Bring Back Testimonies Scarlett Stoyer, his book delves into the profound journey of faith and personal testimony exploring themes of spiritual awakening shared experiences and the transformative power of vulnerability Through a collection of heartfelt narratives it highlights the importance of voices that have often gone unheard while challenging cultural norms and the fear of rejection that can silence genuine expression The chapters guide readers on a quest for connection empowerment and liberation emphasizing the impact of testimonies on individuals and the broader church community By creating safe spaces for dialogue and reflection this book aims to inspire future generations to embrace their faith as a rich heritage building bridges over divides and fostering a collective journey of growth and understanding Through the weaving of these transformative stories the book affirms that faith is lived out in action continually shaping our lives and the world around us

Foundations of Anglican Evangelicalism in Victoria Wei-Han Kuan,2019-05-20 For more than half a century the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne was unquestionably the most rigorously evangelical and missions oriented diocese in Australia The Diocese of Sydney in that same period was decidedly broader in theological and liturgical practice How and why did Melbourne move in one direction while Sydney in the other This study suggests that the answers are to be found in four vital contributors local churches evangelical societies theological colleges and diocesan bishops For three broad periods of history between 1847 and 1937 the presence of these four contributors is uncovered described and evaluated for the Diocese of Melbourne Evangelical activism theological reflection and leadership are each shown in their contemporary contexts to help us understand how people with gospel passion sought to respond faithfully to their times This is the question of vision leadership and strategy at the heart of this study What makes for long term evangelical continuity over a hundred year period
