Reproductive Rights in Modern France Maud Anne Bracke, 2025-07-09 The introduction of the principle of women s reproductive liberty in France tentatively by the family planning movement after 1960 and explicitly by the women s liberation movement after 1970 marked a deep shift transforming public discourses Yet this principle remained fiercely contested and moderate and conservative actors responded by foregrounding notions of reproductive responsibility or the expectation that individuals perform the right sexual and family making behaviour benefiting not only themselves and their families but the nation at large Such responsabilisation underpinned the legal reforms of the 1960s 70s framing a notion of reproductive citizenship based on a tension between individual rights and social norms This book breaks new ground by taking an intersectional approach to the defining moments of this period the legalisation of contraception the laws of 1967 and 1974 and the liberalisation of abortion 1975 1979 Drawing on a wide range of sources and actors including feminist and family planning movements government actors demographers medical professional organisations disability rights groups and key actors in the overseas departments Maud Bracke demonstrates how the discourse of responsabilisation allowed actors to distinguish between citizens worthy of reproductive rights and those seen as less worthy Bracke analyses the distinct regulations regarding contraception in the overseas departments of Guadeloupe and Martinique framed by racialised anti natalism The book also demonstrates that disability rights organisations contributed to the discrediting of the notion of eugenic abortion used among experts and policy makers until the early 1970s Furthermore Bracke goes on to highlight the silence in the feminist movement around both disability rights and race as part of its universalisation of women s conditions of oppression and analyses the emergence of Black Feminism in late 1970s France In so doing the book offers a major contribution to the history of sex gender family life healthcare demography and political debate in post war France and more generally

Immigrant Narratives in Contemporary France Susan Ireland, Patrice J. Proulx, 2001-04-30 The first comprehensive survey of its kind in English this book examines the experience of immigration as represented by authors who moved to France from the Caribbean the Maghreb sub Saharan Africa and Asia after World War II Essays by expert contributors address the literary productions of different ethnic groups while taking into account generational differences and the effects of class and gender The focus on immigration a subject which has moved to the center of many sensitive social and political debates raises questions related to cultural hybridity identity politics border writing and the status of minority literature within the traditional literary canon all of which constitute vital areas of research in literary cultural and historical studies today Included are broad socio historical chapters on general topics related to immigration along with chapters providing detailed readings of specific texts and authors A key objective of the book is to consider the ways in which literary texts by authors of immigrant origin explore what it means to be French and how these works shape debates about French national and cultural identity The contributors discuss such issues as cultural hybridity linguistic identity and the textualization and theorization of otherness

A History of Modern France Jeremy D. Popkin, 2020-02-14 A History of Modern France offers a framework to understand modern French history through a survey of the dramatic events that have punctuated its history from the eighteenth century to the present day Covering events such as the French Revolution the two World Wars and the more recent election of Emmanuel Macron and the yellow vest movement the book takes a balanced approach to the competing interpretations of modern France inspired by its history This edition has been thoroughly updated to incorporate the most recent scholarship on topics including French imperial history and the empire s postcolonial legacy the history of women and gender and the French experience of World War I A new section extends the narrative into mid 2019 and additional emphasis has been given to the role of historical memory in the making of French identity Taking a chronological approach the book is approachable for students and provides a clear and understandable picture of the history of modern France Supported by further reading that has been updated to include the most recent publications the book is the ideal introduction to the history of modern France for students of this fascinating country Modern France: A Very Short

Introduction Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2011-10-03 A lively and informative short volume that shows that France is not a faded glory but rather a place that has defined and shaped the key issues of our contemporary world such as democracy and universal human rights the emergence of a culture of consumerist spectacle the tensions between nationalism and contemporary multiculturalism and the role of religion in the modern state Léon Harmel Joan L. Coffey, 2003 A study of the French industrialist who from 1870 to 1914 advanced social Catholic and Christian democratic movements by improving factory conditions and empowering workers Joan Coffey's book represents the first study of Leon Harmel in English The modern commonwealth (1763 to 1919) Ramsay Muir, 1923 The Contemporary Review, 1879 The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned, 1923 Library Books Los Angeles Public Library, 1914

Discourses of Citizenship in Contemporary France Charles M. Hoffman, 2004 This dissertation examines the evolution of citizenship as a public philosophy in France since 1981 The quarter century since 1981 has been marked by increasing ethnic and religious diversity the incomplete integration of second and third generation citizens as well as their non European immigrant parents and the rise of an anti liberal response from the new right and the National Front In the 1980s a new discourse of multiculturalism and a new social movement of anti racism emerged as a consequence of these factors In France however multiculturalism and the emergence of a participatory civil society represented an unexpected challenge to French republicanism a model of citizenship initially adumbrated in the late nineteenth century in a mostly rural state facing continued monarchist and counter revolutionary forces The dissertation analyzes the challenges of deep value pluralism and late modern individualism to the French republican idea Through the discourses and analyses of social and political theorists key public intellectuals and leaders in the anti racist movement I analyze the evolution of civil society since 1981 from its problematic origins in the right to difference to the more promising new citizenship politics I explain how neo republicanism a reaffirmation of the lay republic and the French mission civilisatrice came to replace the right to difference as the dominant model of citizenship by 1989 I argue that neo republicanism is an anachronism it represents the renewal of a combative la cit designed to wage a battle against religious sentiment and premodern communities during the first half of the Third Republic a period of modernization and nation building I theorize an enlarged conception of French la cit that can harmonize a participatory multiculturalism and a democratized republicanism Drawing upon the sociological resources of the new citizenship politics I sketch a model of participatory multicultural republicanism that can successfully manage value pluralism while still providing for the enlightened moral development of citizens The successful combination of multiculturalism and republicanism sketched in the study furnishes both a contribution to comparative political theory and a modern vision of French exceptionalism The Growth of British Policy Sir John Robert Seeley, 1895 The University Extension Journal London Society for the Extension of University Teaching, 1894 The Encyclopedia Americana , 1927 Western Reserve University Catalogue Western Reserve University, 1924 Beginning 19 each bulletin contains details of curricula course description college rules etc for one of the schools or colleges at Western Reserve University College for Women Western Reserve University, 1925
