Ending Terrorism Audrey Kurth Cronin, 2012-12-06 Like all other terrorist movements al Qaeda will end While it has traits that exploit and reflect the current international context it is not utterly without precedent some aspects of al Qaeda are unusual but many are not Terrorist groups end according to recognisable patterns that have persisted for centuries and they reflect among other factors the counter terrorist policies taken against them It makes sense to formulate those policies with a specific image of an end in mind Understanding how terrorism ends is the best way to avoid being manipulated by the tactic There is vast historical experience with the decline and ending of terrorist campaigns yet few policymakers are familiar with it This paper first explains five typical strategies of terrorism and why Western thinkers fail to grasp them It then describes historical patterns in ending terrorism to suggest how insights from that history can lay a foundation for more effective counter strategies Finally it extracts policy prescriptions specifically relevant to ending the campaign of al Qaeda and its associates moving towards a post al Qaeda world

What Every Radical Should Know about State Repression Victor Serge, 2024-05-28 This classic manual on repression by revolutionary activist Victor Serge offers fascinating anecdotes about the tactics of police provocateurs and an analysis of the documents of the Tsarist secret police in the aftermath of the Russian revolution With a new introduction by Howard Zinn collaborator Anthony Arno Victor Serge is one of the unsung heroes of a corrupt century Adam Hochschild author of King Leopold's Ghost As we approach the 100th anniversary of Victor Serge's 1926 classic expos of political repression the specter of fear as a tool of political repression is chillingly familiar to us in world increasingly threatened by totalitarianism Serge's expos of the surveillance methods used by the Czarist police reads like a spy thriller An irrepressible rebel Serge wrote this manual for political activists describing the structures of state repression and how to dodge them including how to avoid being followed what to do if arrested and tips on securing correspondence He also explains how such repression is ultimately ineffective Repression can really only live off fear But is fear enough to remove need thirst for justice intelligence reason idealism Relying on intimidation the reactionaries forget that they will cause more indignation more hatred more thirst for martyrdom than real fear They only intimidate the weak they exasperate the best forces and temper the resolution of the strongest Victor Serge When Women Kill Belinda Morrissey,2003 Based on case studies from the US UK and Australia this book looks at the ways in which female killers are constructed in the media in law and in feminist discourse almost invariably as victims rather than actors in the crimes they commit
