German-Jewish Émigré Autobiography Abraham Rubin,2024-11-30 Conversion and Catastrophe in German Jewish migr Autobiography is a collective biography of four German Jewish converts to Christianity recounting their spiritual and confessional journeys against the backdrop of the Holocaust and its aftermath Focusing on personal testimonies that fuse historical trauma and spiritual illumination into one narrative the book explores how Jewish emigrants interpreted their experiences of persecution and displacement through the hermeneutics of Christian conversion It draws on autobiographies novels religious writings and newspaper articles as well as unpublished archival materials such as diaries lecture notes and private correspondence The book explores how chosen genres of writing both enabled and hindered self understanding It also assesses whether the literary paradigm of Christian conversion highlighting an individual's separation from a past sinful self is suitable for expressing a collective catastrophe. Applying psychoanalysis, disability studies and autobiographical theory to the life writing of converted Jews, the book offers new avenues for conceptualizing the Jewishness of historical subjects who disavowed their ties to Judaism. Published in association with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum.

Two Views of Virtue F. F. Centore, 2000-05-30 Centore's work is an inquiry into the weaknesses and strengths of the two basic positions in ethics: the man-centered model and the God-centered model for deciding between right and wrong behavior. The philosophical paradigm for the man-centered approach is absolute relativism, while the paradigm for the God-centered approach is relative absolutism. Centore argues that the man-centered model in actual practice proves not to be realistic as an ethical guide, while the God-centered model, if properly understood, is the most useful approach. This work penetrates difficult ethical issues by examining human experience and reasoning in conjunction with actual choices of action. Although the God-centered approach is shown to be the most practical, Centore argues for a natural moral law that avoids any specific theology. Each chapter discusses the historical and theoretical background of the approaches and two possible compromises. The work is enlivened with examples of possible contexts in which moral decisions must take place. Various ethical dilemmas are presented with an examination of the potential consequences of applying either the atheistic or the theistic ethical approach. Centore's argument is complex but he explains the elements clearly and his conclusion is strengthened by real-life cases and an extensive Bibliography.

Confusions and Clarifications F. F. Centore, 1997 This book brings together the chief elements of 3 000 years of philosophy as found mainly in Western thought in a highly readable form. The work concentrates on problems and issues much more than on names, dates and places. The book includes an extensive bibliography of works related to the main themes of the text, followed by a long list of names and dates of leading historical figures in various fields, especially in science, philosophy and theology.

Theism or Atheism F.F. Centore, 2017-11-22 From the time of the thinkers of ancient Greece, the question of what can be said about the existence and nature of God has been debated by many philosophers and theologians. In Theism and Atheism: The Eternal Debate, F. F. Centore presents a broad analysis of the major positions that address the question and the thinkers who have contributed to the debate. This is an admirably lucid and thorough examination of the history of natural theology. Covering the material in a thematic rather than in a strictly chronological way, Centore draws out the key positions on topics such as the relationship of science and religion, the problem of evil, Naturalistic and Supernaturalistic theism, and the dispute between essence and existence. The proponents of the various positions are considered alongside their most explicit critics. Important thinkers dealt with in this work include Plato, Aristotle, Aquinas, Descartes, Pascal, Kant, Hume, Hegel, Nietzsche, Freud, and Darwin. The diversity of exploration also goes beyond the Judeo-Christian tradition to look at Hinduism, Buddhism, Stoicism, Zoroastrianism, Confucianism, and Classical Paganism. This work, however, is much more than a survey of the major historical arguments and rebuttals concerning God's existence and nature Overall it is a work by a well established Catholic philosopher who concludes that God's existence and nature are indeed compatible with modern science human freedom and the existence of evil in the world Catalog of Copyright Entries.
