history affect how students learn and educators teach. Simon examines how testimonies of historic events influence learning and how communities deal with collective memory. A serious contribution to the research in education and memory and trauma studies from a top philosopher in the field.

Testimony and Trauma Cristina Santos, Adriana Spahr, Tracy Crowe Morey, 2019-03-19 This book offers a collection of reflective essays on current testimonial production by researchers and practitioners working in multifaceted fields such as art and film performance public memorialization scriptotherapy and fictional and non fictional testimony. The interdisciplinary approach to the question of testimony offers a current account of testimony's diversity in the twenty first century as well as its relevance within the fields of art storytelling trauma and activism. The range of topics engage with questions of genre and modes of representation ethical and political concerns of testimony and the flaws and limitations of testimonial production giving testament to some of the ethical concerns of our present age. Contributors are Alison Atkinson Phillips Olga Bezhanova Melissa Burchard Mateusz Chaberski Candace Couse Tracy Crowe Morey Marwa Sayed Hanafy Rachel Joy Emma Kelly Timothy Long Elizabeth Matheson Antonio Prado del Santo Christine Ramsay Cristina Santos and Adriana Spahr.

Memory and Pedagogy Claudia Mitchell, Teresa Strong-Wilson, Kathleen Pithouse, Susann Allnutt, 2010-12-14 Memory work the conscious remembering and study of individual and shared memories is increasingly being acknowledged as a key pedagogical tool in working with children. Giving students opportunities and support to remember and study their selves as individuals and as communities allows them to see their future as something that belongs to them and that they can influence in some way for the better. This edited volume brings together essays from scholars who are studying the interconnections between pedagogy and memory in the context of social themes and social inquiry within educational research. The book provides a range of perspectives on the social and pedagogical relevance of memory studies to the educational arena in relation to the themes of memory and method revisiting childhood memory and place addressing political conflict sexuality and embodiment and inter generational studies.

The Witness as Object Steffi de Jong, 2018-01-31 Today more than ever before the historical witness is now a museum object in the form of video interviews with individuals remembering events of historical importance. Such video testimonies now not only are part of the collections and research activities of museums but become deeply intertwined with narrative and exhibit design. With a focus on Holocaust museums this study scrutinizes for the first time this new global process of musealisation of testimony exploring the processes prerequisites and consequences of the transformation of video testimonies into exhibits.

Indigenous Legal Traditions Law Commission of Canada, 2008-01-01 Although Indigenous peoples had their own systems of law based on their social political and spiritual traditions under colonialism their legal systems have often been ignored or overruled by non Indigenous laws Today however these legal traditions are being reinvigorated and recognized as vital for the preservation of the political autonomy of Aboriginal nations and the development of healthy communities The essays in this book present important perspectives on the role of Indigenous legal traditions in reclaiming and preserving the autonomy of Aboriginal communities and in reconciling the relationship between these communities and Canadian governments Contributors include Andr e Lajoie Minnawaanagogiizhigook Dawnis Kennedy Ghislain Otis Ted Palys and Wenona Victor Paulette Regan and Perry Shawana Common threads linking the essays include the relationship between Indigenous and Canadian legal orders the importance of Indigenous legal traditions for Aboriginal communities autonomy and the ways in which these traditions might be recognized and given space in the Canadian legal landscape In its examination of different aspects of and models for the recognition of Indigenous legal orders this book addresses important issues relating to legal pluralism It will be of interest to a wide audience including lawyers and legal academics teachers students policy makers and members of Aboriginal communities highlight the youth work policies in Belgium Flanders Germany England Poland Malta France and Finland Remembering Women Murdered by Men Cultural Memory Group,2006 Women are murdered by men every day yet these acts of femicide barely make the news Across Canada there are over fifty memorials to women who have been murdered Each one tells at least two stories the terrible one of unrelenting violence against women and the triumphant one of women claiming public space naming the violence and insisting that society remember This book is the first to record thirty of these and in so doing names the women remembered and the circumstances of their deaths The authors document the feminist community's response and the initiative taken to build memorials along with the official attempts to keep them out of public view The memorials documented include those in Vancouver Calgary Edmonton Winnipeg The Pas Toronto Montreal London Ottawa and Moncton Remembering Women Murdered by Men features the voices of memorial makers and the struggle of bringing public attention to the issue of femicide It inspires all of us to speak out Visit the companion website The Global Women's Studies in Curriculum Claudia Eppert,Hongyu Wang,2008 This volume broadens the horizon of educational research in North America by introducing a comprehensive dialogue between Eastern and Western philosophies and perspectives on the subject of curriculum theory and practice It is a very timely work in light of the progressively globalized nature of education and educational studies and the increasingly widespread attunement to Eastern educational theories in the West By introducing Eastern perspectives this book questions taken for granted thinking in Western educational thought about the foundations of teaching and learning curriculum theory educational policy and educational issues such as teaching for social justice service learning initiatives human rights and environmental education and the teaching of content area subjects It provides an important opportunity for scholars from different countries and different disciplines to establish a solid yet accessible foundation of East West inquiry that furthers the scope and depth of curriculum studies and to disseminate the insights from this book in the venues in which they work Researchers faculty and graduate students in the fields of curriculum theory curriculum and instruction educational foundations philosophy of education international comparative education and multicultural educational studies will welcome this book It is appropriate as a text for upper level courses in these areas

Democracy in Crisis Stella Gaon, 2009 This volume explores the political implications of violence and alterity radical difference for the very practice of democracy and reformulates the possibility of community that democracy is said to imply Most significantly contributors intervene in traditional democratic theory by boldly contesting the widely held assumption that increased inclusion tolerance and cultural recognition are democracy's sufficient conditions Rather than simply inquiring how best to expand the demos they investigate how claims to self determination identity and sovereignty are a problem for democracy and how paradoxically alterity may be its greatest strength Drawing largely on the Left continental tradition contributions include an appeal to the tension between fear and love in the face of anti-Semitism in Poland an injunction to rethink the identity difference binary that dominates liberal democratic thought a critique of the canonical democratic we and a call for an ethics and a politics of dissensus in democratic struggles against racist and sexist oppression The authors thus mobilize some of the most powerful critical insights emerging across the social sciences and humanities from anthropology critical legal studies critical race theory and post colonial studies Marxism psychoanalysis social and political thought philosophy and sociology to reconsider the meaning and possibility of democracy in the face of its contemporary crisis The book directly appeals to students and scholars interested in cutting edge critical reflection on the empirical phenomenon of increased violence in the West provoked by radical difference and on the possibility of radical political theoretical critique
