The Twisted Sane Vs The Insane:

The Twisted Gary Turcotte, 2019-06-19 I dedicated my life as a teen to follow my dream of becoming a psychologist The idea of understanding the troubles of the human mind intrigued me To comfort those who needed to be consoled and to reach their darkest secrets and restore them I felt like a tin worker taking the dents from a crashed fender and with a little polish they could be normal acceptable and maybe as good as new But that was a falsity an arrogant ignorant naive fantasy of what the profession really was I was taken to the breaking point many times and soon my colleagues were counseling me Some days they needed a session too We listened to each other Unable to maintain a relationship I was childless and without a mate My entire being was devoted to the consuming draining ongoing wars inside my patience s minds The reality was that there was no escape for them and soon I felt I would join them Many events convinced me that my own sanity was questionable To listen to the stories of the twisted minds and not feel the contamination was against all self preservation
